First-Century Gospel Storytellers and Audiences Thomas E. Boomershine, 2022-07-29 These essays explore the reconception of the Gospels as first century compositions of sound performed for audiences by storytellers rather than the anachronistic picture of a series of texts read by individual readers The new paradigm implicit in these initial experiments is based on the recent realization that the majority of persons 85 to 95 percent were illiterate and experienced the Jesus stories as members of audiences Either from memory or from memorized manuscripts the evangelists performed the Gospels as an evening's entertainment of two to four hours The audiences were predominantly addressed as Hellenistic Judeans who lived in the aftermath of the Roman Jewish war When heard whole the Gospels were vivid experiences of the central character of Jesus These studies of audience address and the interactions between first century storytellers and audiences reveal a dynamic performance literature that functioned as scripts for an ever expanding network of storytelling proclamations whose envisioned horizon was the whole world When the Gospels were told at one time from beginning to end they invited the listeners to move from being peripherally interested or initially opposed to Jesus to identifying themselves as disciples of Jesus and believers in him as the Messiah The Reform Advocate, 1925 The Fourth Gospel in First-Century

Media Culture Anthony Le Donne, Tom Thatcher, 2013-05-03 Werner Kelber's The Oral and the Written Gospel substantially challenged predominant paradigms for understanding early Jesus traditions and the formation of written Gospels Since that publication a more precise and complex picture of first century media culture has emerged Yet while issues of orality aurality performance and mnemonics are now well voiced in Synoptic Studies Johannine scholars remain largely unaware of such issues and their implications The highly respected contributors to this book seek to fill this lacuna by exploring various applications of orality literacy memory and performance theories to the Johannine Literature in hopes of opening new avenues for future discussion Part 1 surveys the scope of the field by introducing the major themes of ancient media studies and noting their applicability to the Fourth Gospel and the Johannine Epistles Part 2 analyzes major themes in the Johannine Literature from a media perspective while Part 3 features case studies of specific texts Two responses by Gail O Day and Barry Schwartz complete the volume The Christian Century, 1925 The Secret Life of Jesus the Essene Raymond W. Bernard, 1997-09 A remarkable revelation concerning the true character life and crucifixion of Jesus by eye witnesses who knew him based on the Safed Alexandrian Essene Scrolls Jesus's Truth Yung Suk Kim, 2018-01-10 Parables of Jesus are stories about everyday life ranging from a person's worldview to economic justice in society This book examines most parables of Jesus from a critical literary perspective Twenty three narrative parables in the Synoptic Gospels are rearranged by their source Markan parables Q parables Matthean unique parables Lukan unique parables Each parable invites readers to reengage Jesus's stories in the contemporary world A Theology of Matthew's Gospel Michael J. Wilkins, 2025-10-07 A Theology of Matthew's Gospel develops the perspective that Matthew wrote his Gospel to identify defend and proclaim Jesus Immanuel God with us as the Davidic Messiah who fulfilled the OT expectations of humanity's redemption Matthew's Gospel establishes Jesus's identity as the heir to the promises of Israel's throne through King David and heir to the promises of blessing to all the nations through the patriarch Abraham 1 1 So this first Gospel offers evangelistic hope in Jesus's message of the gospel to Jews contending that they should turn to Jesus as their long awaited Messiah Matt 11 2 6 But strikingly Matthew's Gospel also offers evangelistic hope to Gentiles emphasizing that salvation through Jesus Messiah is available to all the nations 28 19 The book emphasizes the three horizons that comprise Matthew's gospel history theology and literature The first horizon focuses on Jesus's history ministry Here Matthew provides for us a record of God's activities in history in the arrival of Jesus Messiah and the kingdom of heaven The second horizon develops Matthew's theological perspective for his audience's Here we attempt to understand and isolate Matthew's unique theological perspective of God's activities in Jesus Messiah This is a central focus emphasizing Matthew's theological perspective of the Old Testament Christology the kingdom of heaven discipleship the Church church Israel past present and future the death and resurrection of Jesus mission commission and eschatology eternity The third horizon emphasizes today's reader's engaging with Matthew's Gospel as literature Here we attempt to capture the significance of the perspective of today's reader's understanding of Jesus Messiah's activities in history and Matthew's theological perspective for the contemporary church In this book we view Matthew's perspective of God's activities in Jesus's unfolding earthly ministry The alternating sections of narrative and discourse provide for his readers Jesus's example to follow and Jesus's words to obey Therefore Matthew's Gospel is at least in a part a manual on discipleship to Jesus Messiah in the kingdom of heaven In the six Narratives Matthew reveals Jesus's true identity in his deeds and introduces themes that will lead to instructions to Jesus's disciples in the Discourses The six Narratives provide the example that Jesus's disciples are commanded to obey In the five Discourses Matthew records Jesus's instructions commands parables directives and prophecies that will guide his followers in their discipleship to Jesus until the end of the age Combined the narratives of Jesus s life provide Jesus s example to follow and the discourses give Jesus s instructions to obey and are the basis of our ongoing transformation to become like Jesus

THE GOSPEL OF JOHN

Original Version - Volume II translated by James David Audlin,2014-02 The only narrative about Jesus by eyewitnesses this is also one of the world s greatest literary works The unfinished text was spirited off to Sinope when the author was sent into exile Even there the hand of Rome nearly destroyed it Rescued 35 years later the author s spiritual heirs published it While in Sinope some pages got lost or disordered After publication various editors changed the manuscript repeatedly to suit the changing doctrines of early Christianity even adding spurious new material Thus the standard text is an inspiring mess but still a mess This translation restores not the unfinished original text but the masterpiece the author sought to compose a first hand account of a real man sent to urge humanity to accept God s will set down before doctrine repackaged him as an incarnate deity Volume One contains the carefully restored text and a history of the gospel Volume Two includes commentaries that burnish this masterpiece for the modern reader
