Between Prohibition and Legalization Ed Leuw,Ineke Haen Marshall,1994 In a period of two decades Dutch drug policy has evolved in partial opposition to the internationally dominant ideology of prohibitionism The normalizing home policy together with the compliance to law enforcement in the international arena make up a rather complicated and ambivalent Dutch position in drug policy The Dutch drug policy is fully in line with the international control practices against wholesale drug trafficking In regards to its social drug policy however it has become a rare dissenter within an increasingly unifying and compelling international drug policy context This book gives an account of the national Dutch drug control strategy

Company Financial Reporting Stephen A Zeff,Frans van der Wel,C. Camfferman,2016-02-05 First published in 1992 Prior to this work no thorough study had been made of the Dutch institutional environment and of the Dutch practice of regulating the process of financial accounting despite a number of unique and influential practices originating there The book attempts to trace the conditions the sources and the connections of the regulatory processes for financial statements providing orientation for readers unfamiliar with the Dutch context and a chronological survey from the 19th century to the early 1990 s In addition to analysing the Dutch process comparison is made with the standard setting processes in the United States and UK The title will be of interest to students of Business and Economics The Rights of the Child and the Changing Image of Childhood Philip E. Veerman, 2021-11-01 In this book Philip E Veerman presents and discusses milestones in the evolution of children s rights as well as the work of a number of important pioneers in this field in order to examine whether the concept of childhood has changed in our century With Samuel Shye s Systemic Quality of Life Model as a conceptual framework and uniform standard more than forty Declarations and Conventions are analysed and compared Veerman thus unfolds an exciting picture of the changing image of childhood starting at the beginning of this century and culminating in the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child of 1989 and the World Summit for Children of 1990 Finally the author proposes together with Samuel Shye a Declaration on the Rights of the Child based on the Systemic Quality of Life Model All the important Declarations and Conventions are reprinted as appendices This makes Veerman s study a complete and up to date textbook on children s right Dr Veerman is the coordinator of the Israel Section of Defence for Children International DCI and Fellow of the Youth Policy Center of Haifa University Jan Van Toorn Rick Poynor, 2008 Jan van Toorn is one of the most significant and influential Dutch graphic designers to have emerged since the early 1960s His designs persistently call attention to their status as visual contrivances obliging the viewer to make an effort to process their complexities Van Toorn wants the public to measure the motives of both the client and the designer who mediates the client s message against their own experiences of the world He hoped in this way to stimulate a more active and skeptical view of art communication media ownership and society Projects such as Van Toorn s posters and catalogues for the Van Abbemuseum in Eindhoven and his long running series of calendars for the printing firm Mart Spruijt are powerful demonstrations of graphic design used as a means of commentary and as a tool of critique Later as director of the Jan van Eyck Academy Van Toorn drew together all the strands of his critical practice into a multi levelled educational initiative that urged designers to think harder about design s role in shaping contemporary reality Annual Report South Africa. Office of the Registrar of Insurance, 1989 Isolated States Deon Geldenhuys, 1990 This book examines a largely neglected phenomenon in the field of international relations the concept of the isolated state Deon Geldenhuys begins by discussing how he measures both voluntary and enforced international isolation by among other things membership of international organizations official visits and international censure He then presents a number of case studies of self isolation The remainder of the study is devoted to an analysis of the enforced isolation of Taiwan Israel Chile and South Africa Using a wealth of statistical material he demonstrates their varying degrees of isolation in the diplomatic military economic and socio cultural arenas of the international community Interpreting Deposits A. J. Nijboer, 2001 Caeculus IV opens with a dedication to professor Marianne Kleibrink on the occasion of her 60th birthday followed by a complete list of her publications The Proceedings of the 4th Fransum Colloquium start with an article of Christopher Smith entitled Ritualising

the Economy He presents a theoretical base for a correlation between ritual and economy Smith outlines some recent theories which incorporate economic activity into ritual context actions into thought or as one could say matter into mind Furthermore he tries to relate this theoretical framework to the archaeological evidence from Latium Vetus the region on which his own research focuses The results from the recent Dutch excavations in Italy at Satricum seem to correspond fairly well with the discussed theories His paper offers therefor a suitable foundation for the following contributions most of which concentrate on central Italy The second contribution by Tsjeard Hoekstra deals with the biography of bronze hoards from Italy Albert Nijboer continues the debate with a discussion of the significant changes in hoarding in central Italy from 800 to 500 BC The fourth paper by Demetrius Waarsenburg and Hendrieneke Maas deals with the bronzes deposited in the early sanctuary at Satricum in Lazio Jelle Bouma discusses the same shrine as the previous authors but during the subsequent period the 5th and 4th centuries BC He presents a report of his excavation of the second votive deposit at the main shrine of Satricum Peter Attema presents in his paper evidence of a recent survey in the area around Sezze ancient Setia The paper by Marjan Galestin discusses Roman coin hoards in the Netherlands The last paper not related to the central topic of this issue is by Patricia Roncoroni who studies children's graves in Latium during the early Iron Age Catalogue Des Publications en Série United Nations Library (Geneva, Switzerland), 2001 Généalogies des rois et chronologie de l'histoire de France Jean-Charles Volkmann, 2001 Government Reports Annual Index, 1989 New Serial Titles, 1997 A union list of serials commencing publication after Dec 31 1949
