Making Finance Work For Africa:

Making Finance Work for Africa Patrick Honohan, Thorsten Beck, 2007 Drawing on its extensive experience in helping restructure and reform financial systems the World Bank examines the state of African domestic financial systems in a global comparison It identifies promising trends as well as pinpointing the major shortcomings that are observed across sub Saharan Africa Policy recommendations distinguish between those designed to make finance a more effective driver of economic growth and those designed to give low income small scale and other excluded groups better access to financial services Policy Brief: Advancing African Womens Financial Inclusion Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ), 2012

The Service Sector and Economic Development in Africa Evelyn F. Wamboye, Peter Nyaronga, 2018-09-04 The service sector accounts for a huge proportion of global employment and is the biggest driver of gross domestic product in developing nations Yet there has been little research uncovering its scope potential and implications on sustained and inclusive economic growth This is especially true for Africa which has seen a strong growth trajectory in recent years This book presents a new frontier of research offering insightful perspectives on the 21st century realities of the service sector and its effect on economic development in Africa The analysis presented here will be of relevance to academics and policymakers with an interest in Africa s role in the global economy Policy Framework for Investment in Agriculture in Burkina Faso OECD, 2013-12-23 This whole of government assessment examines policies to attract and benefit from investment in the sector and identifies short to medium term measures to improve and strengthen the country s capacity for policy design Innovating South-South Cooperation Hany Gamil Besada, M.
