Faith Based Jason Hackworth, 2012-06-01 Faith Based explores how the Religious Right has supported neoliberalism in the United States bringing a particular focus to welfare an arena where conservative Protestant politics and neoliberal economic ideas come together most clearly Through case studies of gospel rescue missions Habitat for Humanity and religious charities in post Katrina New Orleans Jason Hackworth describes both the theory and practice of faith based welfare revealing fundamental tensions between the religious and economic wings of the conservative movement Hackworth begins by tracing the fusion of evangelical religious conservatism and promarket antigovernment activism which resulted in what he calls religious neoliberalism He argues that neoliberalism the ideological sanctification of private property the individual and antistatist politics has rarely been popular enough on its own to promote wide change Rather neoliberals gain the most traction when they align their efforts with other discourses and ideas The promotion of faith based alternatives to welfare is a classic case of coalition building on the Right Evangelicals get to provide social services in line with Biblical tenets while opponents of big government chip away at the public safety net Though religious neoliberalism is most closely associated with George W Bush s Office of Faith Based and Neighborhood Partnerships the idea predates Bush and continues to hold sway in the Obama administration Despite its success however Hackworth contends that religious neoliberalism remains an uneasy alliance a fusion that has been tested and frayed by recent events

Jesus on Main Street David E. Understanding the Culture Jeff Myers, 2017-03-01 Addressing issues such as gender identity abortion technology and poverty Dr Myers challenges readers to ask How can an authentic Christian worldview provide a compassionate effective witness in culture today Dr Myers first shows readers what they can learn from Christian history and why today's issues might not be as new as they seem Then he takes them through the significant topics that affect them every day offering biblical ideas for conversing with others in an increasingly hostile culture This capstone book to a groundbreaking worldview trilogy equips readers to apply a bold Christian witness to their relationships with loved ones neighbors and colleagues Here Comes Everybody William C. Graham, 2009 Some of these essays were first delivered as lectures in the Here Comes Everybody series to inaugurate the establishment of the Braegelman Program of Catholic Studies at The College of St Scholastica in Duluth Minnesota The authors gathered here begin to suggest something of the depth and breadth of the living Catholic Intellectual Tradition They are leading the way in new and important discussions These programs are about more than Catholic institutions exploring and asserting their identity Surely those involved seek rigorous engagement with the Catholic Intellectual Tradition examining religious ideas and ideals and participating in the study of Catholic thought and culture They seek dialogue with Catholics of all mind sets with Christians from other denominations believers from other faith traditions and all who seek the truth Book Jacket Bright Hope Ted Brackman, 2022-11-04

Hope is not an attitude it s a way of life Therapist Ted Brackman a colleague of Jim Wallis in the early Sojourners community mines psychological theological and sociological insights in this practical and compassionate guide for living well while ill Ted s work was deepened by his eleven years with pancreatic cancer after a nine month prognosis He developed and lived out a way of life animated by hope in the transcendent reality of God s future coming to us in the present In his writing he is an honest inspiring companion for those who struggle to face the next hour with courage and strength for those who feel defeated and need a new way forward that reframes the present for caregivers and advocates who need new tools for replenishing both internal and external resources for communities of faith seeking to bring change to and empowering hope within marginalized populations For all those ready to find a new way of living when false hopes and distractions are stripped away to learn how to build a foundation for personal communal and social thriving Ted Brackman offers Bright Hope

Business Improvement Districts and the Contradictions of Placemaking Susanna F. Schaller, 2019-07-15 The livable city the creative city and more recently the pop up city have become pervasive monikers that identify a new type of urbanism that has sprung up globally produced and managed by the business improvement district and known colloquially by its acronym BID With this case study Susanna F Schaller draws on more than fifteen years of research to present a direct focused engagement with both the planning history that shaped Washington D C s landscape and the intricacies of everyday life politics and planning practice as they relate to BIDs Schaller offers a critical unpacking of the BID ethos which draws on the language of economic liberalism individual choice civic engagement localism and grassroots development to portray itself as color blind democratic and equitable Schaller reveals the contradictions embedded in the BID model For the last thirty years BID advocates have engaged in effective and persuasive storytelling as a result many policy makers and planners perpetuate the BID narrative without examining the institution and the inequities it has wrought Schaller sheds light on these oversights thus fostering a critical discussion of BIDs and their collective influence on future urban landscapes

Funding Forward Grace Duddy Pomroy, 2024-09-17 Many congregations across the country are coming to two seemingly unrelated realizations First the Sunday morning offering may not be enough to sustain their mission Second their ministry has been so internally focused that they are almost entirely disconnected from the community they are called to serve Funding Forward provides a path to help a congregation discern God's mission reconnect with the neighborhood and find a new more economically sustainable model for ministry Drawing on years of teaching research and field work Pomroy shows there are no one size fits all solutions for church and nonprofit finances There is no single model that will work for every ministry Each economic model has a distinct shape because each ministry has a distinct mission and community However common tools span these ministry models repurposing church property social enterprise impact investing grants multi vocational ministry and more While the tools and models can spark creativity congregational leaders often wonder what process they might use to discern God's mission which tools will work best in their context and how they might get other congregational leaders on board Discernment and execution are much more challenging than the ideation process Funding Forward can help ministers and ministries move through the funding forward process from start to finish paying special attention to the leadership challenges and pitfalls they might encounter along the way good news is that churches are effectively addressing the housing crisis from Washington State to New York City where an alliance of sixty churches has built five thousand homes for low income homeowners with virtually no government funding or foreclosures This book not only presents solid theological thinking about housing but also offers workable solutions to the current crisis true stories by those who have made housing happen Each story features a different Christian denomination geographic area and model adaptive reuse cohousing cooperative housing mixed income mixed use inclusionary zoning second units community land trusts sweat equity and more Making Housing Happen is about vision and faith relationships and persistence Its remarkable stories will inspire and challenge you to action This new edition includes significant new material especially in light of the ongoing mortgage crisis Shook and her colleagues powerfully blend inspiration and practical reality weaving together the need for affordable housing the teachings of the prophetic tradition and the tangible accomplishments of churches and other faith based organizations around the country This book should be read by any person of faith ready to put that faith into practice Alan Mallach Senior Fellow of the National Housing Institute and Brookings Institution Making Housing Happen brings hope and delivers it to the non expert in a clear digestible and comprehensive way Drawing on the experience of housing providers all over the country Shook blends inspiration and practicality in just the right proportions Tim Iglesias University of San Francisco School of Law Making Housing Happen captures the diversity of faithful approaches to addressing the wide range of housing needs in our nation Jill s brings these stories together with a policy lens and a theological narrative that is unparalleled Before reading the book I struggled with how to address the deep wounds of the housing crisis in a faithful way After reading the book I was moved and inspired to work with communities of faith to find solutions to homelessness Making Housing Happen is an incredible resource and reference tool for me as I mobilize congregations to create and advocate for housing with dignity in my community It s stories and examples are full of inspiration hard earned wisdom and hope Allison Johnson Plymouth Church Neighborhood Foundation Making Housing Happen gives students inspiring examples of how they can participate in making a difference in the lives of people throughout the community It is real practical and personal Making Housing Happen brings the dry statistics of America s affordable housing crisis to life with moving stories of struggle and triumph Dr Russell James III University of Georgia Shook has collected wise and astute commentary from the experts in the field of housing Together they offer the theological and biblical insights we need to motivate us to address a crisis in America Church people need to do something about this crisis and this book will aid them immensely if they are willing to take up the challenge Tony Campolo Eastern University Jill Suzanne Shook works with churches to bring about housing justice in the United States She has earned graduate degrees from Denver Seminary and Bakke Graduate School Shook is a frequent workshop presenter and h The Poor Side of Town Howard A. Husock, 2021-09-21 This book combines a critique of more than a century of housing reform policies including public and other subsidized housing as well as exclusionary zoning with the idea that simple low cost housing a poor side of town helps those of modest means build financial assets and join in the local democratic process It is more of a historical narrative than a straight policy book however telling stories of Jacob Riis zoning reformer Lawrence Veiller anti reformer Jane Jacobs housing developer William Levitt and African American small homes advocate Rev Johnny Ray Youngblood as well as first person accounts of onetime residents of neighborhoods such as Detroit s Black Bottom who lost their homes and businesses to housing reform and urban renewal This is a book with important policy implications built on powerful personal stories

Hurtin' Words Ted Ownby, 2018-10-31 When Tammy Wynette sang D I V O R C E she famously said she spelled out the hurtin words to spare her child the pain of family breakup In this innovative work Ted Ownby considers how a wide range of writers thinkers activists and others defined family problems in the twentieth century American South Ownby shows that it was common for both African Americans and whites to discuss family life in terms of crisis but they reached very different conclusions about causes and solutions In the civil rights period many embraced an ideal of Christian brotherhood as a way of transcending divisions Opponents of civil rights denounced brotherhoodism as a movement that undercut parental and religious authority Others especially in the African American community rejected the idea of family crisis altogether working to redefine family adaptability as a source of strength Rather than attempting to define the experience of an archetypal southern family Ownby looks broadly at contexts such as political and religious debates about divorce and family values southern rock music autobiographies and more to reveal how people in the South used the concept of the family as a proxy for imagining a better future or happier past

Disrupting Homelessness Laura Stivers, 2011-04-01 Disrupting Homelessness unmask the futile assumptions of our present approaches to homelessness and suggests ways in which Christians and Christian communities can create a prophetic social movement to end poverty and homelessness Some Christian organizations focus on fixing the person and the behaviors that contribute toward homelessness Others promote home ownership for low income households Stivers criticizes both approaches and assesses to what extent these approaches buy into our culture s dominant ideologies on housing and homelessness and whether they promote justice and liberation for the least well off She then outlines an advocacy approach for churches to address the multiple causes of homelessness and prophetically to aim to make a home for all in God s just and compassionate community

Making Housing Happen Faith Based Affordable Housing Models: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the captivating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Making Housing Happen Faith Based Affordable Housing Models : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
