Making Liturgy Creating Rituals For Worship And Life:

Making Liturgy Dorothea McEwan, 2002 A group of women writers from a variety of traditions share their experiences of creating and using liturgy Part One offers a complete guide to creating your own liturgy Part Two provides a broad selection of liturgies that have been specially written for the seasons of the Christian year or for landmarks in our personal lives The liturgies are readily adaptable to a wide range of occasions but it is the editors hope that in sharing their collection of liturgies you will be encouraged to create your own

Creative Ideas for Pastoral Liturgy: Baptism, Confirmation and Liturgies for the Journey Tessa Wilkinson, Jan Brind, 2009-01-29 Christian initiation takes varying forms in different denominations and for many non churchgoing new parents a christening or some other kind of ceremony is important at this landmark time in their lives Equally many adults seek baptism in the Church of England and the ancient practice of baptism with confirmation at the Easter Vigil is enjoying a revival This volume the third and final volume in the Creative Pastoral Liturgy series offers imaginative ideas and liturgies for all these and many more occasions in the life of a local church which you will not find in official service books These include blessings for a house and a new building thanksgiving liturgies for all who help to run the church services of blessing for those moving away for a student going travelling for a group going on pilgrimage for an ordinand starting training and for someone going to serve overseas As with the companion volumes on marriage and funerals this invaluable resource ensures that the authorised initiation liturgies are celebrated with imagination and creativity so that pastoral support and care is made clearly visible

Creative Ideas for Pastoral Liturgy: Marriage Services and Wedding Blessings Jan Brind, Tessa Wilkinson, 2009-01-06 Arising out of many years practical experience in local parishes and on a diocesan liturgical committee this second volume in a series of three by this creative team of writers will help local churches everywhere make the most of the opportunities presented by couples coming for marriage or a wedding blessing The wedding industry today is driven by consumer choice Churches are uniquely placed to offer real pastoral support at what is often a stressful and expensive time time out to consider what marriage means and imaginative liturgies that can make a wedding truly memorable This book is full of ideas that will help make the experience of getting married in church joyous memorable and meaningful From giving engaged couples Stress busting gift packs to creating personalised wedding ceremonies ideas for church decorating and welcoming couples who have got married in another part of the country or abroad this is a resource brimming with simple and effective ideas

Christian Ritualizing and the Baptismal Process Susan Marie Smith, 2011-11-15 Most people even non Christians know that Christians gather for worship once a week and that they are right there to support each other when there is a baptism or a wedding or a funeral But what about other poignant vulnerable or life changing times How does the church help people handle changes that in the past in Christendom were considered secular Does the church have a role at retirement when one s ministry changes or when a family s children leave home and familiar patterns seem to grind to a halt Is there any rite possible for someone who is called to Christian ministry but not to ordination Or to someone whose vows are broken in divorce Christian Ritualizing and the Baptismal Process asserts that baptism marks the beginning of a process of participation in Christ s ministry so that no part of life can finally be considered secular Susan Marie Smith shows how every passage healing and ministry vocation is holy and she lays the groundwork needed for every church to create the rituals necessary to lament and celebrate the endings and beginnings that happen in every Christian life The Synaptic Gospel Christopher D.

Rodkey,2012-01-06 In this book Christopher D Rodkey asks how the brain worships and responds by engaging ideas from neurological science philosophy ritual theory and religious education From this exploration two new paradigms for pastoral ministry emerge First Rodkey proposes a pan generational principle advocating an empathy based approach for fostering faith communities a principle that is radically inclusive to all generations Second Rodkey argues that worship and religious education should converge to include a shared goal of teaching individuals to live liturgically In The Synaptic Gospel Rodkey argues that living and thinking liturgically are learned behaviors that may be promoted through pan generational worship The book concludes with a special emphasis on practical suggestions for youth ministry The Synaptic Gospel will prove to be a useful theoretical tool for pastors religious educators youth ministers church music professionals and seminary students

New Feminist Christianity Mary E. Hunt,Diann L. Neu,2012-01-01 Powerful insights from ministers theologians activists leaders artists and liturgists who are shaping the future Christianity has been a source of the oppression of women as well as a resource for unleashing women s full humanity Feminist analysis and practice have recognized this Feminist Christianity is reshaping religious institutions and religious life in more holistic inclusive and justice focused ways from the Introduction Feminism has brought many changes to Christian religious practice From inclusive language and imagery about the Divine to an increase in the number of women ministers Christian worship will never be the same Yet even now there is a lack of substantive structural change in many churches and complacency within denominations The contributors to this book are the thought leaders who are shaping and being shaped by the emerging directions of feminist Christianity They speak from across the denominational spectrum and from the many diverse groups that make up the Christian community as it finds its place in a religiously pluralistic world Taken together their voices offer a starting point for building new models of religious life and worship Topics covered include feminist Theological Visions Scriptural Insights Ethical Agendas Liturgical and Artistic Frontiers Ministerial Challenges Creative Ideas for Evening Prayer Jan Brind,Tessa Wilkinson,2005 Other than Evensong or Taize style meditation what else is there for evening prayer Here is a resource that fills this gap to overflowing It offers dozens of simple ready made outlines that are rich with ideas for using visual imagery music light and other symbols with suggestions for getting everyone present actively involved Developed and used over many years in local churches by the authors every idea in this book has been tried and tested The result is an imaginative resource to inspire worship that is simple memorable and beautiful As well as round the year celebrations there are also extra ideas for public occasions such as a time of tragedy or for a peace vigil Wising Up Kathy Black, Heather Murray Elkins, 2010-04-01 Wising Up provides rituals and guidance for women as they age It helps them make the often difficult life transitions wisely and in the context of their faith communities Instead of focusing exclusively on time worn thresholds such as menopause marriage and divorce and dying the book contains affirming rituals on coming to terms with the changes in one s body learning to live with and depend on an item like a walker or a hearing aid giving up one s driver s license deciding how to give away one s household contents and being orphaned In addition to the rituals and guidelines on how to create one s own rituals the book contains a number of short stories hymns prayers quotations and poems to help ease women through the aging process Contributors Susan Beehler Teresa Berger Kathy Black Ruth Duck Heather Murray Elkins Brigitte Enzner Probst Martha Whitmore Hickman Martha Ann Kirk Mary Elizabeth Mullino Moore Susan Roll Deborah Sokolove Linda J Vogel and Janet Walton Worship for the Whole People of God, Second Edition Ruth C. Duck, 2021-02-23 This revised edition of the popular textbook on worship by renowned hymn writer and professor Ruth C Duck provides theological foundations for worship and explores the ways Christians have adapted worship to various cultures to help them live faithfully and to communicate the gospel to others The author celebrates the many languages and cultural settings in which the gospel has been and is preached sung and prayed The goal of this volume is to support good pastoral and congregational reflection on what worship is and does Consequently Duck discusses many different forms of worship from several cultures African American Asian Euro American and offers advice on how to read a congregation and define its culture in order to plan culturally appropriate worship She includes many practical suggestions for preparing and leading worship including diverse ministries of music movement and visual arts that are becoming more popular today From worship s theological underpinnings the book turns to worship leadership forms of prayer preaching the sacraments ordination and various other liturgies Because of its emphasis on vital and Spirit led worship this comprehensive book on Christian worship will be used in years to come not only as a core textbook for seminarians and ministry students from a variety of cultures and traditions but also as a resource for local church pastors and laity who are dedicated to the enlivening of Christian worship In this new edition Duck updates and expands the recommended resources updates the section on worship trends enhances the section on multicultural worship and revises marriage information based on cultural and denominational changes Highlights include stories of four churches that are developing creative ways to grow and meet the possibilities and challenges of these times especially in seeking justice serving people in their neighborhood and building bridges among cultures and religious groups In addition a new appendix by David Gambrell addresses the theological and practical questions surrounding online worship in the context of the Covid 19 pandemic and beyond Seeking the Risen Christa Nicola Slee, 2011-03-17 Art and feminist theology often explore the figure of the feminine side of Christ However the risen Christa has had little if any coverage within these fields Now Seeking the Risen Christa by Nicola Slee uses a well crafted combination of reflection illustration and poetry to investigate the Risen Christ. The discussion revolves around the central narratives of the gospels and the major Christological themes. These subjects are reimagined and revisited from the hypothetical perspective of Christ. Ultimately, Nicola Slee wants Seeking The Risen Christ to represent a search for a risen Christ and therefore encourage readers to develop a freer, unlimited relationship with Christ.

Worship for the Whole People of God Ruth C. Duck, 2013-01-01 This new book on worship by renowned hymn writer and professor Ruth C. Duck provides theological foundations for worship and explores the variety of ways Christians have adapted worship to various cultures to help them live faithfully and to communicate the Gospel to others. The author celebrates the many languages and cultural settings in which the Gospel has been and is preached, sung and prayed. The goal of this volume is to support good pastoral and congregational reflection on what worship is and does. Consequently, Duck discusses many different forms of worship from several cultures: African, American, Asian, Euro-American, and offers advice on how to read a congregation and define its culture in order to plan culturally appropriate worship. Although the book does not offer prescriptive formulas or advise a single pattern of worship, it includes many practical suggestions for preparing and leading worship, including diverse ministries of music, movement and visual arts that are becoming more popular today. From worship's theological underpinnings, the book turns to worship leadership, forms of prayer, preaching, the sacraments, ordination and various liturgies. Because of its emphasis on Spirit-led worship, this comprehensive book on Christian worship will be used for years to come, not only as a core textbook for seminarians and ministry students from a variety of cultures and traditions, but also as a resource for local church pastors and laity who are dedicated to the enlivening of Christian worship.

Making Disciples in a World Parish Paul W. Chilcote, 2011-04-01 In this collection of inspirational and challenging essays, Methodists from around the globe reflect on the practice of disciple-making in their own contexts. From their own perspectives, they address questions like: What are the challenges you face? What biblical images shape your missional practice? What examples of Christian authenticity inspire your communities? What gifts related to mission and evangelism do you offer the global community of faith? Churches on every continent have their own stories of struggle and faithfulness. Indeed, each distinct community within any given region has a voice of its own that deserves to be heard. The voices included in this volume belong to women and men alike. Likewise, they resound with the accents of Africa and Asia, Latin and North America, Europe and Oceania. Each voice is distinct, but all articulate a vision of faith made effective through love. In a world characterized variously by poverty and violence as well as prosperity and peace, the church must reclaim its central mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ. In their effort to articulate a vision of mission and evangelism, the contributors to this volume bear witness to the fact that we can no longer do this work in isolation from one another. To be the ambassadors of the gospel, we need each other and we need to pay attention to the voices that sound different from our own This volume takes a large step in that vital direction Ministry Resources for Prayer and Worship Thomas East,2004 As youth grow in faith they learn to pray always and to pray in all ways Ministry Resources for Prayer and Worship is designed for those who work with and walk with youth in this journey of discipleship The manual includes three sessions for teaching youth to pray and practice praying in different forms The manual includes eleven communal prayer services that can be used on a variety of occasions throughout the year Also contained in the manual are strategies and resources for helping youth communities develop patterns of prayer and for including youth in preparing prayers and liturgies Each manual in the Total Youth Ministry series includes a CD containing its electronic version customizable handouts and theme related links CD System Requirements Intel R Pentium II R processor Microsoft R Windows 98 Second Edition Windows Millennium Edition Windows NT R 4 0 with Service Pack 6 Windows 2000 with Service Pack 2 Windows XP Professional or Home Edition Windows XP Tablet PC Edition 64MB of RAM 128 MB recommended 800 x 600 or higher screen resolution Adobe Reader 6 0 60MB of available hard disk space for installation of Adobe Reader 6 0 Multi read CD ROM drive Internet Explorer 5 01 or 5 5 or Explorer 6 0 or 6 1 Ritual Making Women Jan Berry,2017-07-05 Ritual Making Women looks at the way in which women s making of ritual has emerged from the rapidly developing field of women s spirituality and theology The author uses ethnographic material to explore how the construction of ritual uses story making and embodied action to empower women Ritual far from being a timeless and universal practice is shown to be a contextual and gendered performance in which women subvert conventional distinctions of private and public The book combines narrative and case study material and draws on feminist theology and theory social anthropology and gender studies Women's Rites Diann L. Neu,2003 Neu presents an assortment of new feminist liturgies that celebrate and pay tribute to women s physical spiritual and emotional rites of passage Liturgies include Honoring Women s Blood Mysteries Making Reproductive Choices Creating Community Times of Mourning Going on from Here Reading Religious Ritual with Ricoeur Christina M. Gschwandtner,2021-08-20 Reading Religious Ritual with Ricoeur Between Fragility and Hope creates a dialogue between Ricoeur s hermeneutic philosophy and the interpretation of human ritual practices especially as such practices are manifested within the context of Christian liturgy In the first part of the book Christina M Gschwandtner shows that Ricoeur s account of religion would be deepened if it were to take into account not only the biblical texts but also forms of liturgical expression and ritual actions She challenges Ricoeur s early reading of the symbol and second na vet broadens his interpretation of biblical texts and faith to consider religious actions more fully and suggests that ritual can enhance human capacities The second part of the book employs Ricoeur s hermeneutics in order to shed light on the analysis of liturgy demonstrating that his accounts of truth of the world of the text of religious language of the imagination and of the formation of identity are all eminently applicable to liturgical experience Reading Religious Ritual with Ricoeur shows that one of the most significant themes in Ricoeur s work the tension between fragility and hope is especially helpful for understanding what liturgy does and how it functions Seeing how liturgy and ritual configure fragility and hope also enriches Ricur's account of the role and function of religion in human experience Weep Not for Your Children Lisa Isherwood, Rosemary Radford Ruether, 2016-06-16 Violence remains endemic in today's society Religious morality and social prejudice can lead to many acts of violence going unnoticed Weep Not for Your Children presents a selection of essays that examine the ways in which religion and violence interconnect The presence of violence in the origins of cultural and religious norms is examined The essays cover a wide range of examples of violence from the Holocaust to domestic violence and from the violence created by economic systems to that created by the construction of gender itself Weep Not for Your Children challenges and provokes the reader to think beyond traditional associations of good and evil Doorways to the Sacred Ian Mobsby, Phil Potter, 2017-06-28 Fresh Expressions of Church are key aspect of mission strategy for many denominations in the UK and beyond Here a stellar line up of writers explores the central question of how Fresh Expressions turn from mission projects into authentic forms of church developing a sacramental life of their own Chapters include Lucy Moore on Messy Church and Holy Communion Graham Cray on the sacraments for the unchurched Jonathan Clark on baptism and mission John Drane on seeing the world as sacramental Sue Wallace on the sacramentality of sacred space Reagan Humber pastor at Nadia Bolz Weber's church on liturgy and evangelism Adrian Chatfield on healing Concerns of Women, an Indian Theological Response Indian Theological Association.
