with an introduction by animal advocate Chelsea Clinton is a must for every family school and community library The Extinction Market Vanda Felbab Brown, 2017-11-15 Emphasizes the disturbing consequences poaching and trafficking pose globally in terms of both biodiversity and public health Transnational Organized Crime and Natural Resources Trafficking Donald R. Liddick Jr., 2019-12-31 This book describes and analyzes conflict commodities which the author defines as high value commodities trafficked in by networks of transnational criminals who use the illicitly derived proceeds to finance armed conflict and loot natural resource wealth from national treasuries Each chapter examines a different commodity or set of commodities that have become the province of transnational organized crime networks diamonds ivory rhino horn timber lapis lazuli jade rare minerals gold and oil receive scholarly analyses across multiple dimensions including the structure and operation of criminal networks the social and environmental consequences of the various conflict commodities trades and the full range of palliative responses The book provides coverage of all the players involved from high ranking government officials to insurgent groups and terrorists The work also enumerates the array of human rights abuses associated with the traffic in conflict commodities Translating Cultures in Search of Human Universals Ikram Ahmed Elsherif, 2021-01-11 Informed by the anthropological research of Professor Donald E Brown on human universals this book compiles 10 articles exploring the representation of common human cultural practices and concerns in literature cinema and language The book as a whole demonstrates not only that Brown's human universals are shared by different cultures but most importantly that they have the potential to form a basis for inter and intra cultural communication and consolidation bridging gaps of misinformation and miscommunication both spatial and temporal The contributors are Egyptian scholars who cross temporal and spatial boundaries and borders from Africa and the Middle East to Asia Europe and the Americas and dive deep into the heart of the shared human universals of myth folklore and rituals dreams trauma cultural beliefs search for identity language translation and communication They bring their own unique perspectives to the investigation of how shared human practices and concerns seep through the porous boundaries of different cultures and into a variety of creative and practical genres of fiction drama autobiography cinema and media translation Their research is interdisciplinary informed by anthropological social psychological linguistic and cultural theory and thus offers a multi faceted and multi layered view of the human experience Poached Rachel Love Nuwer, 2025-04-08 An intrepid investigation of the criminal world of wildlife trafficking the poachers the traders and the customers and of those fighting against it Journalist Rachel Nuwer plunges the reader into the underground of global wildlife trafficking a topic she has been investigating for nearly a decade Our insatiable demand for animals for jewelry pets medicine meat trophies and fur is driving a worldwide poaching epidemic threatening the continued existence of countless species Illegal wildlife trade now ranks among the largest contraband industries in the world yet compared to drug arms or human trafficking the wildlife crisis has received scant attention and support leaving it up to passionate individuals fighting on the ground to try to ensure that elephants tigers rhinos and more are still around for future generations As Reefer Madness Schlosser took us into the drug market or Susan Orlean descended into the swampy obsessions of The Orchid Thief Nuwer an award winning science journalist with a background in ecology takes readers on a narrative journey to the front lines of the trade to killing fields in Africa traditional medicine black markets in China and wild meat restaurants in Vietnam Through exhaustive first hand reporting that took her to ten countries Nuwer explores the forces currently driving demand for animals and their parts the toll that demand is extracting on species across the planet and the conservationists rangers and activists who believe it is not too late to stop the impending extinctions More than a depressing list of statistics Poached is the story of the people who believe this is a battle that can be won that our animals are not beyond salvation Securing Wilderness Landscapes in South Africa Harry Wels,2015-05-12 Private wildlife conservation is booming business in South Africa Nick Steele stood at the cradle of this development in the politically turbulent 1970s and 1980s by stimulating farmers in Natal now KwaZulu Natal to pool resources in order to restore wilderness landscapes but at the same time improve their security situation in cooperative conservancy structures His involvement in Operation Rhino in the 1960s and subsequent networks to save the rhino from extinction brought him into controversial military oriented networks around the Western world The author s unique access to his private diaries paints a personal picture of this controversial conservationist
