In Making Love Sentiment and Sexuality in Eighteenth Century British Literature Paul Kelleher revises the history of sexuality from the vantage point of the literary history of sentimentalism Kelleher demonstrates how eighteenth century British philosophers essayists and novelists fundamentally reconceived the relations among sentiment sexuality and moral virtue It is his contention that sentimental discourse both philosophical and literary posited heterosexual desire as the precondition of moral feeling and conduct The author further suggests that sentimental writers fashioned the ideal of conjugal love as an ideological antidote to the theories of self love and self interest found in the works of Thomas Hobbes and Bernard Mandeville Heterosexual desire and its culmination in conjugal love in other words were represented as the privileged means for an individual to transcend self love and to develop a moral sensibility attuned to the thoughts and feelings of others At the same time Kelleher suggests other pleasures and desires particularly those rooted in same sex eroticism were increasingly depicted as antithetical to conjugal love and thus were morally devalued and socially disenfranchised Kelleher's argument unfolds through close readings of a variety of texts including Shaftesbury's Characteristics of Men Manners Opinions Times Joseph Addison and Richard Steele's the Tatler and the Spectator Eliza Haywood's Love in Excess Samuel Richardson's Pamela and Henry Fielding's Tom Jones Although these texts embody diverse rhetorical strategies and thematic concerns he shows how they collectively reinforce an overarching sentimental ideology on the one hand heterosexual desire and conjugal love become synonymous with sympathy benevolence and moral goodness while on the other hand same sex desire is pathologized as a selfish withdrawal from procreation domesticity sociability and ultimately humanity itself Select Scenes from the British Drama ... B.S. Naylor,1848 Happiness is a choice. Life is a Story - story.one Karina Saakyan,2023-07-18 This book is compilation of real life stories anecdotes and struggles in hope to inspire young adults to power through and discover the beauty of the unknown Hopefully some of the stories would uplift and inspire you or be relatable to you and you would see you are not alone Select Scenes from the British Drama; Adapted to Public and Private Readings for Ladies and Gentlemen: to which is Prefixed an Essay, on Pronunciation and Delivery B. S. Naylor,1848 She Rides Alenka Vrecek,2025-07-30 At fifty four Alenka was running out of time to follow through on a dream she'd written down in her pocket size Rumi book just after her first marriage crumbled Years later as she slowly rebuilt her life with her second husband things started spiraling out of control The only way she knew how to heal and connect all painful parts of her life was by riding her bike and she didn't want to have regrets But was she brave enough to embark on an unknown path and risk losing everything perhaps even her own life Determined to awaken her dying spirit and heal her battered body Alenka loaded her mountain bike with 50 pounds worth of camping gear and set off on a 2500 mile journey Starting in Lake Tahoe California she hoped to ride along the Sierra Nevada Mountain range to the tip of Mexico's Baja Peninsula following remote mountain trails Alone What followed was an irrevocably transformational journey of love hope courage and resilience and here Alenka tells that story in a voice stripped of self pity and infused with a good dose of humor She Rides is a galvanizing wake up call for anyone who wants to unearth and follow their own deeply buried dreams and reclaim their life
