

The Cold War Heats Up

1. As you read the passage, fill in the information you discover about the Soviet-American agreement below.

	What the Soviets Wanted	What the Americans Wanted
1. Would it make any sense to build space programs and rockets?	That U.S. support them economically (training, fuel, etc.)	None
2. Would anyone benefit from the rockets and satellites they built?	They would surely produce satellites that were better. They would improve delivery of aid.	They were worried about the loss of technological know-how to the Soviets when John F. Kennedy became President. They also worried about Communist China's space program.
3. Would anyone challenge either side?	Not Eisenhower.	Others might be tempted to join the competition and also challenge.
4. Would the two nations agree about other foreign activities?	Yes. The governments had no programs. There was no competition.	Yes. American policy was supported and would not take a backseat to the Soviets.

2. Suppose the agreement simply set up the program, without these other agreements. What would happen? Would the competition really begin?

Discuss. Remember, the governments the satellites were created with special U.S. technology. Now that got them out of the house.
