DeVries, 2013-09-05 A History of Ecology and Environmentalism in Spanish American Literature undertakes a comprehensive ecocritical examination of the region's literature from the foundational texts of the nineteenth century to the most recent fiction The book begins with a consideration of the way in which Argentine Domingo Faustino Sarmiento's views of nature through the lens of the categories of civilization and barbarity from Facundo 1845 are systematically challenged and revised in the rest of the century Subsequently this book develops the argument that a vital part of the cultural critique and aesthetic innovations of Spanish American modernismo involve an ecological challenge to deepening discourses of untamed development from Europe and the United States In other chapters many of the well established titles of regional and indigenista literature are contrasted to counter traditions within those genres that express aspects of environmental justice deep ecology the relational role of emotion in nature protectionism and conservationism even the rights of non human nature Finally the concluding chapters find that the articulation of ecological advocacy in recent fiction is both more explicit than what came before but also impacts the formal elements of literature in unique ways Textual conventions such as language imagery focalization narrative sequence metafiction satire and parody represent innovations of form that proceed directly from the ethical advocacy of environmentalism The book concludes with comments about what must follow as a result of the analysis including the revision of canon the development of literary criticism from novel approaches such as critical animal studies and the advent of a critical dialogue within the bounds of Spanish American environmentalist literature A History of Ecology and Environmentalism in Spanish American Literature attempts to develop a sense of the way in which ecological ideas have developed over time in the literature particularly the way in which many Spanish American texts anticipate several of the ecological discourses that have recently become so central to global culture current environmentalist thought and the future of humankind Fodor's Mexico 2010 Heidi Johansen,2009-12-01 Provides information on Mexican history and culture and shares advice on sightseeing shopping and entertainment

Colored Men and Hombres Aquí Michael A. Olivas, 2020-04-28 This collection of ten essays commemorates the 50th anniversary of an important but almost forgotten U S Supreme court case Hernandez v Texas 347 US 475 1954 the major case involving Mexican Americans and jury selection published just before Brown v Board of Education in the 1954 Supreme Court reporter This landmark case the first to be tried by Mexican American lawyers before the U S Supreme Court held that Mexican Americans were a discrete group for purposes of applying Equal Protection Although the case was about discriminatory state jury selection and trial practices it has been cited for many other civil rights precedents in the intervening 50 years Even so it has not been given the prominence it deserves in part because it lives in the shadow of the more compelling Brown v Board case There had been earlier efforts to diversify juries reaching back at least to the trial of Gregorio Cortez in 1901 and continuing with efforts by the legendary Oscar Zeta Acosta in Los Angeles in the 1960s Even as recently as 2005 there has been clear evidence that Latino participation in the Texas jury system is still substantially unrepresentative of the growing population But in a brief and shining moment in 1954 Mexican American lawyers prevailed in a system that accorded their community no legal status and no respect Through sheer tenacity brilliance and some luck they showed that it is possible to tilt against windmills and slay the dragon Edited and with an introduction by University of Houston law scholar Michael A Olivas Colored Men and Hombres Aqui is the first full length book on this case This volume contains the papers presented at the Hernandez at 50conference which took place in 2004 at the University of Houston Law Center and also contains source materials trial briefs and a chronology of the case
