Love Power Quelque Chose Comme:

Love, Power, and Gender in Seventeenth-Century French Fairy Tales Bronwyn Reddan, 2020-12 Love is a key ingredient in the stereotypical fairy tale ending in which everyone lives happily ever after This romantic formula continues to influence contemporary ideas about love and marriage but it ignores the history of love as an emotion that shapes and is shaped by hierarchies of power including gender class education and social status This interdisciplinary study questions the idealization of love as the ultimate happy ending by showing how the conteuses the women writers who dominated the first French fairy tale vogue in the 1690s used the fairy tale genre to critique the power dynamics of courtship and marriage Their tales do not sit comfortably in the fairy tale canon as they explore the good the bad and the ugly effects of love and marriage on the lives of their heroines Bronwyn Reddan argues that the conteuses scripts for love emphasize the importance of gender in determining the right way to love in seventeenth century France Their version of fairy tale love is historical and contingent rather than universal and timeless This conversation about love compels revision of the happily ever after narrative and offers incisive commentary on the gendered scripts for the performance of love in courtship and marriage in seventeenth century France

A Philosophical Anthropology Drawn from Simone Weil's Life and Writings Helen E. Cullen, 2017 A Philosophical Anthropology Drawn from Simone Weil's Life Writings situates Weil's thought in the time between the two world wars through which she lived and traces Weil's consistent conception of a mind/body dualism in the Cartesian sense to a dualism that places the mind within a carnal part of the soul and establishes an eternal part of the soul as the essence of human beings Helen Cullen argues that in Weil's early conception of human nature her Cartesian conception of perception already shows a glimpse of the eternal Weil's dualistic conception also forms the basis of her political analysis of the left of her time and through working in factories and in the fields she develops a conception of labour as a theory of action and work with a method Weil was influenced by leading thinkers of her time prompting her to do an analysis of current scientific theories Cullen argues that Weil's analysis of Christianity already present in Greek philosophy shows us a theory of identical thought inherited from the East India and China and brought forth by peoples around Israel This theory leads to Weil's analysis developed in The Need for Roots of how we've been uprooted through colonization and how we can grow roots in a free local society both rural and urban

Rewriting Rewriting Cathy Jellenik, 2007 Although the storytelling of any time rewrites itself rewriting became a primary concern in the literature of the twentieth century an era characterized as having quoted reenacted cannibalized revised redone refurbished and outright plagiarized the texts of earlier times The modern obsession with literary reiteration manifests itself in a rather unique way in the narratives of Marguerite Duras Annie Ernaux and Marie Redonnet These authors systematically and repeatedly rewrite their own texts and in so doing give evidence of three of the more salient aspects of twentieth century French literature a trend toward the representation of multifaceted selves a desire to reevaluate the literary paradigm and an acute concern for the unreliability of language This book argues that the rewriting performed by Duras Ernaux and Redonnet moves beyond the tacit rewriting that occurs in any text toward a renovation of various features of the literary arena within which they circulate Cathy Jellenik argues that all writing contains rewriting an argument grounded in the theoretical apparatuses of Saussure Bakhtin Benveniste Barthes Kristeva and Derrida She then examines and interrogates the ways in which Duras Ernaux and Redonnet use rewriting to question and rethink the literary traditions they inherit Jellenik suggests that the rewriting projects of Duras Ernaux and Redonnet promise to lead them and their readers toward the creation of a new literary aesthetic capable of responding to the questions of our times From Gesture to Idea--esthetics and Ethics in Molière's Comedy Nathan Gross,1982 Vauvenargues and

La Rochefoucauld Peter Martin Fine,1974 The Power of Phantasm in Stéphane Mallarmé's Youth Poetry and in the Psychoanalytical Theory of Jacques Lacan Mona Margareta Vinson,2002 Poetry at Stake Carrie Noland,2021-03-09

Taking seriously Guillaume Apollinaire's wager that twentieth century poets would one day mechanize poetry as modern industry has mechanized the world Carrie Noland explores poetic attempts to redefine the relationship between subjective expression and mechanical reproduction high art and the world of things Noland builds upon close readings to construct a tradition of diverse lyricists from Arthur Rimbaud Blaise Cendrars and Ren Char to contemporary performance artists Laurie Anderson and Patti Smith allied in their concern with the nature of subjectivity in an age of mechanical reproduction

Flux and Reflux Enid Rhodes Peschel,1977 The Plot Machine Kai Mikkonen,2021-11-01 This book presents a new and exciting theory of the modern French novel by developing the notion of the narrative as a textual machine Many turn of the century French novels thematically identified their means of narration through the various machines that they depicted The narrative devices that were particularly important in this self reflection included the temporal order of the plot the question of a narrative's beginning and end the hierarchy of narrative voices and the techniques of the point of view The question of mechanization became central on all these fronts Has the novel become automated or machine like At the same time the machine metaphors in the novels of Alfred Jarry Emile Zola Jules Verne Villiers de l'Isle Adam Raymond Roussel combined the question of the narrative form with new ways to think about man's relationship with technology and the cultural environment The early modernist texts drew upon contradictory notions of technological promise and threat while they also depicted new forms of identity and behavior related to or modeled after machines These texts highlighted cultural assumptions concerning technological innovations and critiqued mainly through parody and through various figures of man machine fusion the positivistic belief in progress Such writers looked for evidence of advanced forms of consciousness arising out of encounters with new technology such as telephones trains bicycles telegraphy phonographs and electricity This volume will be of interest to anyone working in the field of modern French literary and cultural history It will especially appeal to anyone intrigued with the origins of the modernist novel the history of narrative forms and the question of how the experience of new technology may be portrayed in literary texts Studies in the Contemporary Theatre John

Writing the Voice of Pleasure A. Callahan,2001-11-09 The Voice of Pleasure makes a persuasive and fascinating argument that the romantic couple of Western representation is not heterosexual Nor is it homosexual With insightful new readings of landmarks of Western culture from Tristan and Yseut to Seinfeld Callahan demonstrates that the illusion of heterosexuality is created by a male artist s assumption of a feminine voice to express desire Named the troubadour effect for the first time here this tradition of male femininity in romantic writing results in a cultural model of desire best described as heterosexuality without women The most compelling aspect of the book is its attention to the effect of this paradox on women writers Illuminating her argument with striking examples from the troubairitz to Toni Morrison the author shows how women writers inscribe their vagabondage a term she coins to name the consequences of the troubadour effect for women s agency as both writers and lovers Thinking through the Mothers Janet Beizer,2011-03-15 If questions of subjectivity and identification are at stake in all biographical writing they are particularly trenchant for contemporary women biographers of women Often their efforts to exhume buried lives in hope of finding spiritual foremothers awaken maternal phantoms that must be embraced or confronted Do women writing in fact have any greater access to their own mothers lives than to the lives of other women whose stories have been swept away like dust in the debris of the past In Thinking through the Mothers Janet Beizer surveys modern women s biographies and contemplates alternatives to an approach based in lineage and the form of thought that emphasizes the line the path hierarchy unity resemblance reflection and the aesthetic mimesis that depends on these ideas Through close readings of memoirs and fictions about mothers Beizer explores how biographers of the women who came before rehearse and rewrite relationships to their own mothers biographically as they seek to appropriate the past in a hybrid genre she calls bio autography Thinking through the Mothers features the work of George Sand and Colette and spans such varied figures as Gustave Flaubert Julian Barnes Louise Colet Eunice Lipton Vladimir Nabokov Huguette Bouchardeau and Christa Wolf Beizer seeks an alternative to women s salvation biography or resurrection biography that might resist nostalgia be attentive to silence and reinvent the means to represent the lives of precursors without appropriating traditional models of genealogy London and Westminster Review ,1863 Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine ,1822 Men of Their Words Nigel Harkness,2017-12-02 Whereas the centrality of femininity to nineteenth century French fiction has been the focus of widespread critical attention masculinity has until recently received little sustained treatment in either the literary or socio historical domains In this book Nigel Harkness uses the fiction of George Sand 1804 1876 the pre eminent woman writer of the period to explore questions of masculinity as they pertain to the nineteenth century French novel and to map out new approaches to the study of literary masculinity Drawing on contemporary theories of gender and narrative Harkness reveals how Sands novels repeatedly focus on a nexus of language masculinity and power in which narrative is both a vehicle for the expression of manhood and a site where masculinity is discursively performed Masculinity is thus reconfigured in Sands fiction as an identity constituted as much through words as through actions Analysis of the performances of masculinity staged in Sands novels opens onto an exploration of gendered processes of literary representation the links between masculinity and the doxa the equation of writing and power the homosocial function of acts of narration and the masculinity of authorship and authority The Royal Dictionary, French and English, and English and French ... Abel Boyer,1729 Rembaud Wallace Fowlie,1956
