Making It Happen The Autobiography:

Making it Happen Carl Hester, Bernadette Hewitt, 2014-05-08 Carl Hester is one of the greatest ever equestrians leading Great Britain to Gold Medal victory at the London 2012 Olympics In these vibrant memoirs he tells the incredible story of the passion for horse riding which revolutionised his life and made him the champion he is today Carl grew up on the remote Channel Island of Sark moving to the UK mainland at the age of 16 to work with horses mainly as a way to leave home He could never have predicted what a great affinity he would have for dressage Carl's career enjoyed a stratospheric rise as he progressed from working as a groom rider to riding international dressage horses full time for renowned owners Dr and Mrs Bechtolsheimer to training his own horses and other top riders to international success Carl's early career revealed someone capable of monumental achievements He provides a rare insight into both the people and the horses that drove him to victory initially the skewbald mare Jolly Dolly on which he won the 1985 Young Riders Dressage Championship During the early 1990s he rode in the World Championships the European Championships and the 1992 Barcelona Olympics becoming Great Britain's youngest ever rider to compete in the Games His riding skills have increased with age culminating in the hugely successful years as part of the Gold Medal teams that won the 2011 European Dressage Championships and of course that made history at London 2012 He achieved both feats on the same extraordinary horse Uthopia while as a trainer he produced the even more remarkable combination of Charlotte Dujardin and Valegro A first class sportsman and a witty and engaging writer Carl now offers his admirers the opportunity to read an intelligent humorous and above all inspiring account of his life from the ups and downs of his career to the motivations and techniques which have helped him to win 66 national titles represent Team GB at four Olympic Games two World Championships and seven European Championships and become one of the best riders and horsemen in the world Discovering Genres: Biography & Autobiography, 2008-07 Provides lessons to help students recognize the biography and autobiography genres develop vocabulary learn reading strategies practice writing skills make grammar connections use graphic organizers and assess what they have learned The

Phenomenology of Autobiography Arnaud Schmitt, 2017-05-08 Taking a fresh look at the state of autobiography as a genre The Phenomenology of Autobiography Making it Real takes a deep dive into the experience of the reader Dr Schmitt argues that current trends in the field of life writing have taken the focus away from the text and the initial purpose of autobiography as a means for the author to communicate with a reader and narrate an experience The study puts autobiography back into a communicational context and putting forth the notion that one of the reasons why life writing can so often be aesthetically unsatisfactory or difficult to distinguish from novels is because it should not be considered as a literary genre but as a modality with radically different rules and means of evaluation In other words not only is autobiography radically different from fiction due to its referentiality but first and foremost it should be read differently

Philosophy and Autobiography Christopher Hamilton, 2021-11-13 This book taking its point of departure from Stanley

Cavell's claim that philosophy and autobiography are dimensions of each other aims to explore some of the relations between these forms of reflection first by seeking to develop an outline of a philosophy of autobiography and then by exploring the issue from the side of five autobiographical works. Christopher Hamilton argues in the volume that there are good reasons for thinking that philosophical texts can be considered autobiographical and then turns to discuss the autobiographies of Walter Benjamin, Peter Weiss, Jean Paul Sartre, George Orwell, Edmund Gosse, and Albert Camus. In discussing these works, Hamilton explores how they put into question certain received understandings of what philosophical texts suppose themselves to be doing and also how they themselves constitute philosophical explorations of certain key issues, e.g. the self, death, religious and ethical consciousness, sensuality, the body. Throughout there is an exploration of the ways in which autobiographies help us in thinking about self-knowledge and knowledge of others. A final chapter raises some issues concerning the fact that the five autobiographies discussed here are all texts dealing with childhood.

Interpretive Biography Norman K. Denzin, 1989-09
Interpretive Biography combines one of the oldest techniques in the social sciences and humanities with one of the newest. Bringing in elements of postmodernism and interpretive social science, it re-examines the biographical and autobiographical genres.

The Making of a Sociologist John H. Goldthorpe, 2025-04-14
This book offers a journey through the problems and the progress of the discipline of sociology in the UK and Europe throughout the second half of the twentieth century via an exploration of seven social settings from the life of a now eminent sociologist. It conceptualises the complex relation that exists between being and knowing and between the personal knowledge that comes from lived experience and the essentially impersonal knowledge that any science seeks to pursue. The seven very contrasting settings are described in detail together with reference to some of their leading personalities such as David Glass, Karl Popper, Norbert Elias, Sebastian Sprott, Richard Hoggart, Noel Annan, E. M. Forster, G. Sta. Rehn, Chelly Halsey, Fred Hirsch, and Jürgen Habermas. In each case the author shows how his lived experience within these settings formed a substratum of his sociology and how he navigated the line between personal knowledge as a creative resource and personal knowledge as potential bias using methodological discipline. It will ultimately appeal to those with interests in sociology, philosophy of science, sociological histories, and biographical methods.

Autobiography of Mark Twain Mark Twain, 2012-03-26
The year 2010 marked the 100th anniversary of Mark Twain's death. In celebration of this important milestone and in honor of the cherished tradition of publishing Mark Twain's works, UC Press published Autobiography of Mark Twain Volume 1, the first of a three-volume edition of the complete uncensored autobiography. The book became an immediate bestseller and was hailed as the capstone of the life's work of America's favorite author. This Reader's Edition, a portable paperback in larger type, republishes the text of the hardcover Autobiography in a form that is convenient for the general reader without the editorial explanatory notes. It includes a brief introduction describing the evolution of Mark Twain's ideas about writing his autobiography as well as a chronology of his life and brief family biographies.

Stormfield Edition of the Writings of Mark Twain [pseud.]: Mark Twain's autobiography Mark Twain, 1924

The Autobiography of the Hon. Roger North Roger North, 1887 How to Cope Terrance L. Weber, 2012-01-09 This book is mysterious but it's not a mystery Look for the mysterious spiritual between the lines message God has for you in each story The words and thoughts attempt to help you answer life's puzzling questions about faith children the Bible fellowship holidays missions money prayer and self worth Memoir, Autobiography and Correspondence of Jeremiah Mason Jeremiah Mason, 1917 Into being Lily Dunn, 2025-10-07 The acclaimed author of Sins of My Father shares the secrets of writing a new transformative kind of memoir Into being is an essential guide to writing radical and empowering memoir Drawing on her experience as a memoirist and a teacher of creative writing Lily Dunn presents the ground breaking idea that the craft of memoir itself can offer a form of transformation Dunn demystifies the memoirist's art helping readers to find meaning in raw experience and elevate the personal to the universal She considers compelling questions from why our memories give greater significance to certain events to how we can write honestly without intruding too far into the lives of our loved ones She also explores how writers are extending the memoir form to create something hybrid playful and subversive In an age of social media filled with confessions re inventions and distortions of the self the question of what it means to be an individual is more urgent than ever Into being shows readers how to turn writing memoir into a journey of discovery one that can be shared with the whole world
