Governance And Poverty Reduction Beyond The Cage Of Best Practices:

GOVERNANCE AND POVERTY REDUCTION AMITA SINGH, KAPIL KAPOOR, RABINDRANATH

BHATTACHARYYA, 2008-12-04 Poverty reduction in South Asia is a precondition for sustaining any form of reforms in governance. The new public management reforms which started in South Asia from Sri Lanka taking the initiative in 1977-78 have been a decisive break from the previously practised State driven protectionist system. Investment in the region has been rising and even per capita income has shown some increase yet the state has not been able to lead these reforms appropriately and efficiently. Thus poverty has not been reduced; ordinary people continue to languish under government programmes and the socially excluded remain outside the mainstream decision making bodies. Governance in South Asia faces the single most important challenge of poverty reduction which continues to blunt and disfigure capacity, self-esteem and service delivery system to the poor. This book attempts to bring out microlevel studies from many regions in South Asia to address issues of entrepreneurship, knowledge and professionalism. As an initiator of the idea on developing a critique to the straightjacketed best practice research, this book questions the standard practice in evaluating administrative reforms as not being the true base for knowledge. Administrators need to balance capacity and control in every implementation programme. Confining to the knowledge of best practices may conceal enormous amount of information from the less than best practices which may be necessary to sustain good initiatives of public managers. This book highlights areas of active networking, partnerships and collaborations amongst state and non-state bodies, NGOs and specialist Science and Technical Organizations. The true nature of governance is explained and demonstrated through the processes which otherwise pass off undetected in macro understanding of governance.

Mapping Governance Innovations Sangita Dhal, Nachiketa

Singh, Amir Mohammad Nasrullah, 2024-08-21 This volume explores the nature, success and challenges of governance innovations in South Asia. It compares innovations and reforms that have been undertaken specifically in Bangladesh, Bhutan, India, Nepal, Pakistan and Sri Lanka. It examines how these South Asian nations have fared in promoting the values of good governance both at the national and local levels. The volume focuses mainly on three themes: innovations and reforms in public administration, e-governance, public service delivery and innovations in local governance. It assesses how South Asian countries have sought to mitigate the challenges of governance and overcome the obstacles that characterized the transition from the old traditional architecture of governance to the new and modern technologically enabled models of governance. Lucid and topical, this book will be of great interest to scholars of politics, public administration and governance, public policy, public management, international relations, development studies and related social science disciplines.

Building

Sustainable Communities Md. Nurul Momen, Rajendra Baikady, Cheng Sheng Li, M. Basavaraj, 2020-11-12 The book aims to explore South Asian third sector, the nonprofit organizations as provider of social services. The book defines social welfare and describes its relationship to social service programmes and individual well-being; understands the social policy development from the problem identification to policy implementation describes the range of organization of social service agencies that are responsible for providing social welfare programmes explores the various roles that professional and non professional helpers provide in the delivery of social welfare and their influence in promoting change in policy development and understands the umbrella concept of Child welfare welfare of people with disability and elderly welfare in welfare policy

Millennium Development Goals and Community Initiatives in the Asia Pacific Amita Singh, Eduardo T. Gonzalez, Stanley Bruce Thomson, 2012-12-18 The book brings together implementation studies from the Asia Pacific countries in the context of the deadline of 2015 for achieving the Millennium Development Goals The contributors to this volume are scholars belonging to the Network of Asia Pacific Schools and Institutes of Public Administration and Governance NAPSIPAG NAPSIPAG is the only non West governance research network presently located at Jawaharlal Nehru University New Delhi after having shifted from its original location at INTAN Government of Malaysia at Kuala Lumpur in 2009 Implementation is a less understood but a much debated area of governance research It requires micro level analysis of government agencies service delivery departments and stakeholders on one hand and its national and global policy level connections on the other Implementation studies are above disciplinary divides and subsequent disjunctions which inhibit explorations on policy downsides or failures The studies relate to the new initiatives which governments across the region have undertaken to reach out to the MDG targets agreed upon in 2000 The focus of analysis is the policy framework local capacities of both the government agencies and people in drawing partnerships with relevant expert groups ability to bring transparency and accountability measures in transactions for cost effective results leadership and sustainability dimensions which influence the functioning of local agencies The book is especially important in the background of 15 voluminous Administrative Reforms Commission Reports accumulating dust in India and similar efforts lying unattended in many other countries of this region as well Countries like Malaysia which has focused upon implementation strategies combined with timely evaluation and supervision of administrative agencies has almost achieved most of their committed MDGs A special report of Malaysian efforts initiates the debate of moving beyond the best practice research in implementation arena The central idea of this book is to demonstrate the role of communities in making governance effective and government responsive to the needs of people Strategic Disaster Risk Management in Asia Huong Ha, R. Lalitha S. Fernando, Amir Mahmood, 2015-05-29 This book presents strategies for managing disasters and reducing risks in Asian countries Given the dynamic changes in the natural environment as well as the patterns of land use and management the growing populations of the developing nations in Asia migration patterns and other social cultural aspects the impacts of disasters have increased manifold in Asian countries Against this backdrop the book examines disaster management issues such as disaster preparedness post disaster reconstruction peace development and corruption The views of different groups of stakeholders are incorporated in the discussion to ensure a comprehensive analysis of and findings on the governance process as well as best practices in pre and post disaster management The book also includes chapters focusing on aspects often overlooked in the context of disaster management such as the need to invest in public education to improve public awareness and approaches to supporting the disabled the vulnerable and the elderly from disaster risks In closing the book presents research on disaster management methods employed by different countries in the Asian region Acknowledgement The editors acknowledge the role of the Network of Asia Pacific Schools and Institutes of Public Administration and Governance NAPSIPAG which is the largest governance research network in the Asia Pacific region in bringing out this book NAPSIPAG has been regularly organizing international meetings of administrators academia and non state bodies to provide a forum to the regional scholars to deliberate with the international governance experts It has also helped the international policy organizations to have a better understanding about the region through a local lens of Asiatic anthropology ethnography and culture of administration

The Poorest and Hungry Joachim Von Braun,Ruth Elaine Hill,Rajul Pandya-Lorch,2009 Have the lives of the world s poorest neediest people improved over the past few decades What policies have lifted some people out of the worst forms of poverty and what conditions keep others mired within it The Poorest and Hungry Assessment Analyses and Actions answers such questions bringing together studies of both what causes and what reduces severe poverty from a diverse group of development specialists The book focuses on the poorest and hungry in society and identifies areas for action Stable economic growth targeted social programs and insurance that invest in and protect nutrition health and education and political and social inclusion of previously marginalized groups emerge as the essential requirements for poverty reduction and this book s contributors identify strategies for promoting all three The Poorest and Hungry is an important resource for policymakers development specialists and others concerned with helping the world s poorest people Research Methods for History Simon Gunn,2011-11-30 The first guide to the sources techniques and concepts needed for effective historical research While historians have become increasingly sensitive to social and cultural theory since the 1980s the actual methods by which research is carried out in History have been largely taken for granted Research Methods for History encourages those researching the past to think creatively about the wide range of methods currently in use to understand how these methods are used and what historical insights they can provide The book covers sources and methods that are well established in History such as archival research together with those that are less widely known The themes of the different chapters have been selected to reflect recent trends in the subject Even with more established methods however the aim is to present new insights and perspectives and to open researchers minds to new methodological possibilities Disaster Law Amita Singh,2017-07-28 This book looks at how legal frameworks can and do reduce risks arising out of disasters The volume analyses existing disaster laws and the challenges on the ground brings together case studies from some of the most vulnerable regions and proposes solutions to avert existing and possible future crises The book offers appropriate legal frameworks for disaster management which could not only offer sustainable institutional reforms towards community resilience and preparedness but also reduce risk within the frameworks of justice equity and accountability It examines the intricacies of governance within which governments function and discusses how recent trends in infrastructure development and engineering technology could be balanced within the legal principles of ethics transparency and integrity The chapters in the volume suggest that legal frameworks ought to resonate with new challenges of resource management and climate change Further these frameworks could help secure citizens trust institutional accountability and effective implementation through an unceasing partnership which keeps the community better prepared and more resilient This volume will be indispensable to scholars and researchers of disaster management law public policy environment and development studies as well as policymakers and those in administrative governmental judicial and development sectors
