Clanton, Jr.,2009-04-01 Stories of women in the Bible have been interpreted by artists writers musicians filmmakers and biblical commentators for centuries. However, in many cases, these later interpreters have often adapted and altered the Bible to fit their own views of the stories. Ironically, these later renderings usually serve as the basis for the generally accepted views of biblical women. For example, many readers of the Bible assume that Eve is to blame for the disobedient act in the Garden of Eden or that Delilah seduced Samson and then cut his hair. A closer look at these assumptions, though, reveals that they are not based on the Bible but are mediated through the creations of later interpreters. In this book, the author examines eight such women's stories and shows how later readers interact with the biblical stories to construct, sometimes fanciful, sometimes faulty, views of these women. Dan Clanton Jr. broadens our awareness of the influence of these later readings on how we understand biblical women so that we can be more critical in our engagement with them and become more familiar with what the Bible actually says about the women whose stories it contains.

Prophet Muhammad (Peace Be Upon Him) in the Bible Dr. S.M. Mohiuddin Habibi, Syed Ahsan Habibi, 2016-05-13

The greatest hope of all the religious groups that awaited for scores of centuries with a dogma of their own Holy Books, which witnessed the glory and the majesty of that personality called as Muhammad and Ahmad, the Glorious and the Praised, on whom be peace and lasting blessings, which certainly got fulfilled when he finally arrived on the stage of the history. The Scriptures of the Prophets that went before him ended their tasks by heralding the tidings of his coming. Despite the textual corruption of those ancient scriptures, the golden sayings were still preserved by ALLAH, the One True God, as a signpost for the honest and noble readers. The seekers of truth, be certain of the fact that Prophet Muhammad, Peace Be Upon Him, was the promised Prophet and the awaited saviour whom the Jews called as the King Messiah. His coming was prophesied by all the Prophets like Moses and Jesus, Peace Be Upon Them, long before his arrival, and he was also mentioned in the Old and New Testaments. Likewise, the Far East Indian scriptures never failed to mention his name and praises, which certainly constitute a miracle pertaining to him and confirming his Prophethood. In the light of the above facts, how could a man of wisdom escape from this overwhelming thought? Or will he still deny this truth? Or will he still await and hope that from Heaven angels would come and guide him when the final Message has already been delivered by Muhammadur Rasul, ALLAH, to the creation of ALLAH, in general, on whom be peace and lasting blessings. Indeed, it is ALLAH, the Lord of the worlds, Who Himself calls on us to acknowledge this truth in the Holy Quran: O mankind, The Messenger Muhammad, on whom be peace and lasting blessings, hath come unto you with the Truth from your Lord. Therefore, believe it is better for you. But if ye disbelieve, still lo! Unto ALLAH belongeth whatsoever is in the heavens and the earth. ALLAH is ever Knower, Wise. 4:170
