Take the Journey James Percoco,2023-10-10 In Take the Journey Teaching American History Through Place Based Learning author historian and educator James Percoco invites you and your students to the places where many events in American history happened The Journey Through Hallowed Ground is a 180 mile National Heritage area encompassing such historic sites as the Gettysburg battlefield and Thomas Jefferson s home Monticello Though it might prove difficult to visit these particular sites with your students Percoco argues that every community has a story that can be connected to larger themes in American history and that placed based history education can be made a part of every classroom from Nevada to Washington to Pennsylvania Filled with students voices and an enthusiasm for American history Take the Journey offers the following Practical and easy to implement lessons Classroom tested materials Specific directions for employing place based best practices in the classroom Ways to meet state standards without sacrificing teacher creativity or hands on learning Lists of resources and primary source materials So bring your students along and let them discover the twists and turns offered by history and the Journey Through Hallowed Ground A Tale Unasked Lady Nijo,2025-10-02 A new translation of one of classical Japan s greatest literary works It is from a desire not to let this impulse count for nothing that I have written this foolish tale of mine I have no hope that it will remain for future generations to remember me by Japanese noblewoman Lady Nijo was made the Emperor s concubine aged fourteen and then after several illicit affairs was expelled from the palace becoming a nun and travelling the country in pilgrimage A Tale

Unasked is her extraordinary memoir of her eventful life lost for centuries and discovered in the Imperial Library Filled with startling revelations of the secret intrigues splendour and sexual politics of courtly life it is also a moving portrait of a woman of rich intelligence and sensitivity trying to survive in a difficult world This new translation beautifully renders the sinuous elegance of a remarkable work of classical Japanese literature Translated by Meredith McKinney      Touring Performance and Global Exchange 1850-1960 Gilli Bush-Bailey, Kate Flaherty, 2021-12-30 This collection uncovers connections and coincidences that challenge the old stories of pioneering performers who crossed the Atlantic and Pacific oceans from the mid nineteenth to the mid twentieth century It investigates songlines drama opera music theatre dance and circus removing traditional boundaries that separate studies of performance and celebrating difference and transformation in style intention and delivery Well known or obscure travelling performers faced dangers at sea and hazardous journeys across land Their tracks made in pursuit of fortune and fame intersected with those made by earlier storytellers in search for food Touring Performance and Global Exchange takes a fresh look at such tracks the material remains demonstrating that moving performance does far more than transfer repertoires and people it transforms them Touring performance has too often been conceived in diasporic terms as a fixed product radiating out from a cultural centre This collection maps different patterns ones that comprise reversed flows cross currents and continually proliferating centres of meaning in complex networks of global exchange This collection will be of great interest to scholars and students in theatre music drama studies and cultural history      Canadian Annual Review of Politics and Public Affairs 1992 David Leyton-Brown, 1998-08-01 Featuring essays on parliament and politics Ottawa and the provinces and external affairs the Canadian Annual Review of Politics and Public Affairs provides a comprehensive account of the year's events      Death, Dismemberment, and Memory Lyman L. Johnson, 2004 The long history of the politically symbolic use of the bodies or body parts of martyred heroes in Latin America      The 2012 Presidential Campaign Robert E. Denton Jr., 2013-07-29 Presidential campaigns are our national conversations the widespread and complex communication of issues images social reality and personas Political communication specialists break down the 2012 presidential campaign and go beyond the quantitative facts electoral counts and poll results of the election to make sense of the political bits of communication that comprise our voting choices The contributors look at the early campaign period the nomination process and conventions the social and political contexts the debates the role of candidate spouses candidate strategies political strategies and the use of the Internet and other technologies      John Thomas Scopes Randy Moore, 2023-07-27 This is the first comprehensive annotated biography of John Scopes the famed defendant in the Scopes Monkey Trial This biography uses new never before published sources photographs and stories from untapped sources John Scopes's family and friends In 1967 John Scopes published his memoirs which focused overwhelmingly on his eight day trial and not on the rest of his life ignoring several important events such as his divorce and remarriage his run for the U S Congress and his challenges with his family This volume is the first complete annotated biography of John Scopes It details his entire life and where appropriate those of his parents siblings wife and children all supported by hundreds of cited sources quotations and family stories Ideal for readers with an interest in academic freedom free speech or the evolution creationism controversy this book uncovers the facts of Scopes s post trial life including the challenges that Scopes faced in his personal life his conversion from a socialist to a political conservative and his final years and death Readers will be surprised to learn that John Scopes s life differed significantly from what has often been presented in the media
