Muslim-Christian Polemics in Safavid Iran Tiburcio Alberto Tiburcio, 2020-05-28. This book explores the history of Muslim-Christian theological exchanges in Iran during the 17th and early 18th centuries. Focused on the work of the renegade missionary Ali Quli Jadid al-Islam d. 1734, it contributes to ongoing debates on the nature of confessionalism, interreligious encounters and cultural translation in early modern Muslim empires. By disentangling the connections between polemics and other forms of Islamic learning and by emphasizing the Shi'i character of the case in question, this study accounts for the dynamism of polemics as an ever-evolving genre capable to adapt to different historical contexts.

TRAGEDY OF FATIMA DAUGHTER OF PROPHET MUHAMMED Yasin T. al-Jibouri, 2013-10-24. Fatima, daughter of the Prophet of Islam, did not enjoy this life for long and passed away only few days after the demise of her father. She was not sick; rather, grief and sorrow snatched his soul away. This book sheds light on certain historic circumstances as well as on the individuals who were bitter enemies of her husband, Ali ibn Abu Talib, and who were jealous of his merits and accomplishments. The author wrote this book initially in response to another written by someone who cast doubts about certain very serious and shameful facts which the author of this book details. He cites numerous references more than three hundred and fifty written by historians and biographers from both branches of the Islamic faith and throughout the Islamic history. One who reads this book with an open mind will conclude that Fatima died prematurely and that ironically those who were responsible for her early death have since the very first Islamic century been glorified by the vast majority of the Muslims that even the whereabouts of her grave remain unknown something which she herself desired and planned. Who were those people? Why did they disrespect the Head of the Women of the World, the mother of the two masters of the youths of Paradise and wife of the Prophet's right hand, the people who even confiscated her inheritance from her revered father? This book answers all these questions and many more.

The Shi'a of Samarra Imranali Panjwani, 2012-01-30. The assault on Samarra which was built in the period of the Abbasid caliphate in the ninth century CE therefore came to represent for many a symbol of the destructive civil conflict which engulfed Iraq following the 2003 US led invasion. The Shi'a of Samarra explores and analyses the cultural architectural and political heritage of the Shi'a in both Samarra and the Middle East thus highlighting how this city functions as a microcosm for the contentious issues and debates which remain at the forefront of efforts to rebuild the modern Iraqi state. Its examination of the socio-political context of the Shi'a-Sunni divide provides important insights for students and researchers working on the history and politics of Iraq and the Middle East as well as those interested in the art and architecture of the Islamic world.

Divine Manifestations: Concerning the Secrets of the Perfecting Sciences Mulla Sadra Shirazi, 2010-01-01. Divine Manifestations is the first English translation of Mulla Sadra Shirazi's final work on divine metaphysics. Written at the request of his students who wanted a concise and accessible summary of his philosophy, Divine Manifestations exemplifies the rational theology Mulla Sadra is famed for. In Divine Manifestations Mulla Sadra addresses the most gripping topics in Islamic theology in a thoroughly thought-provoking manner. This work represents Mulla Sadra's ultimate metaphysical perspective; it is interwoven with his innovative Qur'anic interpretation and is replete with commentary on and indirect criticism of the orthodox theology of his day. Combining both scriptural and philosophical reasoning, Mulla Sadra discusses the existence of God, His attributes, His acts, the Resurrection, and the nature of the non-material worlds. Divine Manifestations is a valuable work for anyone interested in reading Mulla Sadra's argument for the harmony between philosophy, theology, and religion.

Shining Sun: In Memory of 'Allamah Tabataba'i Sayyid Muhammad Husayn Husayni Tihirani, 2011-01-01. Shining Sun is a tribute to the life and thought of the renowned Islamic scholar Sayyid Muhammad Husayn Tabataba'i written soon after his death by one of his students. Shining Sun includes an overview of Tabataba'i's life and transcriptions of discussions between Tabataba'i and his students. These discussions cover history, philosophy, mysticism, theology, and the Qur'an. Sayyid Muhammad Husayn Tabataba'i (1902-1981) commonly referred to as the most learned Allamah was a prominent Muslim scholar who breathed new life into the Shi'a seminaries by establishing courses on the interpretation of the Qur'an and by introducing a novel method of Qur'anic interpretation. He was a master of Islamic philosophy and a model of spirituality. Allamah Tabataba'i is undoubtedly the major Shi'a thinker of modern times and his impact on Persian philosophy and theology is incomparable. Anyone who approaches his work is bound to be impressed by it and the fertility of his thought can be seen in the considerable contributions that his many students have continued to make to Islamic philosophy. It is wonderful to see the Persian tradition of respecting great personalities in writing continuing in modern times. Oliver Leaman, University of Kentucky, USA

Shame, Modesty, and Honor in Islam Ayang Utriza Yakin, Adis Duderija, An Van Raemdonck, 2023-12-28. With a particular emphasis on definitions, continuities, and change, this edited volume examines the historical role and function of haya or feelings of shame, modesty, and honor in Islamic theology and law, and explores contemporary Muslims' engagements with the concept. The book explores various conceptions of haya and the practices associated with the concept in both Muslim majority and minority contexts. The empirically rich contributions reveal how haya is socially constructed in varying social and cultural environments across the globe. From medieval Islam to the modern day, this book demonstrates the importance of haya and its temporal and spatial transformations.

Education beyond Europe Cristiano Casalini, Edward Choi, Ayenachew A. Woldegiyorgis, 2021-02-15. The focus of this volume is on illuminating how local educational traditions developed in particular contexts around the world before or during the encounter with European early modern culture. In this vein, this volume breaks from the common narrative of educational historiography privileging the imposition of European structures and its consequences on local educational traditions. Such a narrative lends to historiographical prejudice that fosters a distorted image of indigenous educational cultures as historyless, as if history was brought to them merely through the influence of European models. Fifteen multi-disciplinary scholars globally have contributed with surveys and perspectives on the history of local traditions in countries from around the globe before their own modernities. Contributors include Guochang Shen, Yongyan Wang, Xia Shen, Ga-tan Rappo, Sunghwan Hwang, Jan S. Aritonang, Mere Skerrett, Saiyid Zaheer Husain, Jafri Zackery M. Heern, Judith Francis Zeitlin, Layla Jorge Teixeira, Cesar Mustafa Gündüz, Igor Fedyukin, Edit Szegedi Inese Runce, Sigurður Gylfi Magnússon, and Davíðlafsson.

Apocalyptic Time Albert I. Baumgartner, 2018-11-13

Millennial movements are characterized by their nature and perception of time and the ways in which these groups confront inevitable disappointment and then return to normal time. This is the theme for the book Apocalyptic Time. The volume consists of revised essays based on presentations made at an international conference devoted to that theme. Authors adopt a number of disciplinary approaches to the topic, analyzing millennial movements from the three Abrahamic faiths as well as from the East. This book will be of particular interest to students of millennial movements who wish to benefit from the comprehensive and comparative view it gives of the phenomenon based on a wide variety of cases. This work greatly contributes to the theory of millennialism by supplying specific data and theoretical reflection.
