African Literacies and Western Oralities? William A. Coppedge, 2021-11-03 How do twenty first century Christians communicate the Bible and their faith in today s mediascape Members of the International Orality Network ION believe that the answer to that paramount question is orality For too long they argue presentations of Christianity have operated on a printed literate register hindering many from receiving and growing in the Christian faith Instead they champion the spoken word and narrative presentations of the gospel message In light of the church s shift to the Global South how have such communication approaches been received by majority world Christians This book explores the responses and reactions of local Ugandan Christians to this oral renaissance The investigation grounded in ethnographic research uncovers the complex relationships between local and international culture brokers all of whom are seeking to establish particular modern identities The research conclusions challenge static Western categorizations and point towards an integrated understanding of communication that appreciates the role of materiality and embodiment in a broader religious socioeconomic discourse as well as taking into account societal anticipations of a flourishing modern African Church This book promises to stimulate dialogue for those concerned about the communication complexities that are facing the global church in the twenty first century Oral Bible Translation and Biblical Performance in Southern Siberia Bronwen Cleaver,2025-08-05 This book is about designing a contextualized performance based on biblical passages translated by oral Bible translation to give oral preference learners in the Republic of Altai the best possible access to Scripture It presents a model for other oral Bible teams to translate and perform biblical texts in culturally relevant ways The work explores key issues the internalization process orally translating non narrative genres extra linguistic exegesis using local poetic features in oral biblical translations creating notes for translation teams and integrating audience responses into the translation A comprehensive literature review covers orality biblical literacy performance criticism functional translation complexity theory multimodality and hospitality theory Research includes interviews with oral Bible translation teams using internalization and studies of Altai epic poetry featuring interviews with Altai epic singers and musicians The book culminates in describing the crafting of an oral presentation based on the Altai epic story genre and its evaluation by local Altai audiences in focus groups This demonstrates how oral Bible translation can effectively engage communities This approach ensures that Scripture is not only translated but also communicated in a manner that resonates deeply with the cultural and oral traditions of the audience making it more accessible and impactful A New Vision, a New Heart, a Renewed Call David Claydon,2005 I Aim to Be That Man Sherrie Willis Brown,2018-07-29 D L Moody once heard Henry Varley say The world has yet to see what God will do with a man fully consecrated to Him Moody was struck to his soul and when the words would not leave him responded By God s help I aim to be that man When God called Avery to follow him as a true disciple Avery knew he must make a similar commitment or remain a mediocre Christian for the rest of his life His surrender and his filling of the Spirit initiated a spiritual life of impact with global results Avery Willis is well known especially within the Southern Baptist denomination for his involvement in movements of God over the past fifty years Avery Willis s obedience to God led him to be a church planter in the United States and to strive for indigenous church planting in Indonesia where he served as a missionary He was a pioneer and leader in spiritual renewal disciple making decentralized theological education global mission partnerships and chronological Bible storying He is a well known author most notably of the MasterLife discipleship materials This biography written memoir style through his own journals letters and newsletters to his intercessors recounts Avery s life journey his spiritual encounters and struggles and the daily habits that Avery demonstrated as a disciple It is less about his greatest moments than the personal daily choices to follow God with all his heart It is the story of a man committed to God s purposes and passion to bring as many people of the world as possible to God s redemptive grace in Jesus regardless of the cost Effective Intercultural Evangelism W. Jay Moon,W. Bud Simon,2021-08-24 We live in a multicultural society but many Christians hesitate to engage those of other faiths about Christianity Exploring evangelism from the perspective of four major worldviews Jay Moon and Bud Simon unpack the intercultural dynamics at hand when sharing the gospel across cultures offering contextual evangelism approaches that are relevant biblical and practical

New and Old Horizons in the Orality Movement Tom Steffen, Cameron D. Armstrong, 2022-02-18 Orality formed us Orality forms us Orality will forever form us Orality is a central theme of our lives In this fast paced world few Christian workers take the time to look back to learn and build on the lessons of the past Wise Christian workers however do not forge ahead into new horizons without first investigating past horizons They understand in this complex world there are too many strong shoulders of the past to be overlooked The dozen practiced researchers contributing to New and Old Horizons in the Orality Movement offer such inquirers wisdom from the past that can boldly and boundlessly improve the future of the modern day orality movement

Connected Learning L. Lynn Thigpen, 2020-04-21 How does the world's oral majority adults with limited formal education ALFE really prefer to learn Few pause long enough to ask those who eschew print The result of scholarly research and prolonged immersion in the Cambodian culture Connected Learning exposes the truth about orality the shame associated with limited formal education the unfortunate misnomer that is orality the place of spirituality grace and hope and the obvious but overlooked learning preferences ALFE have different ways of learning and knowing a different epistemology and culture from print learners even though we all begin alike The choice is not between Ong's orality or literacy but between learning from people or from print Dr Thigpen a veteran cross cultural worker shares remedies for the hegemony and inequities unwittingly fostered by the literate minority In a dominant culture where learning from people is prime how can educators with a preference for print adapt Providing an important tool in the Learning Quadrants diagram Connected Learning advises teaching to the quadrant and calls for seven necessary shifts in teaching Anyone versed in orality will admit these findings have global implications and applications Steffen The reader who heeds will positively impact a huge portion of humanity

Is Hearing Enough?: Don Edwards, 2010-06-27 Is Hearing Enough makes the case for including literacy in evangelism and discipleship efforts in developing nations like India Drawing on over 20 years of cross cultural ministry experience Don Edwards offers an insightful look at literacy's key role in building a strong healthy body of believers Edwards looks at the crippling effects of illiteracy examines Scripture's view of literacy and explains literacy's value as a door opener in communities that are resistant to traditional evangelism The Great Commission commands us to go and make disciples of all nations Likewise we are called to fulfill the Great Compassion Love your neighbor as yourself Both are expressions of Jesus love for people Readers will be challenged to share the gift of literacy as a tangible act of obedience to Jesus two Great commandments Don Edwards first visited India in 1984 The very first morning of that trip on October 31 the Prime Minister of India Indira Gandhi was assassinated From that moment God planted the nation of India in Edwards heart This led to his involvement in church planting efforts with indigenous missions and churches for the last 14 years Edwards has a Doctor of

Ministry degree in Missions and Cross Cultural Studies from Gordon Conwell Theological Seminary and a Masters of Religious Education degree from Grand Rapids Theological Seminary

Mission in the Early Church Edward L. Smither, 2014-04-28 How did Christian missions happen in the early church from AD 100 to 750 Beginning with a brief look at the social political cultural and religious contexts Mission in the Early Church tells the story of early Christian missionaries their methods and their missiology This book explores some of the most prominent themes of mission in early Christianity including suffering evangelism Bible translation contextualization ministry in Word and deed and the church Based on this survey modern readers are invited to a conversation that considers how early Christian mission might inform global mission thought and practice today

John Stott Edward L. Smither, 2023-12-19 Remembered as a pastor Bible teacher writer and ambassador for global mission John Stott 1921 2011 was also an early innovator of encouraging global missional theology Through his involvement in the Lausanne Movement and other global networks he made room at the table for majority world Christians and theologians to speak to matters of developing global theology Through his innovative work with Langham Partners he provided resources for global pastors to be trained in theology and a platform for global theologians to publish their work Ultimately he encouraged global theologians to forge their own theology

Advancing Models of Mission Kenneth Nehrbass, Aminta Arrington, Narry Santos, 2021-09-14 Weighing Approaches to Finish the Task Christians have been reflecting on best practices for as long as they have been engaging in missions Practitioners have developed diverse strategies to promote the spread of the Gospel such as indigenous church planting disciple making movements community development dynamically equivalent Bible translations and chronological Bible storytelling These models began as creative analyses of the mission endeavor in light of the current cultural context As that context shifts it is also important to critically re examine these models Advancing Models of Mission reflects on the missionaries and models of the past and reconsiders current models all with the aim of looking toward the future of evangelical mission This compendium of thirteen essays tackles such timely and difficult questions as How does globalization challenge the 10 40 window model How does hybridity and diaspora change the way we think about people groups and identity formation How does the colonial history in Africa affect believers connection with global evangelism Readers can learn about the contexts of the past that shaped our current missiological models while listening to diverse voices describe how those models are experienced considering our changing realities Through honest analysis of the past few centuries of missionary movement Advancing Models of Mission provides hope for the future

The Return of Oral Hermeneutics Tom Steffen, William Bjoraker, 2020-05-01 Have Western exegetes turned an Eastern book into a Western one Has our fondness for a fixed printed text capable of being analyzed with precision and exactitude blinded us to other hermeneutic possibilities Does God require all people to be able to analyze grammar to interpret Scripture Does God assume all people can interpret Scripture through oral means The authors recognize the effects of centuries of literacy socialization that produced a blind spot in the Western Christian world the neglect by most in the academies agencies and assemblies of the foundational and forceful role orality had on the biblical text and teaching From the inspired spoken word of the prophets including Jesus pre text to the elite literate scribes who painstakingly hand printed the sacred text to post text interpretation and teaching the footprint of orality throughout the entire process is acutely visible to those having the oral aural influenced eyes of the Mediterranean ancients Could oral hermeneutics be the mother of relational theology

Our Stories, His Story Forest Koh Nam Seng, Our Stories His Story Connecting Elderly To The Faith written by Forest Koh Nam Seng collects the stories of numerous individual elderly Chinese Singaporeans who were interviewed across a period of time It explores the barriers and pathways to these interviewees receiving Christ the socio cultural context surrounding their lives and the larger perspective of how this largely overlooked community of believers is being cared for This book provides insight into and explanations about the trends of elderly believers in Singapore and offers suggestions as to how caregivers church leadership the wider Christian community and younger generations can play a part in caring for these elderly believers

A Survey of World Missions Robin Hadaway, 2020-05-01 Robin Hadaway presents a full survey of world missions addressing biblical theological and historical foundations as well as culture context philosophy and missions strategy

Introduction to Global Missions Zane Pratt, M. David Sills, Jeff K. Walters, 2014-07 Comprehensive treatment of the biblical foundation and unique purpose of global missions

Interpreting Scripture across Cultures Will Brooks, 2022-06-17 The refugee that has come to your church the pastor of the immigrant church in your town and you yourself all come before the same Bible even the same verse and walk away with completely different understandings and applications In an increasingly globalized and multicultural world how can we learn to see beyond our own cultural influences understand those of others and learn from each other in order to better understand and apply the word of God How do we stay faithful to the text when our contemporary cultural perspective is so different from the original author s This book will enable you to understand the common pitfalls and dangers related to cross cultural hermeneutics while also equipping you with principles and real life examples for how to interpret Scripture in such situations Additionally given the fact that our world is increasingly digitized and people are less and less likely to read we will consider the issue of oral hermeneutics and how those who can t read or choose not to read can interpret Scripture faithfully
