In a Stovepipe Hat

Although he had only about one year of schooling, Abraham Lincoln is thought to be one of the world's greatest writers.

Abraham Lincoln's father was a farmer. He taught Abe to work hard. Abe didn't want to be a farmer. Abe wanted to learn. He went to school when he could. He read many books. He learned how to write by reading.

In Lincoln's time, there was no TV or radio. He could not speak to many people at the same time. Lincoln thought he could talk to many people by writing to them. He began by writing poetry.

Later, Lincoln became a lawyer. Lincoln had to write for the job. He learned to write short pages that made his point. As a politician, Lincoln had to write speeches. His words were powerful. He said, "He knew that his words were powerful. Lincoln hoped that people would read his words for years to come. And people do. The other president is quoted as often as Abraham Lincoln."
