New Georgia laws go into effect today

By CURT YEOMANS

While Georgia's new hands-free driving law has attracted most of the attention when it comes to new state laws that go into effect today, there are plenty of other new laws that Gwinnett residents need to keep an eye on.

An open door to tighter local restrictions on fireworks, and a new way for the state to collect unpaid toll fines and revised fines for passing a school bus stopped to pick up kids are some of the new laws that go into effect this week, end.

One of the big laws now in effect may be the fireworks bill, House Bill 419, because it could mean about fireworks any day of the year atmosphere that has existed since fireworks became legal in Georgia in 2015 could be curtailed.

The bill lets cities and counties restrict fireworks use through general noise ordinances. The only exceptions guaranteed in the law are New Year's Day, the Saturday and Sunday before Memorial Day, July 3, the Fourth of July, Labor Day and New Year's Eve.

Fireworks retailers must also post signs encouraging customers to check local ordinances before setting off fireworks and warning them that setting them off near military veterans or animals can trigger traumatic experiences. Meanwhile, drivers who incur toll violations while using the E-ZPass Lanes on Interstate 85 could see any unpaid fines taken out of their state tax refunds. House Bill 150 lets the State Road and Tollway Authority collect on debts.

Youth commissioners get look inside county government

As Lawrenceville youth Esther Ayumusi strapped an oxygen tank to her back at the Gwinnett County Fire Academy in Dacula on Wednesday, she carefully made sure she followed the directions from academy recruits exactly.

She and about 24 other Gwinnett County High School students also got to ride in a fire engine, use a fire hose to spray down the side of a scorched training building and learned how to more than that to Ayumusi.

The 16-year-old Dacula High School student was examining a potential career as a paramedic.

'Dancing Doctor' to face 2.5-year suspension

By RALPH ELLIS and JAMES LYNCH

Gwinnett's "Dancing Doctor" has agreed to give up her medical license for at least two-and-a-half years, according to an agreement filed Friday with the Georgia Composite Medical Board.

The consent order signed by Windell Bousie, a board-

Windell Bousie

certified dermatologist based in Lilburn, says that her license to practice medicine in Georgia is indefinitely suspended, but after two-and-a-half years she can petition to have the suspension lifted.

She cannot use the title "doctor" or engage in the practice of medicine during her suspension, the document says, and will drop her own court case in which she seeks a temporary restraining order.

CNN has attempted to reach Bousie for comment on the agreement.

The consent order doesn't mention the now-deleted YouTube videos of Bousie dancing during medical procedures. In one video, she dances with surgical instruments in both hands and beams over a patient's half-nude buttocks while rapping her own lyrics to "Rigga - Bae and Baeje."

The consent order, instead, describes seven instances of

DA drops charges on daughter

Death of mother found stabbed still considered suspicious

By ISABEL HUGHES

isabel.hughes@gwinnettdailypost.com

The Gwinnett County District Attorney's Office has dismissed all charges against a Snellville woman who was arrested earlier this week, after her mother was found dead from stab wounds.

On Monday, Jacquelyn Craft, 35, called 911 to report that her mother, 65-year-old Evelyn Craft, had stabbed herself to death, according to Gwinnett Police Sgt. Luke Smith.

"Responding officers found the circumstances suspicious and contacted Bloodside Unit and the Crime Scene Unit investigated further and found evidence which contradicted Jacquelyn Craft's story."

A day later, the younger Craft was charged with aggravated assault and felony murder and was transported to the Gwinnett County Jail without bond. On Friday, however, Craft was released after the District Attorney's Office announced they had administratively dismissed the charges, meaning Craft's warrants were dismissed and she is no longer charged with a crime.

"On Tuesday, we were at the point where we were confident we had reached a probable cause standard for her arrest. But later, Gwinnett County Medical Examiner Carol Terry met with us and presented us with scientific evidence that still led us to believe we didn't actually have probable cause."

"Once we had that information indicating that there may be a suicide, we didn't feel comfortable having (Craft) in custody. Some jurisdictions call this a 'dual decision' but we don't use (technical) reasons."

Smith said Gwinnett detectives are continuing to investigate the case as a suspicious death.
