Gypsy Politics And Traveller Identity:

Gypsy Politics and Traveller Identity Thomas Alan Acton, 1997 Relations with the state and with non Gypsies have been central to the shaping of the lived identity of Gypsy people This book examines how the state deals with Gypsies and travellers and how they deal with the state It also provides a comparative study of Gypsy politics in Britain and abroad

Gypsy Politics and Traveller Identity Thomas Alan Acton, 1997 Gypsy and Traveller Ethnicity Brian A Belton, 2004-08-02 The book explores the notion of Gypsy and Traveller ethnicity and provides a critique of the conceptual basis of racial and ethnic categorisation An analysis of the post war housing situation is given in order to illustrate a connection between social and economic conditions legislation affecting gypsies and travellers and the visibility and general consciousness of the gypsy and traveller population The originality of the book lies in its argument that the position of gypsies and travellers largely arises out of social conditions and interaction rather than political biological or ideological determinants It puts forward the notion of an ethnic narrative of traveller identity and illustrates how variations of this have been defensively deployed by some travellers and elaborated on by theorists Belton focuses on the social generation of travellers as a cultural ethnic and racial categorization offering a rational explanation of the development of an itinerant population that is less ambiguous and more informative in terms of the social nature of the gypsy and traveller position than interpretations based on blood breed stock ethnicity or race that dominate the literature Traveller, Nomadic and Migrant Education Patrick Alan Danaher, Máirín Kenny, Judith Remy Leder, 2009-04-10 This edited collection explores the challenges and innovations in providing education for mobile communities across the world While obstacles such as negative stereotypes and centuries old prejudice remain problematic the book also shows how educational innovations such as online education and mobile schools are bringing mobility and schooling together New Directions in Race, Ethnicity and Crime Coretta Phillips, Colin Webster, 2013-10-08 The disproportionate criminalisation and incarceration of particular minority ethnic groups has long been observed though much of the work in criminology has been dominated by a somewhat narrow debate This debate has concerned itself with explaining this disproportionality in terms of structural inequalities and socio economic disadvantage or discriminatory criminal justice processing This book offers an accessible and innovative approach including chapters on anti-Semitism social cohesion in London Bradford and Glasgow as well as an exploration of policing Traveller communities Incorporating current empirical research and new departures in methodology and theory this book also draws on a range of contemporary issues such as policing terrorism immigration detention and youth gangs In offering minority perspectives on race crime and justice and white inmate perspectives from the multicultural prison the book emphasises contrasting and distinctive influences on constructing ethnic identities It will be of interest to students studying courses in ethnicity crime and justice Counter-Hegemony and the Irish "Other" Michael Hayes, 2009-10-02 This volume hopes to act as a catalyst for some new and exciting areas of enquiry in the more liminal interstices of Irish Studies Traveller

Studies Romani Studies and Diaspora and Migration Studies These disciplines are all relatively new areas of enquiry in modern Ireland a country whose society has witnessed very rapid and wide ranging cultural and demographic change within the short space of a decade The issue of multiculturalism is not one which is particularly new to Irish society as a number of contributors to this volume point out What is new however is an increased acknowledgement of diversity and multiculturalism in Ireland and Europe as a whole Such an acknowledgement makes increased dialogue between mainstream society older minorities such as the Irish Travellers and the many newer immigrant communities such as the Roma all the more necessary For such constructive dialogue to take place it is vital that the voices of Travellers and Roma are listened to and that their distinctive worldview be given due acknowledgement and respect It is hoped that this volume will go some way towards the development of such a process

Ethnicity and Economy S. Fenton, H. Bradley, 2002-06-18 The nature of the connection between economic action and structure and ethnic identities receives here a long overdue and incisive re examination The question is addressed theoretically by revisiting the race and class debate and by a wide ranging review of the contexts in which the conjuncture of ethnicity economy is worked out It is also addressed empirically in a series of case studies of ethnically defined groups and their articulation with the economy A combination of established authors and new researchers have made an invaluable contribution to the field

The Globalization of Space John Miller, 2015-10-06 The work of Michel Foucault has been influential in the analysis of space in a variety of disciplines most notably in geography and politics This collection of essays is the first to focus on what Foucault termed heterotopias spaces that exhibit multiple layers of meaning and reveal tensions within society

Sites of Protest Stuart Price, Ruth Sanz Sabido, 2016-05-18 Sites of Protest examines the global resurgence of protest movements and the ways in which they use public and private space both physical and immaterial to secure attention for a wide variety of causes cultural events and moral campaigns The book takes its readers inside the mindset not only of protestors and activists but also of the state and corporate authorities that attempt to limit the impact of dissent It also explains how media outlets frame the wide variety of international events and controversies that make up modern protest movements and examines the myths that surround activism and the Internet Has the landscape of dissent changed forever or does the fact that protestors still rely on the symbolism associated with a particular place mean that their interventions will remain localised and will fail to create a universal appeal

Sinti and Roma Susan Tebbutt, 1998 This collection of essays explores in depth the life of the Sinti and Roma in Germany their representation in German literature and the relationships between the German and Romani languages It gives background to their maltreatment and underlines the fact that the persecution of Gypsies during the Nazi period which until the 1980s had been totally marginalised by historians did not cease in 1945 The continuity of this anti Gypsyism is traced to the present day and the efforts achievements and aspirations of the Sinti and Roma civil rights movement are highlighted

Qualitative Housing Analysis Paul J. Maginn, Matthew Tonts, Susan M. Thompson, 2008-10-13 Offers a theoretical and empirical perspective on the value potential and contribution that qualitative research methodologies bring to the analysis of housing policy issues within an international context This book also includes discussion of specific methodological challenges and ethical dilemmas faced by researchers

Inclusion and Early Years Practice Kathy Brodie, Keith Savage, 2015-02-20 Inclusion is a difficult complex issue for which there are no off the shelf answers To be an effective practitioner it is necessary to identify what makes each situation and circumstance unique and use this knowledge to develop strategies and approaches that are appropriate This timely new text examines the key perceptions perspectives and concepts around inclusion in the Early Years Drawing on real life experiences of practitioners it considers the questions practitioners are likely to come across in their professional lives and how they might genuinely go about meeting the needs of all the children in their care The book covers all aspects of inclusion including special educational needs gender and sexuality multiculturalism multilingualism Roma and traveller communities and economic wellbeing Each chapter features Case studies to develop reflective thinking Boxed examples to illustrate key points Questions to promote discussion and debate Annotated further reading lists With case studies drawn from current research and thinking points which encourage reflective practice this book will be essential reading for students on early childhood studies programmes and early years foundation degrees that wish to become reflective and critically aware practitioners

Race, Faith and Planning in Britain Richard Gale, Huw

Thomas, 2020-09-21 Race Faith and Planning in Britain adopts a Critical Race Theory perspective to analyse and discuss challenges of planning in contemporary multi ethnic Britain Exploring how planning is affected by and affects the racialisation of social relations this book charts the history of the UK planning system s approach in terms of the spatial consequences of immigration and discourses of diversity cohesion citizenship and belonging Authors Richard Gale and Huw Thomas pay special attention to the experiences of minority groups in Britain including Gypsies and Travellers and British Muslims They underline that the struggle over planning in racialised societies must be construed as part of a wider political struggle over equality This book is an essential read for students and practitioners of planning in multi cultural contexts

Community Groups in Context Angus McCabe, Jenny Phillimore, 2017-03-15 In the past decade community groups have been portrayed as the solution to many social problems Yet the role of below the regulatory radar community action has received little research attention and thus is poorly understood in terms of both policy and practice Focusing on self organised community activity this book offers the first collection of papers developing theoretical and empirically grounded knowledge of the informal unregistered yet largest part of the voluntary sector The collection includes work from leading academics activists policy makers and practitioners offering a new and coherent understanding of community action below the radar The book is part of the Third Sector Research Series which is informed by research undertaken at the Third Sector Research Centre funded by the Economic and Social Research Council and Barrow Cadbury Trust

A minority and the state Becky Taylor, 2013-07-19 This is a new paperback edition of Becky Taylor s history of Britain s travelling communities in the twentieth century It draws together detailed archival research at local and national level to explore the impact of state and legislative developments on Travellers as well as their experience of missions education war and welfare It also covers legal developments affecting Travellers and crucially argues that their history must not be dealt with in isolation but as part of a wider history of British minorities This book will be of interest to scholars and students concerned with minority groups the welfare state and the expansion of government as well as general readers and practitioners working with Travellers

The Role of the Romanies Nicholas Saul,Susan Tebbutt,2005-01-01 Since the arrival of the Gypsies or Romanies in Europe at the beginning of the eleventh century Europeans have simultaneously feared and romanticized them That ambiguity has contributed to centuries of confusion over the origins culture and identity of the Romanies a confusion that too often has resulted in marginalization persecution and scapegoating The Role of the Romanies brings together international experts on Romany culture from the fields of history sociology linguistics and anthropology to address the many questions and problems raised by the vexed relationship between Romany and European cultures The book s first section considers the genesis development and scope of the field of Romany studies while the second part expands from there to consider constructions of Romany culture and identity Part three focuses on twentieth century literary representations of Romany life while the final part considers how the role of the Romanies will ultimately be remembered and recorded Together the essays provide an absorbing portrait of a frequently misunderstood people No Place to Call Home Katharine

Quarmby,2013-08-01 The shocking poignant story of eviction expulsion and the hard scrabble fight for a home They are reviled For centuries the Roma have wandered Europe during the Holocaust half a million were killed After World War II and during the Troubles a wave of Irish Travellers moved to England to make a better safer life They found places to settle down but then as Occupy was taking over Wall Street and London the vocal Dale Farm community in Essex was evicted from their land Many did not leave quietly they put up a legal and at times physical fight Award winning journalist Katharine Quarmby takes us into the heat of the battle following the Sheridan McCarthy Burton and Townsley families before and after the eviction from Dale Farm to Meriden and other trouble spots Based on exclusive access over the course of seven years and rich historical research No Place to Call Home is a stunning narrative of long sought justice Diasporas: Revisiting and Discovering ,2020-05-18 The present book brings together a collection of key studies from many disciplines all focusing around the diaspora issue The readers will engage on a journey that spans continents populations and time frames

Travellers, Gypsies, Roma Jean Ryan Hakizimana,2009-10-02 This volume hopes to act as a catalyst for some new and exciting areas of enquiry in the more liminal interstices of Irish Studies Traveller Studies Romani Studies and Diaspora and Migration Studies These disciplines are all relatively new areas of enquiry in modern Ireland a country whose society has witnessed very rapid and wide ranging cultural and demographic change within the short space of a decade The issue of multiculturalism is not one which is particularly new to Irish society as a number of contributors to this volume point out

What is new however is an increased acknowledgement of diversity and multiculturalism in Ireland and Europe as a whole. Such an acknowledgement makes increased dialogue between mainstream society, older minorities such as the Irish Travellers and the many newer immigrant communities such as the Roma all the more necessary. For such constructive dialogue to take place it is vital that migratory peoples and their particular expressions of postcolonial identity be voiced and valued. These identities are both complex and diverse and frequently straddle a number of countries and national identities. It is hoped that this volume will go some way towards the cultivation of such dialogue.

Beyond Binaries in Education Research Warren Midgley, Mark A. Tyler, Patrick Alan Danaher, Alison Mander, 2012-03-28

Beyond Binaries in Education Research explores the ethical, methodological and social justice issues relating to conceptualizations of binary opposites in education research, particularly where one side of the dualism is perceived to be positive and the other negative. In education research these may include ability/disability, academic/vocational, adult/child, formal/informal learning, male/female, research/practice, researcher/participant, sedentary/mobile and West/East. Chapters in this book explore the resilience of binary constructions and present conceptual models for moving beyond them and/or reconceptualizing them to facilitate more productive approaches to education provision. With contributors from authors working in a multitude of educational fields and countries, this book provides a significant contribution to the ongoing challenge to seek new ways to move beyond binaries in education research.
