Jeremiah Stefan Zweig, 1929-01-01 They batter in the gates to the walls to the walls Faithless watchmen they are coming they are upon us The temple is in flames Help help The walls are breached He has rushed forward to the edge of the roof where he abruptly stops His cry rends the shimmering silence With a start he awakens from his trance He looks forth over the town like a drunken man his arms which in his terror he has raised sink slowly to his sides then wearily he draws his hand across his open eyes Illusion Once again these terrible visions Full how full is the House of Dreams He leans on the parapet and gazes down Peace broods over the city the country is at peace in me alone in my breast alone this fire rages How quietly the town reposes in God's arms nestling in slumber roofed over by peace the moonbeams falling on every house and every house plunged in gentle sleep But I I alone am consumed with fire night after night I crash earthward with the falling towers rush to escape perish amid the flames I and none but I my bowels troubled leap heated from my bed and stagger forth into the moonlight seeking coolness For me alone comes a vision to shatter sleep for me alone does a fiery horror wrench the darkness from my lids The martyrdom of this vision the madness of these faces which swarm in their blood stained multitude and then fade in the clear moonlight Always the same dream the same illusion Night after night the same terror seizes me the same dream culminating in the same torment Who has instilled this dream poison into my veins Who hunts me thus with terror Who covets my sleep that he must rob me of it who is my torturer and for whom must I thus hold vigil Answer Who art thou invisible one aiming at me from the darkness thy wing'd shafts Who art thou terror incarnate coming to lie with me by night quickening me with thy spirit until my frame is twisted as with labor pains Wherefore in this slumbering city should the curse be laid on me alone He is silent straining his ear to the all pervading silence and then continues with growing excitement Silence nothing but silence while within is unceasing turmoil and storm tossed night With scorching talons it tears at my vitals and yet cannot grasp them I am scourged with visions and know not who holds the scourge My cries go forth into the void Desist invisible hunter or if it must be otherwise seize your quarry call to me when I wake not when I sleep speak to me in words not in visions Reveal what you are hiding from me tell me the meaning of these torments Jeremiah
