Johannesburg Transition Architecture Society 1950 2000:

Publishing from the South Sarah Nuttall, Isabel Hofmeyr, 2024-11 In 2022 Wits University Press marked its centenary making it the oldest most established university press in sub Saharan Africa While in part modelled on scholarly publishers from the global North it has had to contend with the constraints of working under global South conditions marginalisation within the university budgetary limitations small local markets unequal access to international sales channels and the privileging of English language publishing over indigenous languages This volume explores what the Press has achieved and what its modes of reinvention might look like In widening and deepening our understanding of the Press as an example of a global South scholarly publisher this volume asks how publishing can contribute to a broader understanding of Southern knowledge production Featuring contributions from scholars publishers and authors this multi voiced volume showcases the history of the Press s publishing activities over 100 years from documenting its evolution through book covers and giving credence to some of the leading black intellectuals and writers of the early 20th century and the success of those works in spite of their authors racial marginalisation to the role of women both in publishing and in the spaces afforded to women s writing on the Press s list The collection concludes with essays by contemporary authors who detail not only their experiences of working with Southern publishers but also the politics and influences governing their decisions to choose the Press over a Northern publisher Publishing from the South shows the strategies deployed by the Press to professionalise Southern knowledge making and in the process demonstrating how university presses in the global South support the scholarly missions of their universities for both local and global audiences

The Roads to Hillbrow Ron Nerio, Jean Halley, 2022-06-07 This highly accessible portrayal of a post apartheid neighborhood in transition analyzes the relationship between identity migration and place Since it was founded in 1894 amidst Johannesburg s transformation from a mining town into the largest city in southern Africa Hillbrow has been a community of migrants As the city of gold accumulated wealth on the backs of migrant laborers from southern Africa Jewish Eastern Europeans who had fled pogroms joined other Europeans and white South Africans in this emerging suburb After World War II Hillbrow became a landscape of high rises that lured western and southern Europeans seeking prosperity in South Africa s booming economy By the 1980s Hillbrow housed some of the most vibrant and visible queer spaces on the continent while also attracting thousands of Indian and Black South Africans who defied apartheid laws to live near the city center Filling the void for a book about migration within the Global South The Roads to Hillbrow explores how one South African neighborhood transformed from a white suburb under apartheid into a grey zone during the 1970s and 1980s to become a port of entry for people from at least twenty five African countries The Roads to Hillbrow explores the diverse experiences of domestic and transnational migrants who have made their way to this South African community following war economic dislocation and the social trauma of apartheid Authors Ron Nerio and Jean Halley weave sociology history memoir and queer studies with stories drawn from more than 100

interviews Topics cover the search for employment options for housing support for unaccompanied minors possibilities for queer expression the creation of safe parks for children and the challenges of living without documents Current residents of Hillbrow also discuss how they cope with inequality xenophobia high levels of crime and the harsh economic impacts of COVID 19 Many of the book s interviewees arrived in Hillbrow seeking not only to gain better futures for themselves but also to support family members in rural parts of South Africa or in their countries of origin Some immerse themselves in justice work while others develop LGBTQ support networks join religious and community groups or engage in artistic expression By emphasizing the disparate voices of migrants and people who work with migrants this book shows how the people of Hillbrow form connections and adapt to adversity The Art of Life in South Africa Daniel Magaziner,2016-11-09 From 1952 to 1981 South Africa s apartheid government ran an art school for the training of African art teachers at Indaleni in what is today KwaZulu Natal The Art of Life in South Africa is the story of the students teachers art and politics that circulated through a small school housed in a remote former mission station It is the story of a community that made its way through the travails of white supremacist South Africa and demonstrates how the art students and teachers made together became the art of their lives Daniel Magaziner radically reframes apartheid era South African history Against the dominant narrative of apartheid oppression and black resistance as well as recent scholarship that explores violence criminality and the hopeless entanglements of the apartheid state this book focuses instead on a small group s efforts to fashion more fulfilling lives for its members and their community through the ironic medium of the apartheid era school There is no book like this in South African historiography Lushly illustrated and poetically written it gives us fully formed lives that offer remarkable insights into the now clichéd experience of black life under segregation and apartheid Johannesburg Transition Clive M. Like Family Ena Jansen,2019-04-01 An analytic and historical perspective of literary texts to understand the position of domestic workers in South Africa More than a million black South African women are domestic workers Precariously situated between urban and rural areas rich and poor white and black these women are at once intimately connected and at a distant remove from the families they serve Ena Jansen shows that domestic worker relations in South Africa were shaped by the institution of slavery establishing social hierarchies and patterns of behavior that persist today To support her argument Jansen examines the representation of domestic workers in a diverse range of texts in English and Afrikaans Authors include Andr Brink JM Coetzee Imraan Coovadia Nadine Gordimer Elsa Joubert Antjie Krog Sindiwe Magona Kopano Matlwa Es kia Mphahlele Sisonke Msimang Zukiswa Wanner and Zo Wicomb Like Family is an updated version of the award winning Soos familie 2015 and the highly acclaimed 2016 Dutch translation Bijna familie Infinite Suburbia MIT Norman B. L'Afrique du Sud et les États voisins Philippe Gervais-Lambony, 2013-11-06 L'Afrique australe suscite aujourd'hui un regain d'intérêt notamment de la part des investisseurs et des grandes puissances qui cherchent à développer de nouvelles formes de partenariat Au sein de cet espace l'Afrique du Sud occupe une place majeure Depuis la fin de l'apartheid le pays qui a rejoint le cercle des BRICS a connu des transformations considérables nouveau système politique réorganisation des découpages territoriaux réformes des systèmes de santé et d'éducation etc Dans le même temps quelque 8 millions de personnes ont gagné un accès à l'eau courante et près de 3 millions de logements sociaux ont été construits L'Afrique du Sud est elle pour autant tout fait postapartheid et peut-elle être le moteur d'une Afrique australe qui en reste largement dépendante Plus de 40 % des Sud-Africains vivent en dessous du seuil de pauvreté et les clivages sociaux semblent s'accroître Bien des promesses n'ont pas été tenues notamment celle d'une réforme foncière essentielle si l'on observe l'évolution du Zimbabwe voisin Dans les quartiers pauvres des villes les révoltes populaires contre les autorités locales et les violences régulières contre les migrants étrangers révèlent les insatisfactions profondes des plus démunis Enfin en août 2012 le massacre de la mine de platine de Marikana a choqué les opinions publiques mondiales Les transformations en cours peuvent donc sembler contradictoires certaines découlent du passage de l'apartheid au postapartheid et d'autres de la réintégration dans le système économique mondial Quelles qu'elles soient elles ont affecté tous les faits frontaliers de l'Afrique du Sud Botswana Lesotho Mozambique Namibie Swaziland Zimbabwe Cette édition augmentée vise à interroger les réorganisations territoriales de la région après les changements politiques de ces vingt dernières années

Globalization - The Juggernaut of the 21st Century Jan-Erik Lane, 2016-04-22 While some people debate whether globalization really exists it proceeds apace affecting all societies It presents us with unknown challenges and as governments start to discuss what to do about these challenges it is becoming obvious that globalization is not manageable With globalization the juggernaut of the 21st century all countries of the world become interdependent in relation to the coming energy crisis climate change the sharper cleavages between rich and poor countries and people and the emergence of a multicultural social structure This interesting and erudite book adopts a distinctive approach to the multiple dimensions of the globalization debate The impressive coverage of philosophical thought including Popper Weber Habermas Lipset and Hobbes makes a valuable contribution to the debates on globalization
