rejection of Christianity In so doing they have bought into Enlightenment understandings of human reality and the transcendent Rosario argues that in order to get beyond the impasse between theologies of the Word and culture we need a different starting point He discovers that starting point in two sources 1 through the work of liberation and contextual theologians on the role of the Holy Spirit and 2 through a comparative analysis of the teachings on the hiddenness of God from the three Abrahamic religions Judaism Christianity and Islam Rosario offers a strong argument for why this third theological starting point represents not just a marginal or niche position but a genuine alternative to the two traditional theological streams His work will shift readers understanding of the options in theological discourse beyond the false alternatives of theologies of the Word and culture
