Jacques Schader, Architect Freudenberg 1959 Claude Lichtenstein, Marc Schwarz, 2003-08-01 Schools and Kindergartens Mark Dudek, 2015-04-28 As a new generation of educational environments are designed and built this Design Manual illustrates the most up to date educational strategies and how they are realized in built form Concepts such as working with small teams of students interdisciplinary learning and inclusion of SEN students all require specific spatial solutions This specialized field is explained in all its relevant aspects such as role in the community outdoor spaces sustainability and technical requirements such as lighting and acoustics With over 70 case studies from Europe North America and the Pacific Region this is an essential guide for architects involved in the design of schools and kindergartens For the revised edition six groundbreaking new best practice examples were selected such as Primary School Niederheide near Berlin the first plus energy school in Germany the education center Tor zur Welt one of the key projects of building exhibition IBA 2013 in Hamburg and Children's House for All by Maki Onishi and Toyo Ito conceived for use in refugee camps Modernism and the Professional Architecture Journal Torsten Schmiedeknecht, Andrew Peckham, 2018-06-27 The production of this book stems from two of the editors longstanding research interests the representation of architecture in print media and the complex identity of the second phase of modernism in architecture given the role it played in postwar reconstruction in Europe While the history of postwar reconstruction has been increasingly well covered for most European countries research investigating postwar architectural magazines and journals across Europe their role in the discourse and production of the built environment and particularly their inter relationship and differing conceptions of postwar architecture is relatively undeveloped Modernism and the Professional Architecture Journal sounds out this territory in a new collection of essays concerning the second phase of the reception and assimilation of modernism in architecture as it was represented in professional architecture journals during the period of postwar reconstruction 1945 1968 Professional architecture journals are often seen as conduits of established facts and knowledge The role mainstream publications play however in establishing movements trends or debates tends to be undervalued In the context of the complex undertaking of postwar reconstruction the shortage of resources political uncertainty and the biographical complexities of individual architects the chapters on key European architecture journals collected here reveal how modernist architecture and its discourse was perceived and disseminated in different European countries Avery Index to Architectural Periodicals Avery Library, 1973 1977 to present Citations to articles from more than 1 000 periodicals in all Western languages including all major architectural journals published in the U S and Great Britain as well as most South American European and Japanese architecture related periodicals Playfully Rigid Claude Lichtenstein, 2007 Necessity is the mother of invention but therein lies a dilemma What must a society do if it wishes to remain inventive yet defines itself in terms of prosperity not need It must take a particular stance toward prosperity even toward excess Clarity and a systematic approach are parts of this stance as is the designer's ability to endow objects with esprit Ingenuity and clarity are the two poles of a field of tension that produces an impression of ease and authority This book is a collection of Swiss architecture graphics and design from 1950 to the present viewed in terms of this creative polarity BOOK JACKET Birkhäuser Architectural Guide Mercedes Daguerre, Roman Hollenstein, 1997
