

The background of the cover features a photograph of two elderly individuals walking across a vast, green field. On the left, a man in a dark suit and tie is walking towards the right. On the right, a woman in a red and black patterned jacket and light-colored pants is walking towards the left, with her arm around the man's shoulder. In the far distance, a white lighthouse with a dark top is visible on a small island or headland. The sky is a pale, clear blue.

For Every Matter under Heaven Beverly Zink-Sawyer,Donna Giver-Johnston,2022-12-08 For everything there is a season as the writer of Ecclesiastes reminds us and that includes preaching Beyond ordinary Sunday morning worship many other seasons special occasions arise for preaching in the life of the church whether by virtue of the secular calendar or celebrations or circumstances in the congregation or community For Every Matter under Heaven Preaching on Special Occasions offers preachers a process for creating sermons that are biblically grounded and relevant to the occasion Two obvious occasions of this sort are weddings and funerals however church anniversaries dedications of new buildings or furnishings commitment of pledges in stewardship season and ordination and installation services also call for preaching on a special theme or topic In addition some congregations acknowledge secular holidays such as the Fourth of July and Thanksgiving Day in worship Pastors are often called on to preach at events outside the church And all congregations face local or national tragedies and crises that call for a word from the Lord These occasions require a different kind of sermon or at least a different process of preparation Most preachers have been taught that sermons begin with a biblical text usually a text prescribed by a standard lectionary Beverly Zink Sawyer and Donna Giver Johnston offer preachers a process for finding appropriate sermon texts for special occasions by considering the occasion itself the listeners who might be gathered and the ways God is at work in that time and place Through this process preachers can offer a word for every matter under heaven

One Gospel Many Ears Ronald J. Allen, Joseph R. Jeter, Every time a congregation gathers for worship many different people from different points in life with different needs and perspectives come together each refracting messages through their own lenses Each person processes communication in ways that are influenced by age gender race personality type ethnicity education and social and economic background Jeter and Allen explore how these factors affect the ways in which members of the congregation receive and process sermons and how the preacher can optimize the opportunity for each to hear and understand the gospel and one another

The Challenges of Caregiving: Seeing, Serving, Solving Rick Caracciolo, 2019-08-20

Man's perception and how to accept aging has not changed dramatically since the beginning of time or over the last 220 years as man's life expectancy has increased. Man is not a stagnant being and as Bathauer notes, "Psychologists tell us that all of life is made up of continuous changes from childhood all the way to old age. The last twenty years of life, the stage we call old age, brings about almost as many changes as the first twenty years. Changes in the latter part of life are usually more than all the changes during the first twenty years of life because they carry the threat of loss, disability, or other degenerative conditions." Christian counselors are trained in the spiritual and general mental health aspects of aging. Caregivers and family members usually receive their training on the job as a caregiver. As the graying of America continues at an accelerated rate, the Christian counselor, pastor, and caregiver are going to need the tools and resources to counsel and assist in this area. Aging will be an area which expands into additional areas that will affect everyone in some manner. The Christian counselor, pastor, and caregiver can benefit both professionally and personally by having an understanding of what caregiving is and is not. Also, having the knowledge of where to retrieve useable and beneficial information is a blessing to all. It helps to reassure that all involved during this very stressful time period and when major decisions might need to be made, to know that there is applicable information at hand. By having this knowledge, it will allow the counselor and caregiver to truly get a better understanding of the aging person. He is now able to help in a spiritual, mental, and physical dimension. Again, it is not expected that the counselor, pastor, and caregiver will become a specialist in aging or a gerontologist. The expectation is that the reader will find helpful information as a caregiver and counselor.

Reverberating Word Michael Denham, 2018-06-12. Like sounds of beautiful music, worship can renew us for God's glory and our good by the invigorating power of God's reverberating Word. It is God's story that redeems all our stories. We want to tell it again and again as best we can, clearly conveying its message, meaning, richness, claim, and call. Through its every facet and component, worship that is biblically expositional can heighten how we proclaim God's story faithfully and creatively, pointing to the One who alone offers us true identity, security, and destiny. If you seek me, you will find me; if you search with all your heart, declares the Lord. With the ancient prophets and apostles, we must repeat and repeat and repeat the most wonderful truth that God wants to be found. In Christian worship, such tremendous and tender encounter is available to us as nowhere else.
