New York Times Saturday Book Review Supplement, 1975 Woman of a Thousand Secrets Barbara Wood, 2024-06-04 The Bestselling Author of The Blessing Stone and Daughter of the Sun She came to them from the sea and to the sea they returned her A story of sacrifice and survival in the New World Tonina lives an idyllic life on a small island in the Caribbean hundreds of years before Europeans discovered it But she has always been an outsider among her people Unlike them Tonina is tall and lean and light skinned and her origins remain a mystery Her adoptive parents had found her floating in a basket in the sea a sacrifice A shipwreck No one knows When Tonina turns nineteen her parents know she must return to the sea so that the gods don't become angry with the village for keeping something that is not theirs Under the guise of finding a medicinal plant they send Tonina to the mainland a terrifying place she can't even imagine They know however that they will never see her again And here is where her adventure begins It is a tale of survival and sacrifice of luck magic intrigue and danger romance and betrayal an epic filled with ancient lore tales of bearded white men who sailed to this shore in giant ships and discoveries of medicinal miracles in faraway places But most of all it's the story of one woman's quest to discover where and to whom she really belongs This sweeping story of the undiscovered world before the time of Columbus is Barbara Wood at her very best

Treasures of the Earth Saleem H. Ali, 2009-01-01 Would the world be a better place if human societies were somehow able to curb their desires for material goods Saleem Ali's pioneering book links human wants and needs by providing a natural history of consumption and materialism with scientific detail and humanistic nuance It argues that simply disavowing consumption of materials is not likely to help in planning for a resource scarce future given global inequality development imperatives and our goals for a democratic global society Rather than suppress the creativity and desire to discover that is often embedded in the exploration and production of material goods which he calls the treasure impulse Ali proposes a new environmental paradigm one that accepts our need to consume treasure for cultural and developmental reasons but warns of our concomitant need to conserve In evaluating the impact of treasure consumption on resource rich countries he argues that there is a way to consume responsibly and alleviate global poverty

The Chintamani Crystal Matrix Johndennis Govert, Hapi Hara, 2021-11-23 Examines myths of the chintamani from East and West, including from China, India, and South America, in legends of the Holy Grail and Atlantis, and in Nicholas Roerich's real-life quest for Shambhala. Explains the chintamani matrix, the multidimensional field of light energy and consciousness that forms networks of gems on the etheric and physical levels. Provides simple and advanced practices with crystal grids and meditation to help you access the chintamani matrix and realize your innermost heart's desires. Space, time, intention, matter, and consciousness all entangle in crystals. Nowhere is this more evident than in the ancient gem archetype of the chintamani, the wish-fulfilling jewel known in legends around the world as the stone that grants your heart's desires. As authors Johndennis Govert and Hapi Hara reveal, the chintamani's tachyolitic technology of wish-granting and spiritual enlightenment creates a vehicle for positive transformation. They show how the chintamani energy matrix can be accessed using tangible crystals and gemstones, meditation, yoga, and the powerful science of intention. Exploring the many chintamani myths and legends from East and West, the authors explain how there are three types of chintamani: the mythical gemstone, the power crystals of history such as the Koh-i-Noor diamond, and the multidimensional field of light energy and consciousness that forms a network of all gems in what is known as the jewel net of Indra in Hinduism and Buddhism. Activating this crystal energy matrix provides a way to manifest your intentions and help you create the subtle diamond body. The authors detail specific gems and crystal spiritual technology that can affect material reality and trigger profound spiritual growth. They provide a number of simple practices with crystal grids and meditation to help you access the chintamani matrix and become aware of the interconnected jewel net of consciousness. They examine the science of intention, which provides a basis for connecting to gemstones and crystals, and share advanced meditations to realize and activate your innermost heart's desires.
