Memory, Narrativity, Self and the Challenge to Think God Maureen Junker-Kenny,Peter Kenny,2004 As the first book in English to treat the most recent as yet untranslated stage of Paul Ricoeur s work the topical themes of memory and forgiveness as they relate to his theory of self and to the question of God this publication offers an overview of the fruitfulness of his categories for different theological disciplines by experts from different cultural contexts North America Britain Germany and Scandinavia Paul Ricoeur s own article on forgiveness as a dimension opened up from beyond human powers and his contributions to the discussion of his work document a new stage of interaction with Theology The Hidden Power of Electronic Culture Shane Hipps,2005 The Hidden Power of Electronic Culture helps the church navigate its challenges and opportunities in the context of our electronic culture Shane Hipps interprets and explains this culture and the implications for our faith and the church This book invites us to engage new cultural realities while staying connected to our spiritual heritage God's Revelation of the Lamb H. Dave Derkson,2021-11-30 John s 3 16 states For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life The next verse declares For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world but that the world through Him might be saved John 3 17 Both of these statements are the absolute truth and the Book of Revelation confirms it God s Revelation given to John shows how the Lamb brings that truth into the reality of our world Modern day theologians argue that the seven horns of this symbolic Lamb presents him as the judge and prosecutor of sin and the sinners of the world However this is a distortion of the text There is no scripture in the entire Bible where a secondary symbol transforms a primary symbol The Lamb is shown as the primary symbol in Revelation and that Lamb is repeatedly designated as humanity's redeemer God, Revelation and Authority: God Who Stands and Stays (Vol. 6) Carl F. H. Henry, 1999-01-25 Part 6 in a monumental six volume set that presents an undeniable case for the revealed authority of God to a generation that has forgotten who he is and what he has done ser. 1 God's revelation of heaven [and other sermons]. ser. 2 Christ's judgement respecting inheritance [and other sermons]. ser. 3 The tongue [and other sermons] Frederick William Robertson, 1873 Missionary Review of the World, 1920 Shaking the Fundamentals Jan van Lin, 2016-08-09 The issue central to this study can be considered one of the most pressing facing the World Council of Churches today and in the decades to come and is much greater than that which confronted the International Mission Council in the years 1910 to 1938 The question answered in this study is what significance can the theology of religions as it developed between 1910 Edinburgh and 1938 Tambaram have for present day endeavours to develop a more common understanding and vision within the ecumenical movement as regards the theological problem of religious plurality This significance becomes clear in the conclusions and suggestions in the final chapter One of these conclusions is that classic Trinitarian theology and Pneumatology will be incapable of drawing the theology of religions out of the present impasse as long as traditional Christological models continue to exist within them A commemoration of the Edinburgh meeting will undoubtedly be organized in 2010 and in view of this commemoration Dr van Lin suggests considering the possibility of starting a process of reflection on the World Council of Churches theology of religions similar to those on Baptism Eucharist and Ministry and Towards the Common Expression of the Apostolic Faith Today Given the fact that the study of religious plurality shakes the ecumenical movement to its foundations within the foreseeable futures serious thought has to be given to placing the study of the theology of religions on the agenda of Faith and Order within the World Council of Churches What is God's Revelation? Ramin Pourfarzib, 2024-04-02 History is full of people who have claimed they came from God or bore messages from God such as Confucius Buddha Bahauallah Muhammed Jesus and many others Buddhists believe in the wheel of reincarnation to reach nirvana or nothingness Hindus believe God reveals Himself through various avatars Muslims believe Muhammed is the final prophet and Jesus is not the Son of God Orthodox Jews deny Jesus as the Messiah Christians believe Jesus fulfilled the Messianic prophecies and is the Son of God Atheists deny God's existence altogether These belief systems cannot all be true so how can we know who is telling the truth Promoting religious literacy is crucial to addressing the devastating impact of false religions Religious literacy enables individuals to critically evaluate different belief systems recognize the signs of manipulation and differentiate between genuine spiritual teachings and false ideologies Find out how to determine whether there is a God and which faith is telling the truth in this book which applies a litmus test to seek God's revelation to humanity through His prophets and prophecies      For a Better Worldliness Brant M. Himes, 2018-09-27 For a Better Worldliness is not only a statement of Abraham Kuyper's and Dietrich Bonhoeffer's theological concept and historical practice of discipleship. It is also and perhaps more importantly a call to engage in the fullness of the Christian life here and now. While this book goes to great efforts to establish sound historical and theological insights specifically in regards to Kuyper and Bonhoeffer, there is a strong underlying current that these particular insights deeply matter to the life of discipleship in the world today. History shows us that discipleship is not a singular journey because of Jesus Christ; it is not a description of one set path with one set of guidelines. A disciple can be a prime minister who unabashedly and successfully campaigned on his Calvinistic principles just as he can be a participant in a coup d'état launched against a tyrant leading to the disciple's own imprisonment and death. Jesus Christ calls whether to the height of political office or to the dank prison cell or more likely for us to somewhere in between.      Expositor and Current Anecdotes, 1907      The Gospel Trumpet, 1914

Saving the Earth? E. M. Conradie, 2013 Christians seeking to save the Earth have to relate creation to salvation by doing justice to both themes. This study explores the ambiguous legacy of the ways in which this challenge has been approached in the reformed tradition of Swiss-Dutch and German origins and in the reception of this tradition in South Africa. The book focuses on the diverging interpretations of the category of re-creation in this regard. Series: Studies in Religion and the Environment. Studien zur Religion und Umwelt Vol. 8.      Understanding Bonhoeffer Peter Frick, 2017-05-23 How are we to understand Bonhoeffer? In these essays Peter Frick attempts to answer this question by examining different aspects of Bonhoeffer's thought thus illuminating the hermeneutical, philosophical, theological and social dimensions of his writings. All sixteen essays collected here were written between 2007 and 2014; some of them address the question of methodology, others contribute to Bonhoeffer's intellectual formation and still others seek to connect with contemporary questions. The aim of the volume is to present Bonhoeffer's key theological and philosophical ideas and to emphasize their contemporary relevance.

On Animals David L. Clough, 2012-02-02 This volume is a project in systematic theology: a rigorous engagement with the Christian tradition in relation to animals under the doctrinal headings of creation, reconciliation and redemption and in dialogue with the Bible and theological voices central to the tradition. The book shows that such engagement with the tradition with the question of the animal in mind produces surprising answers that challenge modern anthropocentric assumptions. For the most part, therefore, the novelty of the project lies in the questions raised rather than the proposal of innovative answers to it. The transformation in our thinking about animals for which the book argues results in the main from looking squarely for the first time at the sum of what we are already committed to believing about other animals and their place in God's creation.      Leaves of Healing, 1928      Led by the Spirit Mohan Doss, 2008      God, Revelation and Authority: God Who Speaks and Shows (Vol. 2) Carl F. H. Henry, 1999-01-25 Part 2 in a monumental six-volume set that presents an undeniable case for the revealed authority of God to a generation that has forgotten who he is and what he has done     Bonhoeffer: A Guide for the Perplexed Joel Lawrence, 2010-03-04 Joel Lawrence offers a new methodology and a fresh perspective in this book making it a concise guide to one of the most remarkable martyrs and theologians of the 20th century
