addiction has caused devastation that seems irreparable Written for anyone who has experienced addiction s destruction whether personally or through a loved one this book demonstrates that your recovery story is actually a subplot in God s much larger narrative of redemption The same Jesus who spoke these profound truths 2000 years ago remains the living answer to every need that addiction creates This isn t theology dressed up in recovery language or recovery principles forced into religious molds This is the recognition that the deepest human struggles with powerlessness spiritual hunger moral confusion and existential emptiness find their ultimate solution in the One who declares I AM so that broken people can confidently declare WE ARE redeemed restored and renewed For those still struggling discover that your rock bottom can become His solid foundation For those in recovery there s more much more For families and loved ones find hope that no addiction is too severe for resurrection power For those in ministry meet your mission field in the rooms where miracles happen daily The mathematics of addiction never made sense but the mathematics of grace are equally counterintuitive less equals more weakness equals strength surrender equals victory death equals life This is more than a book it s an invitation to discover that the Higher Power who saved you from active addiction wants to save you for active discipleship Your recovery story is actually a love story and the love interest has a name From powerlessness to purpose from spiritual death to abundant life from the great I am not to the grateful we are this journey reveals that recovery isn t just about getting sober It s about getting saved staying saved and helping others find the same salvation you ve found This book will change how you understand both recovery and faith It s essential reading for anyone who believes that grace and spiritual awakening aren t just compatible they are inseparable

Thinking Things Through Andrew Murray, 2012-11-30 The life of a philosopher is foremost the life of thinking but it is also the life of imagination that dreams of and investigates possibilities that might not otherwise have been raised The life of a Christian is the life of Faith Hope and Charity and so it both looks to things beyond this world and regards this world with compassion The two can work together Faith softens reason and reason sharpens Faith Imagination finds new ways to articulate in concrete circumstances what has belonged to long traditions of thought These essays cover a wide range of topics either by way of simple reflection on life or in response to issues that arose around the time of their writing The period of their writing was a varied one Life looked so stable in the mid nineties that we contemplated Australia becoming a republic and sought Aboriginal reconciliation It remained uncomplicated at the time of the Olympic Games in 2000 but became troubled by political events and by the terrorist attacks of 2001 The essays respond to the issues of this time Four essays not published in the Weekly have been added to take note of more recent changes that have taken place in the Church and in our world

Inventing Christic Jesuses: Rules and Warrants for Theology Charles A. Wilson, 2018-11-01 In the first comprehensive proposal for revisionist theology's deployment of historical Jesus research Inventing Christic Jesuses rejects positions that insulate theology from Jesus research By setting out theological methods warrants and rules in dialogue with an analysis of the Jesus historians of the Third Quest c 1980-2010 the study charts a path toward a quested christology positioned between categorical rejection and uncritical acceptance of historical results on Jesus Volume 1 Method analyzes the methods and values of historical research on Jesus and identifies the retrojective activity of value production when historians in conversation with historical sources invent images of Jesus Volume 2 Christological Recommendations gathers potential contributions of Jesus research for revisionist theology according to the cataphatic apophatic and eminent pattern of classical theology By attending to the limits and opportunities afforded by historical research both negative and positive the argument retrieves for theology the complex way that historians shape same and different association and dissociation in the production of their Jesuses Then it analyzes how values shape Jesuses in a pervasive Narcissus project to invent a self and a community through imaging Jesus Proposing that the disciplined invention of Jesuses is highly useful for theology the book ends with recommendations for a quested christology

The Old Testament and the Significance of Jesus Fredrick Carlson Holmgren, 1999 A perennial question throughout the history of the Christian faith has centered on the character of the Old Testament and its relationship to Jesus Christ It is in this area that Christians and Jews have parted ways creating a deep and enduring chasm between the two faith communities With this new volume Fredrick Holmgren aids in closing this hurtful breach by engaging with views on both sides of this important conversation Holmgren dialogues with Christians from every point on the theological spectrum urging the church to a new respect for the Jewish Bible the enduring role of the Old Testament as Christian scripture and the valuable contributions of Judaism to the Christian faith Warning the church against either caricaturing the Old Testament and Judaism or romanticizing Christianity Holmgren sensitively shows that the New Testament proclamation of newness in Christ carries forward the witness of the Old Testament without making obsolete its Jewish interpretation Ask the Animals Arthur W. Walker-Jones, Suzanna R. Millar, 2024-06-21 Ask the animals and they will tell you Birds beasts and creeping things swarm throughout the Bible's pages Despite their prevalence most biblical scholars have viewed them merely as metaphors passive objects or background embellishment to the human experience This collection seeks to move beyond this traditional view of biblical animals by engaging the growing interdisciplinary field of animal studies Contributors Peter Joshua Atkins Jared Beverly William P Brown Margaret Cohen Jacob R Evers Michael J Gilmour William Chip Gruen Dong Hyeon Jeong Brian Fiu Kolia Anne L tourneau Robert R MacKay Suzanna R Millar Timothy J Sandoval Robert Paul Seesengood Ken Stone Brian James Tipton Arthur W Walker Jones and Jaime L Waters showcase the breadth and depth of inquiry that animal studies can foster in biblical studies as well as what animal studies can gain from a more rigorous engagement with biblical texts Together the essays offer an animal hermeneutic that supports the flourishing of all creatures

How to Listen to a Sermon Donald L. Berry, 2010-12-02 After exploring several aspects of the craft of homily How to Listen to a Sermon explains how listening to a sermon is different from attending to other forms of public address This view presupposes a distinctive understanding of the sermon or preaching event and this is illustrated by two homiletical assemblies for ordinary time and for extraordinary times These sermons exemplify the author's concern that public religious speech be done with care and with scholarly attention to biblical texts These anthologies are framed autobiographically with Honoring the Gospel at the beginning and with Living an Epiphany at the end God, Freedom, and the Body of Christ Alexander J. D. Irving, 2020-10-13 A contribution to the end of the Church knowing itself as the body of Christ Irving articulates a theology of the Church as that which participates in all that Jesus is in his vicarious humanity by the power of the Spirit This is developed through a dialogical or covenantal frame that has its focal point in Christ in whom the faithful love of God toward creation and the faithful love of creation toward God is actualized The Church as the body of Christ participates in the mediatorial work of Jesus Christ Each chapter explores a different element of this participatory ecclesiology This book offers a constructive ecclesiology built from the ground up on the foundation of a dialogical perspective which has participation in Christ as its controlling center This foundation provides the basis upon which an exhilarating vision of the Church can be built to encourage Christians to cherish the Church as the body of Christ which participates in the triune communion through being included into the Son by the power of the Spirit and comes to reflect the triune God in its own structures Millennial dawn [by C.T. Russell]. Charles Theodore Russell, 1886 Millennial Dawn Charles Taze Russell, 1886 Spiritual Exercises Based on Paul's Epistle to the Romans Joseph A. Fitzmyer, 2004 Paul's letter to the Romans is often regarded as the most profoundly doctrinal book in the Bible While not overlooking its complex theology Joseph Fitzmyer here shows Romans to be also a wellspring of devotional insight accessible and deeply rewarding to all Christians In this book Fitzmyer recasts the text of Romans into the form of meditations for devotional reflection in spiritual retreats Bible studies church classrooms small groups and other prayerful gatherings Styled after the famous Spiritual Exercises of St Ignatius Loyola the book includes twenty four meditations that can be divided in a variety of ways and fit to a range of reading schedules Accompanying each meditation are questions to encourage reflection on the passage of Romans being considered and also a colloquy in the form of a psalm or New Testament hymn that matches the sentiment of the Pauline passage A truly fulfilling approach to spirituality Fitzmyer s Spiritual Exercises demonstrates the role of Scripture in properly ordering the Christian life
