Gastrofascism and Empire Simone Cinotto, 2024-08-08 Food stood at the centre of Mussolini's attempt to occupy Ethiopia and build an Italian Empire in East Africa Seeking to redirect the surplus of Italian rural labor from migration overseas to its own Empire the fascist regime envisioned transforming Ethiopia into Italy's granary to establish self sufficiency demographic expansion and strengthen Italy's international political position While these plans failed the extensive food exchanges and culinary hybridizations between Ethiopian and Italian food cultures thrived and resulted in the creation of an Ethiopian Italian cuisine a taste of Empire at the margins In studying food in short lived Italian East Africa Gastrofascism and Empire breaks significant new ground in our understanding of the workings of empire in the circulation of bodies foodways and global practices of dependence and colonialism as well as the decolonizing practices of indigenous food and African anticolonial resistance In East Africa Fascist Italy brought older imperial models of global food to a hypermodern level in all its political technoscientific environmental and nutritional aspects This larger story of food sovereignty entered in racist mass settler colonialism is dramatically different from the plantation and trade colonialisms of other empires and has never been comprehensively told Using an original decolonizing food studies approach and an unprecedented variety of unexplored Ethiopian and Italian sources Cinotto describes the different meanings of different foods for different people at different points of the imperial food chain Exploring the subjectivities agencies and emotions of Ethiopian and Italian men and women it goes beyond simple colonizer colonized binaries and offers a nuanced picture of lived multisensorial experiences with food

Contemporary Italian Diversity in Critical and Fictional Narratives Ron Kubati, Marie Orton, Graziella Parati, 2021-10-26

Contemporary Italian Diversity in Critical and Fictional Narratives is about identity individual and national and belonging It is also an affirmation of diversity The editors of this volume have brought together articles that analyze the literature of migration as well as creative pieces by recognized authors who have a lived experience of migration English speakers will find their own societal struggles with diversity mirrored in Italy's colonial inheritance and its renewed nationalism populism xenophobia and shifting national identity The artists and scholars who have contributed to this book challenge national discourses dehumanizations and issues of race and gender But many also seek to move beyond the negative and critical to claim belonging especially national belonging in the name of diversity as part of human experience The chapters emphasize how individuals both reflect and enact societal change and they foreground the inescapable fact that human differences and migration drive and shape societal identity in our world     The Semantic Web: ESWC 2011 Workshops Raul
