Mohamad, Abdullah Ahmad (Datuk.), 2011 Dr. Mahathir's Selected Letters to World Leaders Mahathir bin Mohamad, 2008 The seventy one letters by Dr Mahathir Bush Chirac Blair Thatcher and Prince Charles among others are unique as they interpret and argue their contrasting positions on terrorism globalisation economic and diplomatic relations and war and conflicts The correspondence presents a less than ideal world for the reader to inhabit Their correspondence was transparent solid informative and sometimes strong The memories they and their words leave behind are always startling Dr Mahathir writes directly in his own recognisable voice and style a unique correspondence by a remarkable Malaysian former prime minister An excellent book to be enjoyed on many different levels by all who love politics diplomacy and international relations Never before published these letters are written in a clear and easy to understand style

Mahathir's Islam Sven Schottmann, 2018-09-30 Mahathir Mohamad's legacy as Malaysia's longest serving prime minister 1981 2003 is deeply controversial His engagement with Islam the religion of just over half Malaysia's population has often been dismissed as partisan maneuvering Yet his willingness to countenance a more prominent place for Islam in government and society is what distinguished him from other modernist politicians and his instinct to set Malaysian politics against the backdrop of the wider Muslim world was politically astute Author Sven Schottmann argues that Mahathir's transformative effect on Malaysia can only be fully appreciated if we also take him seriously as one of the postcolonial Muslim world's most significant political thought leaders Schottmann sees Mahathir's representations of Islam as a relatively coherent discourse that can legitimately be described as Mahathir's Islam This discourse contains Mahathir's assessment of the economic political and sociocultural problems facing the contemporary Muslim world and the range of solutions and corrective measures that he proposed Muslims should adopt His ideas are fraught with flaws and contradictions On the one hand he emphasized the individualistic egalitarian pluralistic democratic and dynamic qualities of Islam On the other his government enacted legislation and acquiesced in the activities of religious bodies that curtailed religious freedoms of both Muslims and non Muslims His ideas contributed to Malaysia s worsening state of interethnic relations yet his insistence that every Muslim had the right to speak for Islam may have paradoxically prepared the ground for a future democratization of Malaysian politics Mahathir s Islam is based on rigorous analysis of Mahathir s speeches interviews and writings which the author is able to link to parallel processes elsewhere in the Muslim world Indonesia the Middle East Pakistan Turkey and diaspora communities in the West Mahathir s Islamic discourse Schottmann suggests must be read against the wider late twentieth century resurgence of religion in general and the post 1970s Islamic revival in particular Balanced in approach and engagingly written this book will be of interest to scholars and students of political science religious studies and others interested in Malaysia Southeast Asia or Mahathir himself

Malaysia's Foreign Policy Johan Saravanamuttu, 2010 This book captures Malaysia's foreign policy over the first fifty years and beyond since the date of the country's formal independence in 1957 The author provides macro historical narratives of foreign policy practices and outcomes over distinct time periods under the tenures of the five prime ministers One chapter delves into relations with immediate neighbouring states and another chapter analyses the political economy of foreign policy A postscript deals with the transition of foreign policy beyond the fifth decade The concluding chapter suggests that Malaysian middlepowermanship has been in the making in foreign policy practice being particularly evident since the Mahathir years Employing a critical constructivist approach throughout the study the author posits that foreign policy should be appreciated as outcomes of socio political economic processes embedded within a Malaysian political culture In terms of broad policy orientations Malaysian foreign policy over five decades has navigated over the terrains of neutralism regionalism globalization and Islamism However the critical engagement of civil society in foreign policy construction remains a formidable challenge
