Governance Partnership Management Coalitions Federation:

Networks Governance, Partnership Management and Coalitions Federation Christophe Assens,Aline Courie Lemeur,2016-05-12 This book explores the governance of networks A network s governance mechanisms are based on trust and confidence which go beyond a simple economic logic As the network s boundaries expand to include clusters of businesses and stakeholders and the emergence of coalitions of all kinds the trust will gradually dilute and the network s unifying role will be lost The organization then evolves into the form of a network of networks where the challenge is to bring together coalitions Using examples from the European Union and the Regional Health Federation of Networks this book explores the political and socio economic challenges including the decision making and division of tasks faced by network organizations which move to a federation model of governance

Strategic Communication Management for Development and Social Change Tsietsi Mmutle,Tshepang Bright Molale,Olanrewaju Olugbenga Akinola,Olebogeng Selebi,2023-12-13 This book is the first of its kind within the African region to combine scholarly perspectives from the fields of Strategic Communication Management and Communication for Development and Social Change It draws insights from scholars across the African continent by unravelling the complementary nature of scholarship between the two fields through the lens of prevailing governance and sustainability challenges facing African countries today This edited volume covers issues that have adversely affected the achievement of goals related to humanitarian upliftment development and social change for all African nations Consequently citizen participation which lies at the heart of these challenges when considering the question of sustainable governance and policy development for social change in an African context is addressed To this end a reflection is also made on various case studies that exist where local citizens do not inform sustainable development programmes while the promotion of bottom up development and social change is largely replaced by top down instrumental action approaches and hemispheric communication instead of strategic communication Themes explored include Communication for social change bottom up development and social movements in the local government sphere Strategic communication in governance planning and policy reforms The role of multi stakeholder partnerships in achieving development of objectives geared towards good governance in Africa Public participation protests and resistance from below Public sector health communications and development Media relations accountability and contested development narratives with the Fourth Estate Social media and eParticipation in government development programs

The Philosophy of Disease Benjamin Smart,2016-04-29 Disease is everywhere Everyone experiences disease everyone knows somebody who is or has been diseased and disease related stories hit the headlines on a regular basis Many important issues in the philosophy of disease however have received remarkably little attention from philosophical thinkers This book examines a number of important debates in the philosophy of medicine including what is disease and the roles and viability of concepts of causation in clinical medicine and epidemiology Where much of the existing literature targets conceptual analyses of health and disease this book provides the reader with an insight into these debates and develops plausible alternative accounts The author explores a range of related subjects discussing a host of interesting philosophical questions within clinical medicine pathology and epidemiology In the second part of the book the author examines the concepts of causation employed by clinicians and pathologists how one should classify diseases and whether the epidemiologist s models for inferring the causes of disease are all they re cracked up to be Explaining the Genetic Footprints of Catholic and Protestant Colonizers S. Barter,2016-04-30 This book points out a novel pattern in colonial intimacy that Catholic colonizers tended to leave behind significant mixed communities while Protestant colonizers were more likely to police relations with local women The varied genetic footprints of Catholic and Protestant colonizers while subject to some exceptions holds across world regions and over time Having demonstrated that this pattern exists this book then seeks to explain it looking to religious institutions political capacity and ideas of nation and race Zombie Talk John Edgar Browning,David Castillo,David Schmid,David A. Reilly,2016-04-30 Zombie Talk offers a concise interdisciplinary introduction and deep analytical set of theoretical approaches to help readers understand the phenomenon of zombies in contemporary and modern culture With essays that combine Humanities and Social Science methodologies the authors examine the zombie through an array of cultural products from different periods and geographical locations films ranging from White Zombie 1932 to the pioneering films of George Romero television shows like AMC s The Walking Dead to literary offerings such as Richard Matheson s I am Legend 1954 and Seth Grahame Smith s Pride Prejudice and Zombies 2009 among others Political Cyberformance Christina Papagiannouli,2016-04-30 Written from a practice based perspective this book focuses on the political character of cyberformance the genre of digital performance that uses the Internet as a performance space The Etheatre Project comprises a series of experimental cyberperformances aiming to reconsider the characteristics of theatre in the Internet age Federal Funding Sources for Rural Areas ,2001 Mexicans on the Move F. Rothstein,2016-05-30 This book describes and analyzes migration of individuals from San Cosme Mazatecochco in central Mexico to a new United States community in New Jersey Based on four decades of anthropological research in Mazatecochco and among migrants in New Jersey Rothstein traces the causes and consequences of migration and who returned home why and how return migrants reintegrated back into their homeland Developing a United Nations Emergency Peace Service H. Peter Langille,2016-07-14 This book makes the case for a standing UN Emergency Peace Service With this one development effectively a UN first responder for complex emergencies the organization would finally have a rapid reliable capacity to help fulfill its tougher assigned tasks To date the UNEPS initiative has encountered an unreceptive political fiscal and security environment Yet overlapping crises are now inevitable as are profound shifts This book presents an insightful review of the worrisome security challenges ahead and analysis of two recent high level UN reports It addresses the primary roles core principles and requirements of a UNEPS as well as the arguments for and against such a dedicated UN service Further it reveals that the primary impediments and lessons learned also help demonstrate what may work and equally important what won t With modest support the book shows the next steps are feasible although it s important to recall that ideas even good ideas don t work unless we do Hand-Made Television R. Moseley,2016-04-29

Hand Made Television explores the ongoing enchantment of many of the much loved stop frame children s television programmes of 1960s and 1970s Britain The first academic work to analyse programmes such as Pogles Wood 1966 Clangers 1969 Bagpuss 1974 Smallfilms and Gordon Murray s Camberwick Green 1966 Trumpton 1967 and Chigley 1969 the book connects these series to their social and historical contexts while providing in depth analyses of their themes and hand made aesthetics Hand Made Television shows that the appeal of these programmes is rooted not only in their participatory address and evocation of a pastoral English past but also in the connection of their stop frame aesthetics to the actions of childhood play This book makes a significant contribution to both Animation Studies and Television Studies combining scholarly rigour with an accessible style it is suitable for scholars as well as fans of these iconic British children s programmes The Economics of the Popular Music Industry C. Byun,2016-04-29 This Palgrave Pivot uses modeling from microeconomic theory and industrial organization to demonstrate how consumers and producers have responded to major changes in the music industry Byun examines the important role of technology in changing its structure particularly as new methods of creating and accessing music prove to be a double edged sword for creators and producers An underlying theme in the project is the question of how the business of music affects creativity and how artists continue to produce creative output in the face of business pressures the erosion of copyright enforcement and rampant online piracy In addition to being a useful resource for economists interested in the music industry this approachable Pivot is also ideal for business and music majors studying the effect of technology on their chosen fields Artificial Intelligence in Health Marianne Sarazin,2024-02-21 Undeniable inescapable exhilarating and breaking free from the exclusive domain of science artificial intelligence has become our main preoccupation A major generator of new mathematical thinking AI is the result of easy access to information and data as facilitated by computer technology Big Data has come to be seen as an unlimited source of knowledge the use of which is still being fully explored but its industrialization has swiftly followed in the footsteps of mathematicians today s tools are increasingly designed to replace human beings which comes with social and philosophical consequences Drawing on examples of scientific work and the insights of experts this book offers food for thought on the consequences and future of AI technology in education health the workplace and aging Network Policy Making within the Turkish Health Sector
