Clementi, 2013-12-03 In this brave and original work Federica Clementi focuses on the mother daughter bond as depicted in six works by women who experienced the Holocaust sometimes with their mothers sometimes not The daughters memoirs which record the all too human qualities of those who were persecuted and murdered by the Nazis show that the Holocaust cannot be used to neatly segregate lives into the categories of before and after Clementi's discussions of differences in social status along with the persistence of antisemitism and patriarchal structures support this point strongly demonstrating the tenacity of trauma individual familial and collective among Jews in twentieth century Europe German City, Jewish Memory Nils Roemer, 2010-12-14 A remarkable in depth study of Jewish history culture and memory in a historic and contemporary German city Jewish Dealers and the European Art Market, c. 1860-1940 Silvia Davoli, Tom Stammers, 2025-01-23 Before the tragedy of the Holocaust many of the leading art and antiques dealers across Europe were Jewish establishing dynamic cross Channel international and transatlantic networks Aside from a few famous examples however we are only at the beginning of exploring the diversity of Jewish dealers commercial and cultural worlds and reflecting on the particular conditions that made possible their dramatic expansion within the profession Adopting a wider geography than any previous study this book brings together a team of distinguished international contributors to consider Jewish art dealers as an interconnected cohort tied together by common strategies and a shared vulnerability After an extended historiographical introduction the volume presents case studies and trends from 1860 1940 including Jewish family businesses in Western Europe the role of Jews as mediators of art from East Asia the antisemitism and suspicion faced by Jewish dealers Jews as theorists exhibition makers and promoters of modern art and the geographical mobility and professional reinvention of Jewish dealers in times of economic and political crisis With a wide variety of illustrations including paintings decorative arts historic photographs and archival material the volume adopts a mix of methodological approaches to analyse a key chapter in Jewish cultural history and in the history of the international art market Includes Afterword by Charles Dellheim author of Belonging and Betrayal How Jews Made the Art World Modern 2021 Gawkers Bridget Alsdorf, 2022-03-22 How the urban spectator became the archetypal modern viewer and a central subject in late nineteenth century French art Gawkers explores how artists and writers in late nineteenth century Paris represented the seductions horrors and banalities of street life through the eyes of curious viewers known as badauds In contrast to the singular and aloof bourgeois fl neur badauds were passive collective instinctive and highly impressionable Above all they were visual captivated by the sights of everyday life Beautifully illustrated and drawing on a wealth of new research Gawkers excavates badauds as a subject of deep significance in late nineteenth century French culture as a motif in works of art and

Turks, Jews, and Other Germans in Contemporary Art Peter Chametzky, 2021-09-14 The first book to examine multicultural visual art in Germany discussing more than thirty contemporary artists and arguing for a cosmopolitan Germanness With Turks Jews and Other Germans in Contemporary Art Peter Chametzky presents a view of visual culture in Germany that leaves behind the usual suspects those artists who dominate discussions of contemporary German art including Gerhard Richter Anselm Kiefer and Rosemarie Trockel and instead turns to those artists not as well known outside Germany including Maziar Moradi Hito Steyerl and Tanya Ury In this first book length examination of Germany's multicultural art scene Chametzky explores the work of more than thirty German artists who are among other ethnicities Turkish Jewish Arab Asian Iranian Sinti and Roma Balkan and Afro German With a title that echoes Peter Gay's 1978 collection of essays Freud Jews and Other Germans this book like Gay's rejects the idea of us and them in German culture Discussing artworks in a variety of media that both critique and expand notions of identity and community Chametzky offers a counternarrative to the fiction of an exclusively white Christian German culture arguing for a cosmopolitan Germanness He considers works that deploy critical confrontational and playful uses of language especially German and Turkish that assert the presence of foreign bodies among the German body politic that grapple with food as a cultural marker that engage with mass media and that depict and inhabit spaces imbued with the element of time American discussions of German contemporary art have largely ignored the emergence of non ethnic Germans as some of Germany's most important visual artists Turks, Jews and Other Germans in Contemporary Art fills this gap Irma Stern and the Racial Paradox of South African Modern Art LaNitra M. Berger, 2020-11-12 South African artist Irma Stern 1894-1966 is one of the nation's most enigmatic modern figures. Stern held conservative political positions on race even as her subjects openly challenged racism and later the apartheid regime. Using paintings, archival research and new interviews, this book explores how Stern became South Africa's most prolific painter of Black, Jewish and Coloured mixed race life while maintaining controversial positions on race. Through her art, Stern played a crucial role in both the development of modernism in South Africa and in defining modernism as a global movement. Spanning the Boer War to Nazi Germany to apartheid South Africa and into the contemporary Rhodes Must Fall movement, Irma Stern's work documents important twentieth century cultural and political moments. More than fifty years after her death, Stern's legacy challenges assumptions about race, gender roles and religious identity and how they are represented in art history Forsaken Sharon Faye Koren, 2011-10-11 This book addresses a central question in the study of Jewish mysticism in the medieval and early modern periods: why are there no known female mystics in medieval Judaism unlike contemporaneous movements in Christianity and Islam? Sharon Faye Koren demonstrates that the male rejection of female mystical aspirations is based in deeply rooted attitudes toward corporeality and ritual purity. In particular, medieval Jewish male mystics increasingly emphasized that the changing states of the female body between ritual purity and impurity disqualified women from the quest for mystical connection with God. Offering a provocative look at premodern rabbinical views of the female body and their ramifications for women's spiritual development, Koren compares Jewish views with medieval Christian and Muslim views of both female menstruation and the possibility of female mystical experience Glorious, Accursed Europe Jehuda Reinharz & Yaacov Shavit, 2010-07-31 This volume offers a fascinating look at the complex relationship between Jews and Europe during the past two hundred years and how the European Jewish and non-Jewish intelligentsia interpreted the modern Jewish experience primarily in Germany, Russia and Central and Eastern Europe. Beginning with premodern European attitudes toward Jews, Reinharz and Shavit move quickly to the glorious nineteenth century, a period in which Jewish dreams of true assimilation came up against modern antisemitism. Later chapters explore the fin de siècle crisis of modernity, the myth of the modern European Jew, expectations and fears in the interwar period, differences between European nations in their attitude toward Jews, the views of Zionists and early settlers of Palestine and Israel toward the Europe left behind and views of contemporary Israeli intellectuals toward Europe including its new Muslim population, the latest incarnation of the Jewish Question in Europe Space and Place in Jewish Studies Barbara E. Mann, 2012-02-10 Scholars in the humanities have become increasingly interested in questions of how space is produced and perceived and they have found that this consideration of human geography greatly enriches our understanding of cultural history. This spatial turn equally has the potential to revolutionize Jewish Studies, complicating familiar notions of Jews as people of the Book displaced persons with only a common religious tradition and history to unite them Space and Place in Jewish Studies embraces these exciting critical developments by investigating what space has meant within Jewish culture and tradition and how notions of Jewish space diaspora and home continue to resonate within contemporary discourse bringing space to the foreground as a practical and analytical category Barbara Mann takes us on a journey from medieval Levantine trade routes to the Eastern European shtetl to the streets of contemporary New York introducing readers to the variety of ways in which Jews have historically formed communities and created a sense of place for themselves Combining cutting edge theory with rabbinics anthropology and literary analysis Mann offers a fresh take on the Jewish experience Modernist Aesthetics in Transition Deborah Ascher Barnstone, Donna West Brett, 2025-01-23 How did German aesthetic values change during the Weimar Republic and after its immediate collapse at the beginning of the National Socialist period Contrary to conventional narratives that depict modernist aesthetics as static shaping principles of modern art and design this volume argues for their complexity and ever shifting nature Illuminating the vital exchanges that occurred across multiple art forms during a period of unmatched cultural activity this multi disciplinary volume explores the cultural transition between Weimar and National Socialist era Germany and offers a fresh perspective on the fate of modernism during a time of censorship and social stigma Featuring essays on architecture painting photography film sculpture cabaret typography and commercial design the volume explores competing and comparable themes across German art from 1919 1945 and addresses how modern approaches like New Vision coexisted with more traditional and established artistic modes Such visual complexity is evident from the volume s eclectic coverage these include sexology and eroticism visual grammar in typography and architecture the reception of Weimar art in the National Socialist period and the formation and transformation of queer and Jewish identities The volume encompasses subjects as different as shadow in the animated films of Lotte Reininger filmic adaptations of Heinrich Zille s social commentary in the 1920s the photography of L szl Moholy Nagy and depictions of female sexuality in Magnus Hirschfeld s oeuvre By bridging multiple artistic fields this highly interdisciplinary work provides a fresh perspective on the ever changing art and aesthetic principles of early 20th century Germany Performing Modernism Alexandra Chiriac, 2022-07-18 Der Band befasst sich mit der Moderne in Design und darstellender Kunst im Rum nien der Zwischenkriegszeit Er folgt den transnationalen Wegen bemerkenswerter j discher K nstler innen Schauspieler innen und Regisseur innen der Avantgarde die in den 1920er und 30er Jahren in Bukarest t tig waren Das Buch deckt einerseits die Geschichte von Bukarests erster moderner Designinstitution auf und untersucht die Verbindungen zu deutschem Design und Bauhaus Der Fokus liegt andererseits auf innovativen Kollaborationen im Bereich des jiddischen Theaters darunter der Aufenthalt der weltbekannten Wilnaer Truppe in Rum nien Die Autorin zeigt auf wie Bukarest mit Berlin Riga und Chicago in Verbindung stand und beleuchtet den Beitrag j dischen Kulturschaffens zur Avantgardebewegung in Europa und dar ber hinaus
