The Theatre of Anxiety Leila Michelle Vaziri, 2024-10-21 We are living in times when populism war and climate change are all sources of anxiety caused by overlapping crises Anxiety is a phenomenon that is not just reflected everywhere around us but is also increasingly manifesting itself in contemporary drama particularly in the last five to ten years many new British dramas and theatre productions have given a stage to anxiety Given this central role of anxiety the aim of this study is to outline the interplay of theatre and anxiety on both a thematic and aesthetic level It argues that a strand of contemporary theatre that combines topics of social ecological technological and pandemic importance with investigations into the philosophical and aesthetic implications of anxiety has come to prominence in recent years the theatre of anxiety This is traced across exemplary readings of a number of contemporary British plays by playwrights such as Caryl Churchill Zinnie Harris Alistair McDowall and others They show that contemporary drama and performance both aesthetically and thematically reflect and comment on global crises and catastrophes through the lens of anxiety as a feeling that colours the perception of and reaction to these social and political conditions Radar Handbook, Third Edition Merrill I.

Energy Update, 1981 Reset Ronald J. Deibert, 2020-09-29 In the 2020 CBC Massey Lectures bestselling author and renowned technology and security expert Ronald J Deibert exposes the disturbing influence and impact of the internet on politics the economy the environment and humanity Digital technologies have given rise to a new machine based civilization that is increasingly linked to a growing number of social and political maladies Accountability is weak and insecurity is endemic creating disturbing opportunities for exploitation Drawing from the cutting edge research of the Citizen Lab the world renowned digital security research group which he founded and directs Ronald J Deibert exposes the impacts of this communications ecosystem on civil society He tracks a mostly unregulated surveillance industry innovations in technologies of remote control superpower policing practices dark PR firms and highly profitable hack for hire services feeding off rivers of poorly secured personal data Deibert also unearths how dependence on social media and its expanding universe of consumer electronics creates immense pressure on the natural environment In order to combat authoritarian practices environmental degradation and rampant electronic consumerism he urges restraints on tech platforms and governments to reclaim the internet for civil society American Book Publishing Record ,2006 Journal of Research of the National
