Jewish Life In Muslim Libya Rivals And Relatives:

Jewish Life in Muslim Libya Harvey E. Goldberg, 1990-06-15 In 1949 more than 35 000 Jews lived in Libya but close to ninety percent had left before Libya attained its independence in 1952 Jewish Life in Muslim Libya combines historical and anthropological perspectives in depicting the changing relations between Muslims and Jews in Libya from the early nineteenth century up to the middle of the twentieth century Harvey E Goldberg shows that the cultural and religious worlds of the Jewish and Muslim communities in Libya were deeply intertwined in daily life and largely remained so despite political and social changes under successive Ottoman and Italian rule He documents the intricate symbolic linkages of Jews and Muslims in different periods and in a variety of settings His accounts of traditional Jewish weddings of mock fights between Jewish teams that took place in early nineteenth century Tripoli and of the profession of street peddling demonstrate that despite age old images of Jews as outsiders or infidels Jews were also an essential and familiar part of the local Islamic society Goldberg's narrative continues through the British Military Administration in Libya a period which saw growing Libyan nationalism and in 1945 three days of riots in which more than 130 Jews were killed Goldberg reflects on how these events both expressed and exacerbated a rupture in the social fabric linking Muslims and Jews setting the scene for the mass emigration of Libyan Jews from their homeland Iewish Life in Muslim Libya Harvey E. Goldberg,1990-05-18 Surveying the history of the Jewish Libyan community contends that the ambiguous relationship of Jews and Muslims in Libya from 1711 to the 1940s is rooted in Islam which sees the Jew either as a creature of the handiwork of the blessed or as a non believer to be humbled This ambivalence was maintained by the Ottoman rule 1835 1911 which regarded the Jews and Muslims as separate and unequal communities In contrast during the Italian occupation 1911 43 Libyan nationalism grew and the Jews were associated with Italy Ch 7 pp 97 122 The Anti Jewish Riots of 1945 contends that the 1945 riot against Tripoli s Jews during the British occupation 1943 45 may be viewed as an expression of the will to restore Muslim sovereignty using the Jew as a representative of the hostile European rule Jewish-Muslim Relations and Migration from Yemen to Palestine in the Late Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries Ari Ariel, 2013-12-05 In Jewish Muslim Relations and Migration from Yemen to Palestine in the Late Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries Ari Ariel analyzes the impact of local regional and international events on ethnic and religious relations in Yemen and Yemeni Jewish migration patterns Previous research has dealt with single episodes of Yemenite migration during limited spans of time Ariel instead provides a broad sweep of the migratory flows over the 70 year time span during which most of Yemen s Jews moved to Palestine and then Israel He successfully avoids the polemic nature of much of the literature on Middle Eastern Jewry by focusing on the social economic and political transformations that provoked and then sustained this migration The Iews of the Middle East and North Africa Reeva Spector Simon, 2019-09-20 Incorporating published and archival material this volume fills an important gap in the history of the Jewish experience during World War II describing how the war affected Jews living along the southern rim of the Mediterranean and the Levant from Morocco to Iran Surviving the Nazi slaughter did not mean that Jews living in the Middle East and North Africa were unaffected by the war there was constant anti Semitic propaganda and general economic deprivation communities were bombed and Jews suffered because of the anti Semitic Vichy regulations that left them unemployed homeless and subject to forced labor and deportation to labor camps Nevertheless they fought for the Allies and assisted the Americans and the British in the invasion of North Africa These men and women were community leaders and average people who despite their dire economic circumstances worked with the refugees attempting to escape the Nazis via North Africa Turkey or Iran and connected with international aid agencies during and after the war By 1945 no Jewish community had been left untouched and many were financially decimated a situation that would have serious repercussions on the future of Jews in the region Covering the entire Middle East and North Africa region this book on World War II is a key resource for students scholars and general readers interested in Jewish history World War II and Middle East A History of Muslims, Christians, and Jews in the Middle East Heather J. Sharkey, 2017-04-03 This book traces the history of conflict and contact between Muslims Christians and Jews in the Ottoman Middle East prior to 1914 Jewish Cultural Tapestry: International Jewish Folk Traditions Steven M. It follows this community s transition from a traditional patriarchal society to a group adjusting to the challenges of a modern society Unlike the perception of the Yemeni Jews as receptive to modernity only following immigration to Palestine and Israel Eragi Klorman convincingly shows that some modern ideas played a role in their lives while in Yemen Once in Palestine they appear here as adjusting to the new conditions by striving to participate in the Zionist enterprise consenting to secular education transforming family practices and the status of women The book is an important contribution to the study of Yemeni Jews in Yemen and abroad as well as for Jewish Muslim relations relations between Yemeni Jews and other Jews and gender studies Many of these issues have not been previously studied and the use of private archives and interviews greatly increases the value of this study Rachel Simon Princeton University Princeton NJ Association Wartime North Africa Aomar Boum, Sarah Abrevaya of Jewish Libraries Reviews November December 2014 Stein, 2022-07-05 This book the first ever collection of primary documents on North African history and the Holocaust gives voice to the diversity of those involved Muslims Christians and Jews women men and children black brown and white the unknown and the notable locals refugees the displaced and the interned soldiers officers bureaucrats volunteer fighters and the forcibly recruited At times their calls are lofty full of spiritual lamentation and political outrage At others they are humble yearning for medicine a cigarette or a pair of shoes Translated from French Arabic North African Judeo Arabic Spanish Hebrew Moroccan Darija Tamazight Berber Italian and Yiddish or transcribed from their original English these writings shed light on how war occupation race laws internment and Vichy French Italian fascist and German Nazi rule were experienced day by day across North Africa Though some selections are drawn from published books including memoirs diaries and collections of poetry most have never been published before nor previously translated into English These human experiences combined make up the history of wartime North Africa Jewish Communities in Exotic Places Ken Blady, 2000 Jewish Communities in Exotic Places examines seventeen Jewish groups that are referred to in Hebrew as edot ha mizrach Eastern or Oriental Jewish communities These groups situated in remote places on the Asian and African Jewish geographical periphery became isolated from the major centers of Jewish civilization over the centuries and embraced some interesting practices and aspects of the dominant cultures in which they were situated Iewish-Muslim Relations in Past and Present Josef Meri, 2017-06-01 This volume assembles multidisciplinary research on the Judaeo Islamic tradition in medieval and
