Magic and Mystery in Tibet Alexandra David-Neel, 2021-02-25 Born in 1868 to a respectable French family Alexandra David Neel became the most remarkable female travel writer of the Twentieth century David Neel studied at the Sorbonne at a time when women were not allowed to formally matriculate and converted to Buddhism after viewing a statue of the Buddha in the Guimet Museum In 1911 she set off alone to travel around India for the second time and in 1914 she secluded herself in a cave in the Himalayas for two years intensively studying the mysteries of Tibetan Buddhism as well as the mystic legends that surrounded Buddhist monks From 1918 she spent three years in a Buddhist monastery translating texts into French and English By 1924 she had travelled to the forbidden city of Lhasa and returning to France in 1927 began to write recording her extraordinary experiences She died in 1969 101 years old still travelling and an inspiration for a generation that included Jack Kerouac and Allen Ginsberg Magic and Mystery in Tibet like Seven Pillars of Wisdom attempts to bring ancient wisdom into the modern age David Neel records the seemingly magic feats performed by Buddhist monks telepathy tumo breathing the art of generating body heat to keep warm in freezing conditions the ability to run for days at a time the ability to defy gravity and the ability to become invisible As a child David Neel had wanted to search for the unknown and as an adult she went beyond the Western world and into areas unexplained by Western science No other Western writer has ever been so immersed in Tibetan culture and Buddhism and few other books have entranced readers for seventy years Seeker adventurer pilgrim and scholar David Neel was the first European woman to explore the once forbidden city of Lhasa This memoir offers an objective account of the supernatural events she witnessed during the 1920s among the mystics and hermits of Tibet including levitation telepathy and the ability to walk on water Magic and Mystery in Tibet Alexandra David Neel, 2013-10 This is a new release of the original 1932 edition Magic and Mystery in Tibet Alexandra David-Neel, 1967 Magic and Mystery in Tibet Alexandra David-Neel, 2019-09-26 Alexandra David Neel was among the first Westerners to extensively explore Tibet In these memoirs she tells of her encounters there the people and their culture and fervently Buddhist society The author s early years wherein her enthusiasm for travel and curiosity of faraway cultures grew are excluded from these pages Rather we begin with David Neel s first trip to Tibet and her initial impressions of the country The friends she makes and the various officials and Buddhist priests of varying rank and station are recounted vividly As a Western woman David Neel did not always encounter friendliness or tranquility in those she met many were less than welcoming or even hostile to her presence As she was a pioneer in Tibet it is for these explorations that David Neel is most remembered The complex traditions of the Tibetan lamas and how its people existed upon the high plateau of the Himalayas fascinated many in Europe Allowed meetings with religious officials including the 13th Dalai Lama it was only after a decade of exploring the Tibetan culture that David Neel dared to go yet farther by travelling incognito to Lhasa the capital city forbidden to all foreigners A classic memoir known for inspiring the writers and poets of the Beat Generation Magic and Mystery in Tibet is both biography and a great tale of adventure Magic and mystery in Tibet, introd Alexandra David-Néel, Magic and Mystery in Tibet. With an Introd. by A. D'Arsonval Alexandra David-Néel,1937 Magic and Mystery in Tibet, Etc Alexandra David-Néel,1967 Adventures with the Buddha Jeffery Paine,2005 Paine has assembled the adventures of nine Westerners in a book that yields an understanding of Buddhism not by its metaphysics or rituals but through real characters and true stories as dramatic as those in the most imaginative novel Tibetan Magic Cameron Bailey,Aleksandra Wenta,2024-03-07 This book focuses on the theme of magic in Tibetan contexts encompassing both pre modern and modern text cultures as well as contemporary practices It offers a new understanding of the identity and role of magical specialists in both historical and contemporary contexts Combining the theoretical approaches of anthropology ethnography religious and textual studies the book aims to shed light on experiences practices and practitioners that have been frequently marginalized by the normative mainstream monastic Buddhist traditions and Western Buddhist scholarship which focuses primarily on meditation and philosophy The book explores the intersection between magic folk practices and Tantra a complex socio religious phenomenon associated not only with the religious and political elites who sponsored it but also with marginal ethnic groups and social milieus as well as with lay communities at large who resorted to ritual agents to fulfil their worldly needs The Sacred Life of Modernist Literature Allan Kilner-Johnson,2022-06-16 Probing the relationship between modernist literary experimentation and several key strands of occult practice which emerged in Europe from roughly 1894 to 1944 this book sets the work of leading modernist writers alongside lesser known female writers and writers in languages other than English to more fully portray the aesthetic and philosophical connections between modernism and the occult Although the early decades of the twentieth century the era of cocktails motorcars bobbed hair and war are often described as a period of newness and innovation many writers of the time found inspiration and visionary brilliance by turning to the mysterious occult past This book s principle intervention is to reimagine the contours and boundaries of literary modernism by welcoming into the conversation a number of significant female writers and writers in languages other than English who are often still relegated to the fringes of modernist studies Well remembered poets and novelists such as Ezra Pound W B Yeats and Aleister Crowley were tied to occult beliefs and this book sets these leading figures alongside less well remembered but equally splendid modernists including Paul Brunton Mary Butts Alexandra David Neel Florence Farr Dion Fortune Hermann Hesse and Rudolf Steiner From the little magazines where occultism and Fabianism were comfortable companions to consulting rooms of psychoanalysts where archetypes were revealed to be both mystical and mundane to the forbidden mountain trails that led to formidable spiritual teachers the conditions of modernism were invariably those conditions which inspired a return to the occult traditions that many thinkers believed had long evaporated Indeed in many ways these traditions were the making of the modern world By uncovering hidden hopes and anxieties that faced a newly modern Western Europe this book demonstrates how literary modernists understood occultism as a universal form of cultural expression which has inspired creative exuberance since the dawn of civilisation
