What works in early grade literacy instruction Jennae Bulat, Margaret Dubeck, Paula Green, Karon Harden, Catherine Henny, Mónica Mattos, Alison Pflepsen, Ana Robledo, Yasmin Sitabkhan, 2017-02-28 Over the past decade RTI International has pursued the goal of quality inclusive differentiated early grade literacy instruction in nearly 30 early grade reading or early grade literacy programs in low and middle income LMI countries Across our diverse portfolio we have supported Ministries of Education Ministries in diverse contexts in their development and implementation of research based early grade literacy programs and have learned important lessons based on our experience working with Ministries to design develop and implement early grade literacy programs This paper describes the core elements that we have found to improve early grade literacy instruction and learner outcomes the approach to teaching Teach the availability of quality relevant learner materials Text the effective use of instructional time Time the use of formative assessment to guide instruction Test and provision of instruction in the most effective language Tongue This paper focuses on the acquisition of literacy in alphabetic and alphasyllabic languages in the early primary years most typically academic levels 1 through 3 and the kinds of exposures instruction and support learners need to become fully literate These are the elements of a literacy program that can be taught that should be present in teaching and learning materials and in teacher trainings and that relate specifically to what happens in a classroom Many more factors contribute to literacy acquisition However we focus on the core elements in this paper to delve deeper and facilitate a richer discussion about these components No one size fits all approach to the development and implementation of literacy programs exists the local context and constraints of any implementation can require adaptation and adjustments In many cases the fully diversified approach to early grade literacy instruction described in the classroom scenario has not yet been achieved However we hope that this compilation of lessons learned and best practices achieved through our experiences will help to further the efforts of all to provide high quality effective literacy instruction to all learners particularly those in LMI countries Literacy and Reading in Nigeria Reading Association of Nigeria. Conference, 1985 Literacy and Reading in Nigeria ,1985 Architecture and Politics in Nigeria Nnamdi Elleh, 2016-12-08 In 1975 the Nigerian authorities decided to construct a new postcolonial capital called Abuja and together with several internationally renowned architects these military leaders collaborated to build a city for three million inhabitants Founded five years after the Civil War with Biafra which caused around 1 7 million deaths the city was envisaged as a place where justice would reign and where people from different social religious ethnic and political backgrounds would come together in a peaceful manner and work together to develop their country and its economy These were all laudable goals but they ironically mobilized certain forces from around the country in opposition against the Federal Government of Nigeria The international and modernist style architecture and the fact that the government spent tens of billions of dollars constructing this idealized capital ended up causing more strife and conflict For groups like Boko Haram a Nigerian Al Qaida affiliate organization and other smaller ethnic groups seeking to have a say in how the country's oil wealth is spent Abuja symbolized everything in Nigeria they sought to change By examining the creation of the modernist national public spaces of Abuja within a broader historical and global context this book looks at how the successes and the failures of these spaces have affected the citizens of the country and have in fact radicalized individuals with these spaces being scene of some of the most important political events and terrorist targets including bombings and protest rallies Although focusing on Nigeria's capital the study has a wider global implication in that it draws attention to how postcolonial countries that were formed at the turn of the twentieth century are continuously fragmenting and remade by the emergence of new nation states like South Sudan

Politics and Identity Formation in Southeastern Nigeria Apollos O. Nwauwa, Ogechi E. Anyanwu, 2019-05-20 Scholarly studies on the Igbo have been scant and fragmented Politics and Identity Formation in Southeastern Nigeria The Igbo in Perspective fills an obvious gap exploring the social cultural economic political and aesthetic traditions that distinguish the Igbo of southeastern Nigeria from their neighbors In scope content and analysis this book is both multi and cross disciplinary focusing on the experiences and forces that have shaped the Igbo society identity formation and sociocultural political and aesthetic representations Themes such as the importance of Igbo names in understanding the people's social linguistic religious gender and cultural identities as well as the intersection of language politics socialization education and aesthetic expression in the Igbo experience in Nigeria are interrogated in a refreshing fashion with an appreciable level of originality
