Occhipinti, 2014-07-22 Every year an estimated 1 6 million Americans participate in short term mission trips spending over one billion dollars figures that have increased exponentially in the last two decades About one third of U S congregations sponsor such trips each year While they are referred to as mission trips many trips focus not on conversion or evangelism but on service projects building a playground providing medical care or serving free meals to the poor Short term mission participants have a genuine desire to transform conditions of poverty yet they don t always know how to go about it many people involved in short term mission work virtually reinvent the wheel when they design and plan their service projects Making a Difference in a Globalized World Short term Missions thatWork is a guide to leaders of such trips The book presents clear insight and research from anthropologists and development professionals and encourages individuals to lead mission trips that make a greater impact on the communities that they are serving The text provides a framework for planning short term mission trips foundation for planning personal anecdotes and case studies and practical suggestions for volunteer opportunities This handbook is a vital resource for any potential mission volunteers or organizers Leadership Development in a Global World J. Canals, 2012-10-29 Global companies are facing a new pressure to develop leaders with global mindsets The war for managerial talent has never been so intense Companies and business schools need not only to fine tune practices and models but redesign current paradigms and create more effective and sustainable ways to invest in leadership development Exploring Information Systems Research Approaches Robert Galliers, M. Lynne Markus, Susan Newell, 2007 Exploring Information Systems Research Approaches is intended for supervisors and research students in the information systems and related fields This collection of thought provoking articles arranged in sections that reflect the broadening nature of the field provides examples of a range of research approaches This book focuses on different research approaches their strengths limitations and the conclusions which can be drawn from them and explores the impact of information and communication technologies on groups on organizations between organizations on markets and on society worldwide The articles selected have been chosen to represent an approach to research or an alternative design within an approach e g single case versus multiple cases survey within industry versus survey across industries Each section is preceded by an editorial introduction that places the chosen articles in context of other similar research and provides a summary of the articles in terms of the research method employed focus and perspective of the research technology being employed findings and overall contribution of the work Each introduction also highlights various issues and factors that the reader should consider when studying each of the articles in the section and includes ideas for further reading and discussion questions suitable for doctoral research seminars Disability and Difference in Global Contexts N.

Erevelles,2011-11-16 This book explores the possibilities and limitations re theorizing disability using historical materialism in the interdisciplinary contexts of social theory cultural studies social and education policy feminist ethics and theories of citizenship Universal Human Rights in a World of Difference Brooke A. Ackerly,2008-06-26 From the diverse work and often competing insights of women s human rights activists Brooke Ackerly has written a feminist and a universal theory of human rights that bridges the relativists concerns about universalizing from particulars and the activists commitment to justice Unlike universal theories that rely on shared commitments to divine authority or to an enlightened way of reasoning Ackerly s theory relies on rigorous methodological attention to difference and disagreement She sets out human rights as at once a research ethic a tool for criticism of injustice and a call to recognize our obligations to promote justice through our actions This book will be of great interest to political theorists feminist and gender studies scholars and researchers of social movements Difference Making at the Heart of Learning Tom Vander Ark,Emily Liebttag,2020-09-30 Your students will change the world Today s learners know they face a complex future They yearn to live in a world where people are working with purpose leading with character and making a difference Learning to identify problems and use smart tools to develop meaningful solutions will help them make a difference in their families their communities and for society They need your help This inspirational yet practical guide shows educators how to build on students own talents and interests to develop their desire for a better world entrepreneurial mindset and personal leadership skills Features include New learning priorities centered around making a difference A framework based on the 25 most important issues of our time Examples and case studies from a diverse range of projects people and places Students learn more when they feel a sense of purpose With adults like you to guide them they ll be ready to make a difference and shape the world to come Intercultural Transfers and the Making of the Modern World, 1800-2000 Thomas Adam,2011-11-29 For far too long the history of the modern era has been written as a history of isolated nation states This book which presents both interpretation and primary source documents challenges a nation centred account exploring the interconnected and interrelated nature of societies in the nineteenth and twentieth century Responding to the burgeoning interest and number of courses in global and world history Intercultural Transfers and the Making of the Modern World introduces both the methods and materials of transnational history Case studies highlight transnational connections through the examples of cooperatives housing reform education eugenics and non violent resistance By embracing the interconnected nature of human history across continents and oceans and by employing the concept of intercultural transfer Adam explores the roots and global distribution of major transformations and their integration into local regional and national contexts This is an invaluable resource for the study of global world and transnational history Electronic Commerce Steve Elliot, 2002-03-15 Notwithstanding the NASDAQ upheavals in 2000 industry is continuing to embrace the concepts of Electronic Commerce However a major barrier to more widespread implementation of Electronic Commerce is uncertainty within organizations as how best to proceed Based on research in six economies the UK USA Denmark Greece Hong Kong China and Australia this much needed guide to the implementation of business to consumer electronic commerce addresses the documented uncertainties of business and consumers with Internet retailing by presenting the experiences of leading examples of Business to Consumer Electronic Commerce in each of six economies The countries represent a broad range of environments to identify issues that may be specific to a particular market The firms have been selected as significant examples of Internet retailing in industry sectors recognized as leaders in the use of the Internet including travel books music CDs technology sales gifts groceries and general merchandise World Englishes Ee Ling Low, Anne Pakir, 2017-10-31 In this book leading scholars in the field of World Englishes WE offer fresh perspectives in re thinking issues on the use of English as a global language in an interconnected world Established as a legitimate field of study WE offers a conceptual framework which has influenced scholarship in many related disciplines contact linguistics postcolonial Englishes English as a lingua franca English as an international language and applied linguistics This seminal volume will have an excellent balance between theoretical and empirical works focusing on scholarship that has arisen in relation to the Kachruvian Three Concentric Circles model This book covers topics such as state of the art review of WE WE and contact linguistics post colonial Englishes English as a Lingua Franca English as an International Language WE and applied linguistics language measurement and testing in WE language policy and management language education and dynamic ecologies language typology WE as a new canon WE and corpus linguistics WE and multimodalities and makes predictions about the future of WE It contains a comprehensive and up to date bibliography of major works published in the field Rise of the International Richard Devetak, Tim Dunne, Timothy Dunne, 2024 International Relations and History were once academic fields sharing a common concern with the affairs of empires states and nations Over the course of the twentieth century however they drifted apart International Relations largely retained the focus on the affairs and relations of these principal international actors but took a methodological turn leading to higher levels of theoretical abstraction History on the other hand retained the methods that define the discipline but shifted the focus veering away from matters of state to the vast array of actors events activities and issues that colour everyday life In recent years the drift has been arrested by scholars in each discipline who have turned towards the other discipline in their research International Relations has undergone a historiographical turn while History has taken an international turn Rise of the International brings together scholars of International Relations and History to capture the emergence and development of the thought the relations and the systems that have come to be called international in western discourse The evidence offered by contributors to the volume suggests there has been no single stable unchanging concept or object of theoretical reflection or historical investigation that can be called the international but a variety of historically contingent conceptualizations across different contexts
