Jesus Blood And Righteousness Pauls Theology Of Imputation:

Jesus' Blood and Righteousness Brian Vickers, 2006 New Testament professor Brian Vickers shows that the doctrine of imputation isn't just a subject for academic debate it strikes at the heart of what it means to be right with God A Theology of Paul and His Letters Douglas J. Moo, 2021-10-26 A landmark study of the apostle's writings by one of the world's leading Pauline scholars Winner of the 2022 ECPA Christian Book Award for Bible Reference Works This highly anticipated volume gives pastors scholars and all serious students of the New Testament exactly what they need for in depth study and engagement with one of Christian history's most formative thinkers and writers A Theology of Paul and His Letters is a landmark study of the apostle's writings by one of the world's leading Pauline scholars Douglas J. Moo Fifteen years in the making this groundbreaking work is organized into three major sections Part 1 provides an overview of the issues involved in doing biblical theology in general and a Pauline theology in particular Here Moo also sets out the methodological issues formative influences and conceptual categories of Paul's thought Part 2 moves on to Paul's New Testament writings where Moo describes each Pauline letter with particular relevance to its theology Part 3 offers a masterful synthesis of Paul's theology under the overarching theme of the gift of the new realm in Christ Engaging insightful and wise this substantive evangelical treatment of Paul's theology offers extensive engagement with the latest Pauline scholarship without sacrificing its readability This volume brings insights from over thirty years of experience studying teaching and writing about Paul into one comprehensive guide that will serve readers as a go to resource for decades to come ABOUT THE SERIES The Biblical Theology of the New Testament BTNT series provides upper college and seminary level textbooks for students of New Testament theology interpretation and exegesis Pastors and discerning theology readers alike will also benefit from this series Written at the highest level of academic excellence by recognized experts in the field the BTNT series not only offers a comprehensive exploration of the theology of every book of the New Testament including introductory issues and major themes but also shows how each book relates to the broad picture of New Testament Theology Paul's New Perspective Garwood P. Anderson, 2016-09-29 The debate between the Old and New perspectives on Paul has reached a stalemate But what if Paul's own theological perspective developed over time Starting with the teaser that both camps are right but not all the time Garwood Anderson unfolds a new proposal for overcoming the deadlock infusing new energy into the quest for understanding Paul's mind and letters Did the Reformers Misread Paul? Aaron T. O'Kelley, 2014-10-07 By placing the Reformation doctrine of justification in its historical theological context against the backdrop of late medieval Catholic theology O'Kelley demonstrates that the real nature of the debate between Rome and the Reformers was not grace vs works per se but rather the Reformation's clear law gospel distinction vs Rome's law gospel synthesis This extraordinary study seeks to allow the Reformers and their heirs a fair hearing in the current debate over Paul's doctrine of justification a courtesy that they have too often been denied Engaging Westminster Calvinism Mark W. Karlberg, 2013-04-26 This collection of writings contains articles and book reviews that are not readily accessible to most readers. Many of them are written for a wider audience of informed lay students of Scripture as well as seminarians. They have been brought together here in a fresh way with other new writings. As a result, this study is somewhat unique, drawing upon the author's career in theology and church music. Over the course of four decades of scholarly research and writing, Mark Karlberg has also been engaged in the music ministry of the church, serving as organist and choir director. Chief influences in his study and practice of music in the church have been Robert Elmore and Gerre Hancock, leading organists, choral masters, and composers of our generation. In the course of their stellar careers, Elmore and Hancock have served in different ecclesiastical settings: Moravian, Presbyterian, Southern Baptist, and Anglican. What they both share in common is their exceptional skill in the art of improvisation. Part of their accompaniment was off the written musical score, resulting in service playing that was creative and engaging. In the spirit of their artistic expression, we offer this collection of writings bearing as its theme the great Song of Redemption composed by the singing Christ, Heb 2:12.

Introducing Paul Michael F. Bird, 2014-06-18

Michael F. Bird suggests that if the Paul we claim to know looks and sounds a lot like us, it's probably a sign that we don't know him as well as we think. In this book, Bird offers an animated and penetrating survey of Paul's life and teaching, including the principal issues and themes in Paul's theology.

Paul's Spirituality in Galatians P. Adam McClendon, 2015-03-25

Spirituality is a hot topic in today's culture. Spirituality is essentially how one's beliefs and experiences influence the way one lives their life. Such influences for living are of critical importance to one's faith within the Christian community. What role does the Bible play in developing an expressed spirituality among the Christian community How do one's religious traditions cultural influences and personal preferences influence the way Christian spirituality is perceived and expressed All too often and at times unintentionally the foundational truths of the Bible are subordinated to tradition culture and personal preference This book provides a context for understanding Paul's foundational components for Christian spirituality within the book of Galatians while showing how an accurate understanding of these components can and should serve as a corrective lens to various aspects of Christian spirituality as expressed and experienced today

Christification Jordan Cooper, 2014-07-18 The doctrine of theosis has enjoyed a recent resurgence among varied theological traditions across the realms of historical dogmatic and exegetical theology In Christification A Lutheran Approach to Theosis Jordan Cooper evaluates this teaching from a Lutheran perspective He examines the teachings of the church fathers the New Testament and the Lutheran Confessional tradition in conversation with recent scholarship on theosis Cooper proposes that the participationist soteriology of the early fathers expressed in terms of theosis is compatible with Luther's doctrine of forensic justification The historic Lutheran tradition Scripture and the patristic sources do not limit soteriological discussions to legal terminology but instead offer a multifaceted doctrine of salvation that encapsulates both participatory and forensic motifs This is compared and contrasted with the development of the doctrine of deification in the Eastern tradition arising from the thought of Pseudo Dionysius Cooper argues that the doctrine of the earliest fathers such as Irenaeus Athanasius and Justin is primarily a Christological and economic reality defined as Christification This model of theosis is placed in contradistinction to later Neoplatonic forms of deification

seeks to answer the following question how did the doctrine of justification fare one hundred years after Paul's death c AD 165 This book argues that Paul's view of justification by faith is present in the second century a thesis that particularly challenges T F Torrance's long held notion that the Apostolic Fathers abandoned this doctrine The Doctrine of Grace in the Apostolic Fathers 1948 In the wake of Torrance's work there has been a general consensus that the early fathers advocated works righteousness in opposition to Paul's belief that an individual is justified before God by faith alone but second century writings do not support this claim Each author examined Clement of Rome Ignatius of Antioch Epistle to Diognetus Odes of Solomon and Justin Martyr contends that faith is the only necessary prerequisite for justification even if they do indicate the importance of virtuous living This is the first major study on the doctrine of justification in the second century thus filling a large lacuna in scholarship With the copious amounts of research being conducted on justification it is alarming that no work has been done on how the first interpreters of Paul received one of his trademark doctrines It is assumed wrongly that the fathers were either uninterested in the doctrine or that they misunderstood the Apostle Neither of these is the case This book is timely in that it enters the fray of the justification debate from a neglected vantage point One with Christ Marcus Peter Johnson, 2013-08-31 Regeneration justification sanctification These are the primary words that come to mind when talking about the theology of salvation However the Bible teaches that each of these concepts is firmly rooted in something more foundational our union with Christ In this accessible book Johnson introduces us to this neglected doctrine arguing that it is the dominant organizing concept for salvation in the New Testament In eight thought provoking chapters Johnson shows how a believer's position in Christ is the lens through which all other facets of salvation should be understood Interacting extensively with the biblical text and drawing on lessons from church history Johnson presents a compelling case for the unique importance of this beautiful biblical doctrine The Doctrine on Which the Church Stands or Falls (Foreword by D. A. Carson) Matthew Barrett, 2019-03-14 Many factors contributed to the Protestant Reformation but one of the most significant was the debate over the doctrine of justification by faith alone In fact Martin Luther argued that justification is the doctrine on which the church stands or falls This comprehensive volume of 26 essays from a host of scholars explores the doctrine of justification from the lenses of history the Bible theology and pastoral practice revealing the enduring significance of this pillar of Protestant theology Saving God's Face Jackson Wu, 2013-04 Years ago the author had a startling realization Theologians and pastors have long taught on the glory of God and its central importance in the Bible However because he was living in East Asia it also dawned on the author that this sort of talk about God's glory praising Him and magnifying His name was simply another way of talking about honor and shame When the author looked at most theology and ministry related books he found that honor and shame seemed to be treated differently Anthropologists talked about honor shame but theologians largely focused more on legal metaphors The author could see both themes in Scripture but couldn't find help as to how to bring them together This study was developed in order to address this gap and bring those themes together Sign up for the WCIU Press newsletter to be notified about new books from this author and more <http://eepurl.com/rB15L>

The Limit of Responsibility Esther D. Reed, 2018-08-23 This volume frames the question of responsibility as a problem of agency in relation to the systems and structures of globalization According to Ricoeur responsibility is a shattered concept when considered too narrowly as a problem of act agency and individual freedom To examine this Esther Reed develops a short genealogy of modern liberal and post liberal concepts of responsibility in order to understand better the relationship dominant modern framings of the meanings of responsibility Reed engages with writings by major modern Schleiermacher Hegel Marx Weber and post liberal Buber Levinas Derrida Badiou Butler Young Critchley theorists to illustrate the shift from an ethnic responsibility built on notions of accountability and attributions to an ethic responsibility that starts variously from the other Reed sees Dietrich Bonhoeffer as the most promising partner of this theological dialogue as his learning of responsibility from the risen Christ present now in the global church is a welcome provocation to new thinking about the meaning of responsibility learned from land distant neighbour global church and the bible Bonhoeffer's reflections on the centre boundaries and limits of responsibility remain helpful to Christian people struggling with an increasingly exhausted concept of accountability

Paul vs. James Chris Bruno, 2019-07-02 I welcome Chris Bruno's readable and thoroughly biblical exploration of faith and works He sets the matter in both its wider biblical context at the same time as he makes clear its relevance and importance to faithful Christian living today Douglas J Moo from the Foreword Everything you never knew about the men behind the controversy Put James and Paul next to each other and some tough to answer questions come up Paul says we're saved by faith alone not works and James seems to say the opposite If you've been around the church for a while you probably know enough to say the right thing if someone asked about these verses But would your answers hold up to scrutiny If pressed would you know what to say Dive into the life stories of both apostles learn more about the context of their letters and discover the truth about the shared message they both proclaimed No more canned answers or lingering questions gain confidence and go deeper in Paul vs James

Faith Alone---The Doctrine of Justification Thomas R. Schreiner, 2015-09-15 Renowned biblical scholar Thomas Schreiner looks at the historical and biblical roots of the doctrine of justification and offers an updated defense of this pillar of Reformed theology Reinvigorating one of the five great declarations of the Reformation sola fide Schreiner Summarizes the history of the doctrine looking at the early church and the writings of several of the Reformers Walks readers through an examination of the key biblical texts in the Old and New Testament that support the Reformed understanding of justification Discusses whether justification is transformative or forensic and introduces readers to some of the contemporary challenges to the Reformation teaching of sola fide with particular attention to the new perspective on Paul Five hundred years after the Reformation the doctrine of justification by faith alone still needs to be understood and proclaimed In Faith Alone you will learn how the rallying cry of sola fide is rooted in the Scriptures and how to understand this doctrine in a fresh way THE FIVE SOLAS Historians and theologians have long recognized that at the heart of the sixteenth century Protestant Reformation were five declarations often referred to as the solas These five statements summarize much of what the Reformation was about and they distinguish Protestantism from other expressions of the Christian faith that they place ultimate and final authority in the Scriptures acknowledge the work of Christ alone as sufficient for redemption recognize that salvation is by grace alone through faith alone and seek to do all things for God s glory The Five Solas Series is more than a simple rehashing of these statements but instead expounds upon the biblical reasoning behind them leading to a more profound theological vision of our lives and callings as Christians and churches
