A History of Nineteenth-Century American Women's Poetry Jennifer Putzi,Alexandra Socarides,2016-12-15 A History of Nineteenth Century American Women s Poetry is the first book to construct a coherent history of the field and focus entirely on women's poetry of the period. With contributions from some of the most prominent scholars of nineteenth-century American literature, it explores a wide variety of authors, texts, and methodological approaches. Organized into three chronological sections, the essays examine multiple genres of poetry, consider poems circulated in various manuscript and print venues, and propose alternative ways of narrating literary history. From these essays, a rich story emerges about a diverse poetics that was once immensely popular but has since been forgotten. This History confirms that the field has advanced far beyond the recovery of select individual poets. It will be an invaluable resource for students, teachers, and critics of both the literature and the history of this era. Hamilton

Lin-Manuel Miranda, Jeremy McCarter, 2016-04-12 A backstage pass to the groundbreaking hit musical Hamilton, winner of the 2016 Pulitzer Prize for Drama and Eleven Tony Awards, including Best Musical, including the award-winning libretto behind the scenes, photos, and interviews, and exclusive footnotes from composer-lyricist star Lin-Manuel Miranda, now streaming on Disney with the original cast. Lin-Manuel Miranda's groundbreaking musical Hamilton is as revolutionary as its subject: the poor kid from the Caribbean who fought the British, defended the Constitution, and helped to found the United States. Fusing hip-hop, pop, R&B, and exclusive looks at notebooks and emails, interviews with Questlove, Stephen Sondheim, leading political commentators, and more than 50 people involved with the production, and multiple appearances by President Obama himself. The book does more than tell the surprising story of how a Broadway musical became a national phenomenon. It demonstrates that America has always been renewed by the brash upstarts and brilliant outsiders, the men and women who don't throw away their shot. Handbook of Geriatric Care Management Cathy Cress, 2007 This book is a reference which addresses the many settings that geriatric care managers find themselves in, such as hospitals, long-term care facilities, and assisted living and rehabilitation facilities. It also includes case studies and sample forms. Jeffrey Service, 1916

BLEAK HOUSE (Historical Thriller Based on True Events) Charles Dickens, 2017-02-27 This carefully crafted ebook, BLEAK HOUSE: Historical Thriller Based on True Events, is formatted for your eReader with a functional and detailed table of contents. At the centre of Bleak House is the long-running legal case Jarndyce and Jarndyce, inspired by a real-life Chancery case which came about because someone wrote several conflicting wills, which then led to numerous family feuds, schemes, and murder. Charles Dickens (1812-1870) was an English writer and social critic. He created some of the world's best-known fictional characters and is regarded as the greatest novelist of the Victorian era. Contemporary Literary and Cultural Theory Jeffrey R. Di Leo, 2023-06-15 The most exhaustive mapping of contemporary literary theory to date, this book offers a comprehensive overview of the current state of the field of contemporary literary theory. Examining 75 key topics across 15 chapters, it provides an approachable and encyclopedic introduction to the most important areas of contemporary theory today. Proceeding broadly chronologically from early theory all the way through to postcritique, Di Leo masterfully unpacks established topics such as psychoanalysis, structuralism, and Marxism, as well as newer topics such as trans theory, animal studies disability studies blue humanities speculative realism and many more Featuring accessible discussion of the work of foundational theorists such as Lacan Derrida and Freud as well as contemporary theorists such as Haraway Braidotti and Hayles it offers a magisterial examination of an enormously rich and varied body of work Bleak House Charles

English Literature Elizabeth Gruber,2025-10-01 The Eco Self in Early Modern English Literature tracks an important shift in early modern conceptions of selfhood arguing that the period hosted the birth of a new subset of the human the eco self which melds a deeply introspective turn with an abiding sense of humans' embedment in the world A confluence of cultural factors produced the relevant changes Of paramount significance was the rapid spread of literacy in England and across Europe reading transformed the relationship between self and world retooled moral reasoning and even altered human anatomy This book pursues the salutary possibilities including the ecological benefits of this redesigned self by advancing fresh readings of texts by William Shakespeare Christopher Marlowe John Webster and Margaret Cavendish The eco self offers certain refinements to ecological theory by renewing appreciation for the rational deliberative functions that distinguish humans from other species The Missionary Self-Perception of Pentecostal/Charismatic Church

Leaders from the Global South in Europe Claudia Währisch-Oblau,2009-03-16 In a situation of growing interest in the religion of migrants there are still few publications dealing with pentecostal and charismatic Christians from the global South and the churches they have been starting all over Europe This ground breaking study based on extensive interviews conducted during a nine year research period encompassing more than 100 churches describes how pentecostal charismatic migrant pastors live out their pastoral role how they construct their missionary biographies and how they conceptualize and practice evangelism The result is a comprehensive portrait of an immigrant group which does not define itself as victimized and in need of assistance but as expatriate agents with a clear calling and a vision to change the continent they now live in
