Mountain Hands Sam Venable, 2000 Hazel Pendley creates heirloom quality quilts Ed Ripley wraps bits of fur and feathers into trout flies the size of gnats Edna Hartong still makes an item that has all but disappeared from the American scene lye soap All of these people and many more like them are Appalachians who work with their hands Journalist Sam

Venable and photographer Paul Efirm spent four years combing the hills and hollows of Southern Appalachia to find these talented individuals and let them talk about their work. Mountain Hands is an intimate look at more than three dozen such craftspeople and their vocations. Venable and Efirm encountered folks who pursue popular crafts such as basketweaving and clockmaking. But they found practitioners of other trades: wallpaper hangers and rail splitters, beekeepers and gravediggers whose work also depends upon dexterity and upon expressing a distinctive Appalachian way of life. Some are college educated, some can barely read and write; some have lived in these hills all their lives, others have only recently come to call them home. Yet each feels bound to the region through a deep sense of belonging and each owes at least part of his or her livelihood to handwork. While most of us may think of working with one's hands as entering computer data, these individuals attest to the perseverance and appeal of more traditional ways. Mountain Hands is a celebration in words and photographs of gifted people who understand and appreciate the Appalachian heritage and who live it every day.

The Author A fifth generation southern Appalachian, Sam Venable is a newspaper columnist whose award-winning observations on daily life appear four times a week in the Knoxville News Sentinel. A graduate of the University of Tennessee, Venable has spent most of his career roaming the highlands of his home state. He and his wife Mary Ann, also a Tennessee native and UT graduate, live in a log house atop a wooded ridge on the outskirts of Knoxville.

The Photographer Paul Efirm is a native of Rome, Georgia. He holds a degree in biology from Shorter College but has spent his professional career as a news photographer. After working for two newspapers in Georgia, he moved to Tennessee in 1990 and became a staff photographer for the News Sentinel. Efirm is an avid hiker, canoeist, and backpacker. He and his wife Stephanie live in Knoxville.

From the Back of the Line Gloria Ward Wright, 2006-11

From the Back of the Line: The Views of a Teenager From the 1960s Civil Rights Movement chronicles the life of a young African American girl who moved from a follower to a leader in human rights. Sixteen-year-old Gloria Ward was arrested four times in 1962 for demonstrating against the ills of segregation and racism in her hometown of Albany, Georgia. With her teenage friends and classmates, she marched behind Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., Dr. Ralph David Abernathy Sr., Rev. Charles Sherrod, the Honorable Andrew Young, the late Rev. Samuel Wells, and other older leaders. In a widely circulated newspaper article, Gloria was criticized by a white Albany teenager, Kay Smith, who wasn't shy about expressing her racist opinions. Kay called Gloria a pawn and a fool for her involvement in the demonstrations. Kay eventually came to see civil rights in a different light. Although they never met as teenagers, Kay often wondered about Gloria and what had happened to her later in life. Thirty-five years after the newspaper article ran, Kay found Gloria through a mutual friend and apologized for her racist views and statements. Today the two women are close friends. Their story of forgiveness and friendship is just one part of Gloria's remarkable life story as human rights activist, teacher, wife, mother, and pastor. From the Back of the Line describes Dr. Wright's experiences growing up during the civil rights era and moving from the back of the line to leadership positions. She has written this book because she wants young people to know their civil rights history and to understand that they can and should move forward Her story is told with passion candor and light humor She tells it like it was how she saw and participated in history From the Back of the Line The book also contains photographs and an appendix containing quotations from notable civil rights leaders a summary of the 1964 Civil Rights Act and recommended reading Blue Ridge Folklife Ted Olson,1998-02 The settlers who did not migrate to new lands became geographically isolated and politically and economically marginalized Yet they created fulfilling lives for themselves by forging effective and oftentimes sophisticated folklife traditions many of which endure in the region today
