Boyer,2018-01-03 Christ Our Passover Has Been Sacrificed examines the paschal mystery as it is presented throughout the liturgical year in The Roman Missal. After offering an in depth definition of the paschal mystery, the author guides the reader through Lent, Holy Week, Easter, Pentecost and more, mining the riches of paschal mystery spirituality. Biblical accounts interpret the death and resurrection of Jesus; liturgical texts in The Roman Missal present a rich seam of spiritual truth for the reader to apply to his or her life. By remembering Jesus' death and resurrection, Roman Catholics celebrate daily dying and rising to new life. The author serves as a guide through paschal mystery spirituality while also noting the mystical theology, reflections on experiences of God represented by the prayers in The Roman Missal, particularly those dealing with Jesus' suffering, death, resurrection, ascension and gift of the Spirit. Through reflections and meditation, questions, readers are invited to name their own personally transforming mystical experiences which connect them to God in deep levels and move them outward into the community to share spirituality. statutory schemes of clemency and pardon in the United Kingdom United States and Commonwealth jurisdictions He asks whether the bureaucratization of the clemency power is in line with global trends and explores how innovations in legislative involvement judicial review and executive consultation have made the mercy and pardon procedure more transparent The book concludes with a discussion on the future of the clemency and pardon power given the decline of the death penalty in the Commonwealth and the rise of the modern institution of parole As a work concerned with the practice of mercy in the common law world this book will be of great interest to researchers and students of international and comparative criminal justice and international human rights law

"The Soul Exceeds Its Circumstances" Eugene O'Brien, 2016-11-15 The Soul Exceeds its Circumstances brings together sixteen of the most prominent scholars who have written on Seamus Heaney to examine the Nobel Prize winner's later poetry from a variety of critical and theoretical perspectives While a great deal of attention has been devoted to Heaney's early and middle poems the Bog Poems in particular this book focuses on the poetry collected in Heaney's Seeing Things 1991 The Spirit Level 1996 Electric Light 2001 District and Circle 2006 and Human Chain 2010 as a thematically connected set of writings The starting point of the essays in this collection is that these later poems can be grouped in terms of style theme approach and intertextuality They develop themes that were apparent in Heaney's earlier work but they also break with these themes and address issues that are radically different from those of the earlier collections The essays are divided into five sections focusing on ideas of death the later style translation and transnational poetics luminous things and gifts and usual and unusual spaces A number of the contributors see Heaney as stressing the literary over the actual and as always looking at the interstices and positions of liminality and complexity His use of literary references in his later poetry exemplifies his search for literary avatars against whom he can test his own ideas and with whom he can enter into an aesthetic and ethical dialogue The essayists cover a great deal of Heaney's debts to classical and modern literature in the original languages and in translations and demonstrate the degree to which the streets on which Heaney walked and wrote were two way he was influenced by Virgil Petrarch Milosz Wordsworth Keats Rilke and others and in turn had an impact on contemporary poets This remarkable collection will appeal to scholars and literary critics undergraduates as well as graduate students and to the many general readers of Heaney's poetry
