Gotta Find A Home Conversations With Street People:

Benched Rufe McCombs, Karen Spears Zacharias, 1997

About A Girl Tony Nesca, Ukiyoto Publishing, About the Book

About a girl is a short novel that begins with two strangers a man and a woman who meet at a bus stop and go on an impromptu bar crawl on a cool winter day Taking place in twelve hours it recounts the oddball hardcore characters they meet and their increasing emotional connection as they fall for each other almost immediately Infused with sexual energy pop culture references intellectual debate and literary allusions this is an unapologetic uncensored look at our society through the eyes of the outsider It is written in a free flow spontaneous style with long unhindered sentences that enable the reader's eye to glide down the page as the story flows and moves to an urban beat of strippers punk rockers and nightlife happenings About the Author Tony Nesca was born in Torino Italy in 1965 and moved to Canada at the age of three He was raised in Winnipeg but relocated back to Italy several times until finally settling in Winnipeg in 1980 He taught himself how to play guitar and formed an original rock band playing the local bars for several years At the age of twenty seven he traded his guitar for a Commodore 64 and started writing seriously He has published six chapbooks of stories and poems which he used to sell straight out of his knapsack at local dives and bookstores six novels four books of poetry one short story collection and has been an active contributor to the underground lit scene for fifteen years being published in innumerable magazines both online and in print He currently resides in Winnipeg Smoke and Mirrors Stephanie Urso

Spina, 2000-10-18 Many of our country's children face daily a threat to their personal safety and well being As school boards law enforcement officials and policymakers continue to look for ways to stop youth violence in urban and suburban schools not enough attention is paid to eradicating the socioeconomic and cultural conditions that give rise to these acts In this timely and thought provoking collection seasoned educators and cultural theorists emphasize this connection between youth violence and the realities faced by many children poverty racism unequal opportunity and the media's glorification of violence

Welcome to the Team Daniel Arndt, 2015-05-05 Seventeen year old Eli Rieman who suffered from PTSD after an almost fatal stabbing tells the true story of his rise and fall through the high school drug party industry Inside this book entails his real struggle to cope with tragedy using drugs and popularity with a slight twist in reality of which might be small but could've certainly changed his fate From the perspective of the author and his friends the reader gets an inside look at what denial and silence can do to a boy and an entire town

Great Falls A Lopez, Dr, 2007-04 A Lopez lives in the Southwest As a hobby he studies the world and tries to reduce its multi dimensionality to a two dimensional form that might make sense now and then He writes out of habit which at times lags due to lack of interest He suggests we read more and watch more college basketball unless the reading material is utterly boring and nonsensical or the games are fixed In that case watch professional badminton Who would bother to fix one of their games up anyway Ciao

The House by the Cemetery John Everson, 2018-10-18 The House by the Cemetery involves everything that a horror aficionado could ever want an undead witch comic relief a haunted house dedicated to obscure and not so obscure horror films and lots and lots of gore Indeed The House by the Cemetery could easily be transcribed into an action packed screenplay The New York Journal of Books Rumor has it that the abandoned house by the cemetery is haunted by the ghost of a witch But rumors won't stop carpenter Mike Kostner from rehabbing the place as a haunted house attraction Soon he'll learn that fresh wood and nails can't keep decades of rumors down There are noises in the walls and fresh blood on the floor secrets that would be better not to discover And behind the rumors is a real ghost who will do whatever it takes to ensure the house reopens She needs people to fill her house on Halloween There's a dark horrible ritual to fulfill Because while the witch may have been dead she doesn't intend to stay that way FLAME TREE PRESS is the new fiction imprint of Flame Tree Publishing Launching in 2018 the list brings together brilliant new authors and the more established the award winners and exciting original voices

Homeless Joshua D. Phillips, 2016-10-04 A half century after the War on Poverty of Lyndon Johnson poverty rates remain unchanged Scholars have advanced polarized theories about the causes of poverty as politicians have debated how or if to fund welfare programs Yet little research has been conducted where the poor are provided a platform to speak on their own behalf While it is important to understand how economic systems affect the homeless it is equally important to learn about the day to day realities faced by those who rely on public policies for survival Drawing on the author's experience working in the homeless community this book presents some of their stories of loss abuse addiction and marginalization through interviews observations and ethnographic research Talking Hawaii's Story Michiko Kodama-Nishimoto, Warren

Nishimoto, Cynthia A. Oshiro, 2009-05-01 Talking Hawaii's Story is the first major book in over a generation to present a rich sampling of the landmark work of Hawaii's Center for Oral History Twenty nine extensive oral histories introduce readers to the sights and sounds of territorial Waikiki to the feeling of community in Palama in Kona or on the island of Lanai and even to the experience of a German national interned by the military government after Pearl Harbor The result is a collection that preserves Hawaii's social and cultural history through the narratives of the people who lived it co workers neighbors family members and friends An Introduction by Warren Nishimoto and Michi Kodama Nishimoto provides historical context and information about the selection and collection methods Photos of the interview subjects accompany each oral history For further reading an appendix also provides information about the Center for Oral History's major projects Equaliberty in the Dutch Caribbean Yvon van der Pijl, Francio Guadeloupe, 2022-04-15 Equaliberty in the Dutch Caribbean is a collection of essays that explores fundamental questions of equality and freedom on the non sovereign islands of the Dutch Caribbean Drawing on in depth ethnographic research historical and media analysis the study of popular culture and autoethnographic accounts the various contributions challenge conventional assumptions about political non sovereignty While the book recognizes the existence of nationalist independence movements it opens a critical space to look at other forms of political articulation autonomy liberty and a good life Focusing on all six different islands and through a multitude of voices and stories the volume engages with the everyday projects ordinary imaginaries and dreams of equal liberty alongside the work of independistas and traditional social movements aiming for more or full self determination As such it offers a rich and powerful telling of the various ways of being in and belonging to our contemporary postcolonial world Bones of Home and Other Plays Charlene A. Donaghy, 2015-10 Bones of Home and Other Plays weaves the splendor and decay of New Orleans with its past and present and then spirals out from its New Orleans center like delicate threads of a web This collection of plays brings a broad range of writing styles with contemporary and historical plays The contemporary plays spring forth from the questions of our times How does the downward economy change family dynamics How can uncontrollable crime bring people together How does our penchant for youth at all costs influence friendships How can a lonely soul find strength within The historic plays complicated by Louisiana lore offer a look at what remains the same and what has changed through the years The historic plays resonate with struggles we continue to confront today amid themes of race gender and power Donaghy embraces her characters lives complicated by choices between disparate worlds with care and a hunger to explore Her characters choices are about good and evil hope and loss faith and doubt and often involve a search for the meaning of home In These Streets Josiah Bates, 2024-05-28 Inspired by what he learned as a journalist and grounded in his own lived experience the author explores the roles of poverty policing and community investment and disinvestment showing how each of these elements impacts gun violence A Good Place For Maniacs Chuck McKeever, 2020-04-14 Looking to make a radical change in his life English teacher Chuck McKeever decides to hike the 2 650 mile Pacific Crest Trail The only problem he s never backpacked for more than a weekend before Along this winding path from Mexico to Canada he meets colorful characters bears witness to some of America s most beautiful scenery and learns unforgettable lessons about fear perseverance and the power of community Set against the backdrop of the 2016 presidential election A Good Place for Maniacs is a timely reminder that everything in American life is inherently political and that no one ever really does anything great alone The Road Less Travelled Michael Johnson, 2012-06 My name is Michael Johnson this book is a short and brief testimony of my life it covers a lot of everyday struggles that some of us have and some of us don t and I had to share it because I believe many of us have secrets and hide a lot of pain in them if you are sick how can a doctor help you unless you get diagnosed first and how can he do that unless you go to him So that s one reason why I wrote this about my life I couldn t get better until I brought it to the Lord and that s when the healing began Lastly I hope this book is an inspiration and healing tool for all that reads it Falling Back Jamie J. Fader, 2013-04-15 Jamie J Fader documents the transition to adulthood for a particularly vulnerable population young inner city men of color who have by the age of eighteen already been imprisoned How she asks do such precariously situated youth become adult men What are the sources of change in their lives Falling Back is based on over three years of ethnographic research with black and Latino males on the cusp of adulthood and incarcerated at a rural reform school designed to address criminal thinking errors among juvenile drug offenders Fader observed these young men as they transitioned back to their urban Philadelphia neighborhoods resuming their daily lives and struggling to adopt adult masculine roles This in depth ethnographic approach allowed her to portray the complexities of human decision making as these men strove to fall back or avoid reoffending and become productive adults Her work makes a unique contribution to sociological understandings of the transitions to adulthood urban social inequality prisoner reentry and desistance from offending
