Jesus In The Power Of Poetry A New Voice For Gospel Truth:

Jesus in the Power of Poetry Diarmuid Ó Murchú, 2009-04-01 Jesus in the Power of Poetry Diarmuid O'Murchu, 2009
Viewing prose as a limited way to convey the dream and spirit of the Gospels this text instead relies upon the power of poetry to provide immediate access to a fresh radical interpretation of the teachings of Jesus The original work here separates itself from similar anthologies by showing an ability to rethink everyday faith through empowerment and liberation O Murchu uses language in its most direct form to accept the challenge of these prophetic teachings in the modern world Through the unique freedom of poetry such as this the full depth and vitality of these beliefs can be grasped and held by a new generation

Strengthening Spirit-Releasing Potential Bernadette Miles, 2021-02-09 Have you ever wondered what releasing spiritual potential in the workplace might do for your organization In today s climate of colossal and incredibly fast global change the world needs new ways to develop discerning leaders to consciously lead our community of life into the future Though there are many books on leadership they rarely engage the importance and relevance of spiritual development and spiritual accompaniment in organizational discernment and leadership development Spiritual formation through spiritual direction has the potential to transform the way we lead organizations in secular and religious settings Drawing on the wisdom and experience of leaders and spiritual directors this book first broadens our understanding of how spiritual direction can be a resource for leadership and organizational development second supports spiritual directors in developing their corporate practice and their understanding of the relevance of spiritual direction for a wider community God is Green Bob Shore-Goss, 2016-10-28 At this time of climate crisis here is a practical Christian ecospirituality It emerges from the pastoral and theological experience of Reverend Robert Shore Goss who worked with his congregation by making the earth a member of the church by greening worship and by helping the church building and operations attain a carbon neutral footprint Shore Goss explores an ecospirituality grounded in incarnational compassion Practicing incarnational compassion means following the lived praxis of Jesus and the commission of the risen Christ as Gardener Jesus becomes the green face of God Restrictive Christian spiritualities that exclude the earth as an original blessing of God must expand This expansion leads to the realization that the incarnation of Christ has deep roots in the earth and the fleshly or biological tissue of life This book aims to foster ecological conversation in churches and outlines the following practices for congregations meditating on nature inviting sermons on green topics covenanting with the earth and retrieving the natural elements of the sacraments These practices help us recover ourselves as fleshly members of the earth and the network of life If we fall in love with God s creation says Shore Goss we will fight against climate change Adult Faith Diarmuid O'Murchu, 2010 This relatively new culture of the adult faith seeker originated in the closing decades of the twentieth century as developmental psychology highlighted the changing nature of growth and maturity at different life stages Accompanied by the information explosion adult people particularly began to ask questions for which they sought adult answers The co dependency of earlier times expecting adults to simply accept what religious authorities taught is alien to adult religious maturity Adult faith has arrived at a new threshold requiring novel approaches and strategies in the religious development of adult people Diarmuid O Murchu charts this evolutionary development highlighting dimensions of conventional religion which no longer inspire or offer hope along with those that nurture and mature and sheds new light on the spiritual horizons which contemporary adults seek to embrace The result is a path breaking book that empowers adult faith seekers to confidently grow in wisdom and in grace and that enables the church to use its resources to strengthen the faith of its people at a time of great change in how people think about religion

Convergent Knowing Simon Appolloni, 2018-11-16 Global environmental destruction growing inequality and the persistent poverty afflicting the majority of humans on the planet challenge Christian theorists theologians and ethicists in their pursuit of an ethical vision that is both environmentally sustainable and just for all of creation Too often their visions which start with traditional understandings of the Christian faith prevalent approaches to science or current ethical models are inadequate In Convergent Knowing Simon Appolloni proposes a new framework for ethical deliberation in which the epistemological lines between religion and science are somewhat blurred This framework opens up avenues to explore new paradigms for Christianity science and liberation while addressing interrelated questions not always manifest within the religion science and ethics debates what kind of ethics what kind of science and what kind of Christianity do we need today and tomorrow when the liberation of countless subjects of creation is at stake Exploring and analyzing the work of Rosemary Radford Ruether Leonardo Boff Diarmuid O Murchu and Thomas Berry four Christian ethical thinkers who have borrowed from the natural sciences to unite a liberationist agenda with an environmental ethic Convergent Knowing assists Christian thinkers struggling to integrate science environment liberation and their faith
