The deep hush of noon hovered over the vast solitude of Canadian forest The moose and caribou had fed since early dawn and were resting quietly in the warmth of the February sun the lynx was curled away in his niche between the great rocks waiting for the sun to sink farther into the north and west before resuming his marauding adventures the fox was taking his midday slumber and the restless moose birds were fluffing themselves lazily in the warm glow that was beginning to melt the snows of late winter It was that hour when the old hunter on the trail takes off his pack silently gathers wood for a fire eats his dinner and smokes his pipe eyes and ears alert that hour when if you speak above a whisper he will say to you Sh h h h Be quiet You can t tell how near we are to game Everything has had its morning feed and is lying low The game won t be moving again for an hour or two and there may be moose or caribou a gunshot ahead We couldn t hear them now And yet after a time one thing detached itself from this lifeless solitude At first it was nothing more than a spot on the sunny side of a snow covered ridge Then it moved stretched itself like a dog with its forefeet extended far to the front and its shoulders hunched low and was a wolf The Wolf Hunters James Oliver Curwood,2015-02-11 This early work by James Oliver Curwood was originally published in 1908 and we are now republishing it with a brand new introductory biography The Wolf Hunters sees an American boy who has become friends with a Native American boy together they discover a mysterious cabin and stumble upon a secret that has lain hidden for half a century The Wolf Hunters is the prequel to The Gold Hunters James Oliver Jim Curwood was an American action adventure writer and conservationist He was born on 12th June 1878 in Owosso Michigan USA In 1900 Curwood sold his first story while working for the Detroit News Tribune and after this his career in writing was made By 1909 he had saved enough money to travel to the Canadian northwest a trip that provided the inspiration for his wilderness adventure stories The success of his novels afforded him the opportunity to return to the Yukon and Alaska for several months each year allowing Curwood to write more than thirty such books Curwood s adventure writing followed in the tradition of Jack London Like London Curwood set many of his works in the wilds of the Great Northwest and often used animals as lead characters Kazan Baree Son of Kazan The Grizzly King and Nomads of the North Many of Curwood s adventure novels also feature romance as primary or secondary plot consideration This approach gave his work broad commercial appeal and helped drive his appearance on several best seller lists in the early 1920s His most successful work was his 1920 novel The River s End The book sold more than 100 000 copies and was the fourth best selling title of the year in the United States according to Publisher s Weekly He contributed to various literary and popular magazines throughout his career and his bibliography includes more than 200 such articles short stories and serializations Curwood was an avid hunter in his youth however as he
