Mark Beaumont, 2011-09-01 This book analyzes Christian presentations of Christ for Muslims in the most creative period of Christian Muslim dialogue the first half of the ninth and the second half of the twentieth century In these two historical moments Christians made a serious effort to present their faith in Christ in terms that take into account Muslim perceptions of him with a view to bridging the gap between Muslim and Christian convictions produced by Muslim rejection of Christ's divine sonship and the death of Christ by crucifixion A comparative study is made of the contributions of three apologists from the early ninth century Abu Qurra Abu Ra ita and Ammar al Basri and three twentieth century apologists Kenneth Cragg John Hick and Hans Kung in order to seek a model for dialogue on Christology between Christians and Muslims in the The Arabian Mission's Story Lewis R. Scudder, 1998 Volume 30 recounts the eighty year long twenty first century history of the RCA's mission work in the Middle East written by a missionary who has spent decades in the Arabian Gulf Including instructive discussion of missiological themes as well as the narrative of the church's daily work in Arabia this volume is not only of denominational interest but will also provide important insights for mission students and those actively involved in a mission field Christian Theology in the Pluralistic World Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen, 2019-06-20 K rkk inen s acclaimed five volume constructive theology abridged in one accessible volume Providing a new and unique way of doing theology in our pluralistic world Veli Matti K rkk inen presents historic Christian doctrines in relation to the natural sciences and four other living faiths Judaism Islam Buddhism and Hinduism This textbook covers all systematic topics along with a host of current issues such as violence colonialism inclusivity sociopolitical liberation environmental care and more Accessible and student friendly Christian Theology in the Pluralistic World is the ideal text for exploring a theological vision at once rooted in the Christian tradition and constructive in its engagement with the complexities of our global pluralistic Sacred Misinterpretation Martin Accad, 2019-06-06 Promotes gracious interfaith dialogue on sensitive world theological issues Theological issues are crucial to how Christians and Muslims understand and perceive each other In Sacred Misinterpretation Martin Accad guides readers through key theological questions that fuel conflict and misunderstanding between Muslims and Christians A sure footed guide he weaves personal stories together with deep discussion of theological beliefs Accad identifies trends recognizes historical realities and brings to light significant points of contention that often lead to break down in Christian Muslim dialogue He also outlines positive and creative trends that could lead to a more hopeful future Fairly and seriously presenting both Muslim theology and a Muslim interpretation of Christian theology Sacred Misinterpretation is an essential guide for fostering dialogue and understanding among readers from both faiths Mir??t Al-quds (Mirror of Holiness): A Life of Christ for Emperor Akbar Pedro Moura

Carvalho, 2011-11-25 Akbar's commission of a Life of Christ from the Jesuit Jerome Xavier resulted in a fascinating text 1602 in which the author's concern not to antagonize his Muslim hosts is apparent The 27 miniatures were inspired by the text itself resulting in unique interpretations of episodes that often do not find parallels in a European context Islamic Masculinities Amanullah De Sondy, 2013-11-07 Rigid notions of masculinity are causing crisis in the global Islamic community These are articulated from the Qur an its commentary historical precedents and societal religious and familial obligations Some Muslims who don't agree with narrow constructs of manliness feel forced to consider themselves secular and therefore outside the religious community In order to evaluate whether there really is only one valid ideal Islamic masculinity The Crisis of Islamic Masculinities explores key figures of the Qur an and Indian Pakistani Islamic history and exposes the precariousness of tight constraints on Islamic manhood By examining Qur anic arguments and the strict social responsibilities advocated along with narrow Islamic masculinities Amanullah De Sondy shows that God and women to whom Muslim men relate but are different from often act as foils for the construction of masculinity He argues the constrainers of masculinity have used God and women to think with and to dominate through and that rigid gender roles are the product of a misquided enterprise the highly personal relationship between humans and God does not lend itself to the organization of society because that relationship cannot be typified and replicated Discussions and debates surrounding Islamic masculinities are quickly finding their place in the study of Islam and Muslims and The Crisis of Islamic Masculinities makes a vital contribution to this emerging field The Qur'an in Christian-Muslim Dialogue Corrie Block, 2013-10-08 Offering an analysis of Christian Muslim dialogue across four centuries this book highlights those voices of ecumenical tone which have more often used the Qur an for drawing the two faiths together rather than pushing them apart and amplifies the voice of the Our an itself Finding that there is tremendous ecumenical ground between Christianity and Islam in the voices of their own scholars this book ranges from a period of declining ecumenism during the first three centuries of Islam to a period of resurging ecumenism during the most recent century until now Among the ecumenical voices in the Christian Muslim dialogue this book points out that the Qur an itself is possibly the strongest of those voices These findings are cause for and evidence of hope for the Christian Muslim relationship that although agreement may never be reached dialogue has led at times to very real mutual understanding and appreciation of the religious other Providing a tool for those pursuing understanding and mutual appreciation between the Islamic and Christian faiths this book will be of interest to scholars and students of Islam the Qur an and the history of Christian Muslim relations The Cape Town Commitment: A Confession of Faith, A Call to Action Darrell L.
