The Worst We Can Find Dale Sherman, 2023-06-15 Had you tuned in to the small television station KTMA on Thanksgiving Day 1988 you would have been one of the few witnesses to pop culture history being made On that day viewers in and around St Paul Minnesota were treated to a genuine oddity in which a man and his robots trapped within a defiantly DIY sci fi set cracked jokes while watching a terrible movie It was a cockeyed twist on the local TV programs of the past in which a host would introduce old cheaply licensed films And though its origins may have been inauspicious Mystery Science Theater 3000 captured the spirit of what had been a beloved pastime for generations of wags wiseacres and smartalecks and would soon go on to inspire countless more The Worst We Can Find is a comprehensive history of and guide to MST3K and its various offshoots including Rifftrax Cinematic Titanic and The Mads Are Back whose lean crew of writers performers and puppeteers have now been making fun of movies for over thirty years It investigates how riffing of films evolved recounts the history of these programs and considers how a practice guaranteed to annoy real life fellow moviegoers grew into such a beloved long lasting franchise As author Dale Sherman explains creative heckling has been around forever but MST3K and its progeny managed to redirect that art into a style that was both affectionate and cutting winning the devotion of countless fans and aspiring riffers

C'mon, Get Happy David Fantle, Tom Johnson, 2023-10-10 In their third and final screen teaming Judy Garland and Gene Kelly starred together in the MGM musical Summer Stock Despite its riveting production history charismatic lead actors and classic musical moments the movie has not received the same attention as other musicals from MGM's storied dream factory. In Comin' Get Happy: The Making of Summer Stock, authors David Fantle and Tom Johnson present a comprehensive study of this 1950 motion picture from start to finish and after its release. The production coincided at a critical point in the careers of Kelly and an emotionally spent Garland. Kelly, who starred in An American in Paris just one year later, was at the peak of his abilities. On the other hand, Summer Stock was Garland's final film at MGM, and she gamely completed it despite her own personal struggles. Summer Stock includes Kelly's favorite solo dance routine and Garland's signature number "Get Happy." The authors discuss in rich detail the contributions of the cast, which included Gloria DeHaven, Eddie Bracken, Phil Silvers, and Marjorie Main; the director, Charles Walters; the producer, Joe Pasternak; the script writers, George Wells and Sy Gomberg; the songwriters, which included Harry Warren and Mack Gordon; and top MGM executives, Louis B. Mayer and Dore Schary. The volume features extensive interviews conducted by the authors with Kelly, Walters, Warren, and others who shared their recollections of making the movie. Deeply researched, Comin' Get Happy reveals the studio system at work during Hollywood's Golden Era. Additionally, the authors have written a special section called "Taking Stock" that buttonholes numerous contemporary dancers, singers, choreographers, musicians, and even Garland impersonators for their take on Summer Stock, its stars, and any enduring legacy they think the film might have. Artists from Mikhail Baryshnikov, Ben Vereen, and Tommy Tune to Garland's and Kelly's daughters, Lorna Luft and Kerry Kelly Novick, respectively, offer their unique perspective on the film and its stars.
