Capitalizing Religion Craig Martin, 2014-09-25 Talk of spirituality and individual religion is proliferating both in popular discourse and scholarly works Increasingly people claim to be spiritual but not religious or to prefer individual religion to organized religion Scholars have for decades noted the phenomenon primarily within the middle class of individuals picking and choosing elements from among various religious traditions forming their own religion or spirituality for themselves While the topics of spirituality and individual religion are regularly treated as self evident by the media and even some scholars of religion Capitalizing Religion provides one of the first critical analyses of the phenomenon arguing that these recent forms of spirituality are in many cases linked to capitalist ideology and consumer practices Examining cases such as Eckhart Tolle's The Power of Now and Karen Berg's God Wears Lipstick Craig Martin ultimately argues that so called individual religion is a religion of the status quo or more critically an opiate of the bourgeoisie Capitalizing Religion Ideology and Opiate of the Bourgeoisie is a landmark publication in critical religious studies

The Promise Keepers John P. The Sociology of Religion Grace Davie, 2007-04-18 Grace Davie is one of the best analysts of religion in contemporary sociology This book caps a distinguished record of studies of religion first of Britain then of Europe then globally This is a magisterial work which should be read by anyone interested in the place of religion in the modern world Peter L Berger Boston University This book offers both an expert survey of contemporary sociology of religion and the personal reflections of one of the leading scholars in the field Grace Davie is a good model for students and their teachers she is clear engaging and fair minded but unafraid to express a point of view David Voas University of Manchester Grace Davie has written a book about what is currently happening in the sociology of religion which is clear accessible devoid of jargon and authoritative Though addressed to the educated reader it also provides an ideal text for students If you want expert guidance about what is going on in the sociology of religion and to have useful indications about what is going on in religion on the global scene this book does the job extremely well Theology Why is religion still important Can we be fully modern and fully religious The Sociology of Religion works at two levels First it sets out the agenda covering the key questions in the sociology of religion today At the same time it interrogates this agenda asking if the sociology of religion as we currently know it is fit for purpose If not what is to be done This book describes the origins of the sociology of religion demystifies secularization as a process and a theory relates religion to modern social theory unpacks the meaning of religion in relation to modernity and globalization grasps the Religion, Modernity, Globalisation François Gauthier, 2019-09-30 This book argues that the last four decades have seen profound and important changes in the nature and social location of religion and that those changes are best understood when cast against the associated rise of consumerism and neoliberalism These transformations are often misunderstood and underestimated namely because the study of religion remains dependent on the secularisation paradigm which can no longer provide a sufficiently fruitful framework for analysis The book challenges diagnoses of transience and fragmentation by proposing an alternative narrative and set of concepts for understanding the global religious landscape The present situation is framed as the result of a shift from a National Statist to a Global Market regime of religion Adopting a holistic perspective that breaks with the current specialisation tendencies it charts the emergence of the State and the Market as institutions and ideas related to social order as well as their changing rapports from classical modernity to today Breaking with a tradition of Western centeredness the book offers probing enquiries into Indonesia and a synthesis of global and Western trends This long awaited book offers a bold new vision for the social scientific study of religion and will be of great interest to all scholars of the Sociology and Anthropology of religion as well as Religious Studies in general The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

The Problem of Invented Religions Steven J. Sutcliffe, Carole M Cusack, 2017-08-15 Invented religions have been described as modern religions which advertise their invented status and reject traditional strategies of authorisation But what does it mean for a religious formation to be made up and how might this status affect perceptions of its legitimacy or authenticity in wider society Based in original fieldwork and archival sources and in the secondary literature on invented and constructed formations this volume explores the allure of as well as the limits of the invention of religion Through a series of case studies the contributors discuss strategies of mobilization and legitimation for new traditions at their point of emergence as well as taking issue with simplistic interpretations of the phenomenon which neglect wider cultural and political dimensions This book was originally published as a special issue of Culture and Religion Predicting Religion Grace Davie, Paul Heelas, Linda

Woodhead, 2017-07-05 Religion in the contemporary west is undergoing rapid change In Predicting Religion twenty experts in the study of religion present their predictions about the future of religion in the 21st century predictions based on careful analysis of the contemporary religious scene from traditional forms of Christianity to new spiritualities The range of predictions is broad A number predict further secularization with religion in the west seen as being in a state of terminal decline Others question this approach and suggest that we are witnessing not decline but transformation understood in different ways a shift from theism to pantheism from outer to inner authority from God to self as god and above all from religion to spirituality This accessible book on the contemporary religious scene offers students and scholars of the sociology of religion and theology as well as interested general readers fresh insights into the future of religion and spirituality in the west Published in association with the British Sociological Association Study of Religion group in the Ashgate Religion and Theology in Interdisciplinary Perspective series The Oxford Handbook of Religious Conversion Lewis Ray

Rambo, Charles E. Farhadian, 2014 The Oxford Handbook of Religious Conversion offers a comprehensive exploration of the dynamics of religious conversion which for centuries has profoundly shaped societies cultures and individuals throughout the world Scholars from a wide array of religions and disciplines interpret both the varieties of conversion experiences and the processes that inform this personal and communal phenomenon This volume examines the experiences of individuals and communities who change religions those who experience an intensification of their religion of origin and those who encounter new religions through colonial intrusion missionary work and charismatic and revitalization movements The thirty two innovative essays provide overviews of the history of particular religions including Hinduism Buddhism Confucianism Taoism Sikhism Islam Christianity Judaism indigenous religions and new religious movements The essays also offer a wide range of disciplinary perspectives psychological sociological anthropological legal political feminist and geographical on methods and theories deployed in understanding conversion and insight into various forms of deconversion Religions of Modernity Stef Aupers, Dick Houtman, 2010 Religions of Modernity challenges the social scientific orthodoxy that once unleashed the modern forces of individualism science and technology inevitably erode the sacred and evoke the profane The book's chapters some by established scholars others by junior researchers document instead in rich empirical detail how modernity relocates the sacred to the deeper layers of the self and the domain of digital technology Rather than destroying the sacred tout court then the cultural logic of modernization spawns its own religious meanings unacknowledged spiritualities and magical enchantments The editors argue in the introductory chapter that the classical theoretical accounts of modernity by Max Weber Emile Durkheim and others already hinted at the future emergence of these religions of modernity

Religion in the Context of Globalization Peter Beyer, 2013-07-24 Peter Beyer has been a central figure in the debate about religion and globalization for many years this volume is a collection of essays on the relation between religion and globalization with special emphasis on the concept of religion its modern forms and on the relation of religion to the state Featuring a newly written introduction and conclusion which frame the volume and offer the reader guidance on how the arguments fit together this book brings together ten previously published pieces which focus on the institutional forms and concept of religion in the context of globalizing and modern society The guiding theme that they all share is the idea that religion and globalization are historically conceptually and institutionally related What has come to constitute religion and what social roles religion plays are not manifestations of a timeless essence called religion or even a requirement of human societies In concept and institutional form religion is an expression of the historical process of globalization above all during modern centuries What religion has become is one of the outcomes of the successive transformations and developments that have brought about contemporary global society Including some of the most important theoretical work in the field of religion and globalization this collection provokes the reader to consider paths for future research in the area and will be of great interest to students and scholars of religion and politics globalization and religion and sociology

Invented Religions Carole M. Cusack, 2016-05-06 Utilizing contemporary scholarship on secularization individualism and consumer capitalism this book explores religious movements founded in the West which are intentionally fictional Discordianism the Church of All Worlds the Church of the SubGenius and Jediism Their continued appeal and success principally in America but gaining wider audience through the 1980s and 1990s is chiefly as a result of underground publishing and the internet This book deals with immensely popular subject matter Jediism developed from George Lucas Star Wars films the Church of the Flying Spaghetti Monster founded by 26 year old student Bobby Henderson in 2005 as a protest against the teaching of Intelligent Design in schools Discordianism and the Church of the SubGenius which retain strong followings and participation rates among college students The Church of All Worlds focus on Gaia theology and environmental issues makes it a popular focus of attention The continued success of these groups of Invented Religions provide a unique opportunity to explore the nature of late post modern religious forms including the use of fiction as part of a bricolage for spirituality identity formation and personal orientation

The Strategic Smorgasbord of Postmodernity Deborah Bowen, 2011-05-25 Contemporary Christian critique often talks about postmodernism apocalyptically in terms of cultural crisis and decline instead the contributors to this volume believe that there is a new place for Christian entries on the academic Smorgasbord of postmodernity and they see the postmodern turn as an opportunity for fresh perspectives on the spiritual dimensions of reading literature These twenty scholars are an eclectic group differing in theological and theoretical commitments but all identifying as Christian In this collection they enter into dialogue with a wide range of contemporary literary theorists and theoretical perspectives and offer new readings of primary texts informed by both these theoretical constructs and their Christian faith The manuscript strikes out in important new directions in its sympathetic reading of postmodern theory from a Christian perspective and even more significantly in its careful and measured dialogic approach to the relationship of Christian thought and contemporary literary theory Daniel Coleman Canada Research Chair in Critical Ethnicity and Race Studies Department of English and Cultural Studies McMaster University Too often Christian literary critics and theologians have preemptively dismissed postmodern theory even as secular critics have been equally dismissive about the contributions that the Christian faith tradition makes to the study of literature This volume successfully brings these two worlds together in innovative at times challenging and always rich ways I do not know of a similar volume in existence a work that gathers in one convenient publication a wide ranging set of discussions of contemporary literary theory by Christian scholars The editor has gathered an impressive and important set of papers here and I believe the volume will raise much interest and provoke a good deal of constructive debate Susan VanZanten Gallagher Professor of English Director Center for Scholarship and Faculty Development Seattle Pacific University

The Changing World Religion Map Stanley D. Brunn, 2015-02-03. This extensive work explores the changing world of religions, faiths and practices. It discusses a broad range of issues and phenomena that are related to religion including nature ethics, secularization, gender and identity. Broadening the context it studies the interrelation between religion and other fields including education, business, economics and law. The book presents a vast array of examples to illustrate the changes that have taken place and have led to a new world map of religions. Beginning with an introduction of the concept of the changing world religion map, the book first focuses on nature ethics and the environment. It examines humankind's eternal search for the sacred and discusses the emergence of green religion as a theme that cuts across many faiths. Next, the book turns to the theme of the pilgrimage illustrated by many examples from all parts of the world. In its discussion of the interrelation between religion and education it looks at the role of missionary movements. It explains the relationship between religion, business, economics and law by means of a discussion of legal and moral frameworks and the financial and business issues of religious organizations. The next part of the book explores the many new faces that are part of the religious landscape and culture of the Global North: Europe, Russia, Australia and New Zealand, the U.S. and Canada, and the Global South: Latin America, Africa and Asia. It does so by looking at specific population movements, diasporas and the impact of globalization. The volume next turns to secularization as both a phenomenon occurring in the Global religious North and as an emerging and distinguishing feature in the metropolitan, cosmopolitan and gateway cities and regions in the Global South. The final part of the book explores the changing world of religion in regards to gender and identity issues, the political religious nexus and the new worlds associated with the virtual technologies and visual media.
