Love And Death In Renaissance Italy:

Love and Death in Renaissance Italy Thomas V. Cohen, 2010-01-15 Gratuitous sex Graphic violence Lies revenge and murder Before there was digital cable or reality television there was Renaissance Italy and the courts in which Italian magistrates meted out justice to the vicious and the villainous the scabrous and the scandalous Love and Death in Renaissance Italy retells six piquant episodes from the Italian court just after 1550 as the Renaissance gave way to an era of Catholic reformation Each of the chapters in this history chronicles a domestic drama around which the lives of ordinary Romans are suddenly and violently altered You might read the gruesome murder that opens the book when an Italian noble takes revenge on his wife and her bastard lover as he catches them in delicto flagrante as straight from the pages of Boccaccio But this tale like the other stories Cohen recalls here is true and its recounting in this scintillating work is based on assiduous research in court proceedings kept in the state archives in Rome Love and Death in Renaissance Italy contains stories of a forbidden love for an orphan nun of brothers who cruelly exact a will from their dying teenage sister and of a malicious papal prosecutor who not only rapes a band of sisters but turns their shambling father into a pimp Cohen retells each cruel episode with a blend of sly wit and warm sympathy and then wraps his tales in ruminations on their lessons both for the history of their own time and for historians writing today What results is a book at once poignant and painfully human as well as deliciously entertaining topic about which he felt deeply is that of passionate fated human love and its relationship to death on the one hand the love of God on the other During the years 1936 1948 he composed five cycles of vocal music to his own texts as well as the Turangala Symphony the monumental centerpiece of his Tristan Trilogy The focus of this study is the in depth analysis and interpretation of these six works on love with particular regard for their unusual wealth of poetic sonic and visual colors and imagery The wonder of rainbows the magic of exotic sounds the fantastic attractiveness of surrealist representations and the majestic inexorability of fate in myths of various times and cultures define Messiaens lyrics as much as his idiosyncratic highly symbolic musical language which never fails to build bridges between this and another world

Being the Nação in the Eternal City James William Nelson Novoa, 2014-12-28 James William Nelson Novoa's new book Being the Nação in the Eternal City explores in a set of case studies focusing on seven carefully chosen figures the presence of Portuguese individuals of Jewish origin in Rome after the initial creation of a tribunal of the Portuguese Inquisition in 1531 The book delves into the varied ways in which the protagonists representing a cross section of Portuguese society went about grappling with the complexities of a New Christian identity and tracks them through their interactions with Roman society and its institutions Some chose to flaunt Jewish origins They espoused a sense of being part of a distinctive group the Portuguese New Christian nação that set them apart from other Portuguese Others chose to blend as much as possible into the broader Iberian world represented at Rome and avoided calling attention to their family past All however had in their own way to work out the multiple shades of what was involved in being a Portuguese with Jewish roots needing to navigate the social and cultural pathways through Rome the urban center of the Catholic Church The book draws on archival research conducted in the Vatican elsewhere in Italy in Spain and in Portugal It brings a variety of sources to bear on the complex phenomenon of emergent group identities It also proposes a critical reflexion on diasporas the formation of sub national communities and on the structuring of collective memory in Early Modern Europe The work will be useful to scholars and general readers interested in the Portuguese New Christian diaspora in sixteenth century Rome and in the dynamics of community consciousness in Early Modern Europe
