Hard To Handle Rawhide Book 5:

Out of Control (The Kincaid Brides Book #1) Mary Connealy, 2011-08-01 Julia Gilliland has always been interested in the natural world around her. She particularly enjoys her outings to the cavern near her father's homestead where she explores for fossils and formations and plans to write a book about her discoveries. The cave seems plenty safe until the day a mysterious intruder steals the rope she uses to find her way out. Rafe Kincaid has spent years keeping his family's cattle ranch going all without help from his two younger brothers who fled the ranch and Rafe's controlling ways as soon as they were able. He's haunted by one terrible day at the cave on a far flung corner of the Kincaid property a day that changed his life forever. Ready to put the past behind him, he plans to visit the cave one final time. He sure doesn't expect to find a young woman trapped in one of the tunnels or to be forced to kiss her. Rafe is more intrigued by Julia than any woman he's ever known but how can he overlook her fascination with the cave he despises? And when his developing relationship with Julia threatens his chance at reconciliation with his brothers, will he be forced to choose between the family bonds that could restore his trust and the love that could heal his heart.

That was in the Sunday funnies in a page drawn by Alex Raymond and written anonymously by former pulp fiction editor Don Moore. This space opera became one of King Features Syndicate's most popular features and Raymond's illustrative art was to have a strong influence on many of the young artists who began drawing for comic books in the late 1930s and the early 1940s. Tom Hickey, Sheldon Moldoff, Jack Lehti, George Papp, Mac Raboy, Dan Barry, etc. Flash Gordon entered comic books early in 1936 by way of reprints in King Comics. His battles with the merciless Ming, a sort of galactic Fu Manchu, unfolded in the magazine from the first issue. In the early 1940s Dell began issuing now and then Flash Gordon reprint titles. Later in the decade came an occasional comic book offering Flash adventures especially written and drawn for this magazine. The artist was Paul Norris who also began drawing the Jungle Jim newspaper page in 1948. Harvey Publications tried reprinting the Raymond material in 1950 and 1951 giving up after a few issues. King Features experimented with publishing comic books in the late 1960s. These used original material and the Flash Gordon book made use of such artists as Al Williamson, a devoted Raymond disciple, Gil Kane and Reed Crandall. When King quit, Charlton took over and finally Gold Key The final Whitman Flash Gordon comic book was printed in 1982 He reappeared briefly in 1987 as part of a team that included Mandrake and the Phantom in the TV inspired Defenders of the Earth Stockton County
