Grant Money Through Collaborative Partnerships Nancy Kalikow Maxwell, 2012-03-29 Maxwell offers an abundance of practical advice and encouragement for using this novel approach to secure additional funding for libraries

Privatizing Libraries Jane Jerrard, Nancy Bolt, Karen Strege, 2012-01-26 This timely special report from ALA Editions provides a succinct but comprehensive overview of the privatization of public libraries. It provides a history of the trend of local and state governments privatizing public services and assets and then examines the history of public library privatization right up to the California legislation introduced earlier this year to restrict cities in the state from privatizing library services. The book also examines what happens when a private for-profit organization takes over essential management tasks and decisions of a public library including the effects this can have on services, patron satisfaction and staff as well as legal issues. It provides in-depth recommendations for librarians who want to retain control of their own institutions. Complete with case studies, statistics and a valuable checklist of to-dos for libraries that are facing partial or complete privatization.

The ALA Book of Library Grant Money, Ninth Edition Nancy Kalikow Maxwell, 2014-02-03 This all in one resource for researching library and school grants is back in a new edition and more useful than ever offering refreshed content and even more guidance on locating grant funding sources. Using this guide librarians, fundraisers and researchers will find quick convenient access to information on the most likely funding sources for libraries including private foundations, corporate foundations, corporate direct givers, government agencies and library and nonprofit organizations. Edited by Nancy Kalikow Maxwell a grant writer with 35 years of experience this edition includes more than 200 new entries as well as a detailed introduction explaining the concept of grant readiness and walking readers through the steps of preparing their institution for a grant project including strategic planning, conducting a needs assessment and identifying potential partners. Guidance on the most effective ways to use the directory with an explanation of inclusion criteria and data elements. Multiple indexes for finding the right information fast. A new section covering grant related organizations and sources to aid readers looking for grant writers or grant development assistance. The challenge of finding the money will be made easier with this guide's clear and comprehensive information.

The Special Collections Handbook Alison Cullingford, 2016-12-22 This comprehensive and no-nonsense guide to working with special collections and rare books is an essential day-to-day companion. Working with special collections can vary dramatically from preserving a single rare book to managing and digitizing vast mixed media archives yet the role of the information professional is always critical in tapping into the potential of these collections, protecting their legacy and bringing them to the attention of the wider public. This book offers up-to-date guidance which pulls together insights from best practice across the heritage sector to build innovative, cooperative and questioning mind sets that will help them to cope in turbulent times. The Handbook covers all aspects of special collections work: preservation, developing collections, understanding objects, emergency planning, security, legal and ethical.
