Maternal Pasts, Feminist Futures Lynne Huffer,1998 This book examines the relations among nostalgia gender and foundational philosophies through a critique of the lost mother as a ground for thinking about sexual difference More specifically the author critiques the nostalgic tendencies of feminist theory arguing that an emancipatory system of thought must move beyond a maternally oriented structure Through close readings of works by Maurice Blanchot Luce Irigaray Julia Kristeva and Nicole Brossard the book elucidates the many dimensions of nostalgic paradigms literary psychoanalytic epistemological ontological and sociopolitical This critique ultimately confronts postmodernism and especially the burgeoning field of performative theory as an intellectual paradigm that claims to subvert systems of meaning Analyzing the writings of J L Austin Judith Butler and Irigaray the author argues that despite its antinostalgic structure performative theory provides an inadequate model for understanding the connections among language identity and the social bonds that constitute the ethical and political sphere Asserting through the example of performative theory that a critique is not enough the book examines the possibility of a constructive model that is both non nostalgic and informed by ethical constraints One such model is offered through a reading of the Quebecois writer Nicole Brossard which explores her work in relation to the question of lesbian writing Demystifying nostalgia Brossard not only uncovers and subverts the structures through which a concept of origins is produced but also provides a different visionary way of thinking about the relationship between subjectivity and language Finally the book argues for further feminist work on the relationship between narrative and ethics a field whose future lies in the elaboration of a bridge between the moral commitments of ethical theory and the fractured realities that find their expression in literary forms

Apparitions--of Derrida's Other Kas Saghafi, 2010 How does Derrida write of and on the other Apparitions examines exemplary instances of the relation to the other the relation of Moses to God Derrida's friendship with Jean Luc Nancy Derrida's relation to a recently departed actress caught on video to demonstrate how Derrida forces us to reconceive who or what the other may be For Derrida the singularity of the other includes not only the formal or logical sense of alterity the otherness of the human other but also the otherness of the nonliving the no longer living or the not yet alive Addressing Derrida's readings of Husserl Levinas Barthes Blanchot and Nancy this book explores the apparitions of the other by attending to the mode of appearing the phenomenality and visibility of the other The book also demonstrates that video and photography display an intimate relation to spectrality as well as a structural relation to the absolute singularity of the other

Approaches to Teaching the Works of Primo Levi Nicholas Patruno, Roberta Ricci, 2014-11-01 Primo Levi Holocaust survivor and renowned memoirist is one of the most widely read writers of post World War II Italy His works are characterized by the lean dispassionate eloquence with which he approaches his experience of incarceration in Auschwitz His memoirs as well as his poetry and fiction and his many interviews are often taught in several fields including Jewish studies and Holocaust studies comparative literature and Italian language and literature and can enrich the study of history psychology and philosophy The first part of this volume provides instructors with an overview of the available editions anthologies and translations of Levi's work and identifies other useful classroom aids such as films music and online resources In the second part contributors describe different approaches to teaching Levi's work Some in presenting Survival in Auschwitz The Reawakening and The Drowned and the Saved look at the place of style in Holocaust testimony and the reliability of memory in autobiography Others focus on questions of translation complicated by the untranslatable in the language and experiences of the concentration camps or on how Levi incorporates his background as a chemist into his writing most clearly in The Periodic Table

Avant-Garde World Creation Abigail van Alst, 2025-10-30 This book explores the widespread fascination with world creation among early twentieth century artists and examines those trends within the European avant garde The book reflects on what the world looks and feels like before and after World War One and thus also concerns creativity and destruction alike in the context of modernity Over the course of three chapters the author focusses on works in which avant garde artists combine and experiment with various arts and media to create alternative narratives of the world's creation. These works include three canonized total works of art: Der Weltbaumeister (The World's Master Builder, 1920), an illustrated book imagined as an architectural play by the Expressionist architect Bruno Taut; the Futurist opera Cosmic Victory Over the Sun (1913) by Aleksei Kruchenykh, Velimir Khlebnikov, Kazimir Malevich, and Mikhail Matiushin; and the Cubist ballet La Création du monde (The Creation of the World, 1923) by Blaise Cendrars, Fernand Léger, Darius Milhaud, and Jean Bérthelin. Providing new readings of these classic works that dive deeply into the avant garde's inter-artistic search for new modes of mediation as well as its dialogue with science, politics, and technology, Abigail van Alst demonstrates how each of these artworks staged a cosmogony, an alternative story of the universe's creation, which simultaneously experimentally and critically recounted the story of modernity. This new book is ideal for researchers and scholars in History of Art, Modernism, and Comparative Literature.

Science Fiction from Quebec Amy J. Ransom, 2009-05-20 This first book-length study of French language science fiction from Canada provides an introduction to the subgenre known as SFQ (science fiction from Quebec). In addition, it offers in-depth analyses of SFQ sagas by Jacques Brossard, Esther Rochon, and Elisabeth Vonarburg. It demonstrates how these multivolume narratives of colonization and postcolonial societies exploit themes typical of postcolonial literatures, including the denunciation of oppressive colonial systems, the utopian hope for a better future, and the celebration of tolerant, pluralistic societies. A bibliography of SFQ available in English translation is included.
